In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

"It is He Who has sent amongst the Unlettered a messenger from among themselves, to rehearse to them His Signs, to sanctify them, and to instruct them in Scripture and Wisdom- although they had been, before in manifest error." (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 2)

(21) The Book Of Transactions

[1] Forbiddance of selling through touching or throwing (the goods)

- 1-(1511) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (selling through) touching (i.e. that each one of the two parties involved in the process of transaction would touch the garment of the other without examining it before confirming the transaction), and throwing (i.e. that each one of them would throw his garment to the other without looking at it).
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.
- 2-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It was forbidden (by The Prophet to practice) two kinds of selling: touching and throwing. As for touching, it is that each one of them would touch the garment of the other without even examining it. As for throwing, it is that each one of them would throw his garment to the other without looking at it. (As a result of those two kinds, selling would become obligatory).
- 3-(1512) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to practice two kinds of selling and two kinds of dresses. He forbade us to do transactions by Mulamasa and Munabadha. Mulamasa implies that one touches another's garment with his hand, whether at night or by day, without turning it over except this much. Munabadha implies that one throws his garment to another and the other throws his garment to him, and in this way, the transaction would be affirmed, without checking (the sold objects) or even considering mutual consent.

- (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab with the same chain of transmitters.
- [2] Invalidity of selling by the way of (tossing) pebbles, and of selling what is unknown, or is not in the possession of the seller
- 4-(1513) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by the way of tossing pebbles, and the selling of Gharar. (The first is to say to the buyer: I would sell to you all the garments upon which the pebbles would fall; or to say to him: You are permitted to keep having the option (whether to cancel or to confirm the transaction) until I toss the pebbles; or to make the act of tossing pebbles the same transaction, as to say: If I toss this garment with the pebbles, then it would be regarded to have been sold by such-and-such a price. As for the second type of invalid transaction, it is to sell what is unknown or is not in the possession of the seller such as selling the fish in the river, the milk in the udder, or the offspring in the womb).

[3] Forbiddance of selling the offspring of the pregnant (animal)

- 5-(1514) Nafi narrated from Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling the offspring of the pregnant (animal whether by paying the price in advance until the she-camel delivers its offspring, or by selling the same offspring of the she-camel currently).
- 6-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The people of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance used to bargain the meat of the camel until (they would sell) that of the offspring of its would-be born (offspring before being born). I.e. that the she-camel would produce an offspring, which would become pregnant. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade them (Muslims) to practice that.
- [4] Forbiddance of urging somebody to return what he has already bought so as to sell him his own goods, or purchasing (the same object) one's brother has already agreed to buy, or outbidding, or tying up the udder of the animal which is on sale without being milked for a long time (for deception)
- 7-(1412) Nafi narrated: Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None should urge somebody to return what he has already bought (from another seller) so as to sell him his own goods."

[البخاري: كتاب مناقب الأنصار، باب أيام الجاهلية، رقم: ٤٦٣٨].

٤ ـ باب تَحْرِيم بَيعِ الرَّجُلِ على بَيْعِ أَخِيهِ، وسَوْمِهِ على سَوْمهِ، وتحريم النَّجْشِ، وتحريم التَّصْرِيةِ

٧ _ (١٤١٢) _ حدِّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يحْيَىٰ. قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَىٰ مَالِكِ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «لاَ يَبِعْ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَىٰ بَيْعِ بَعْضٍ».

- 8-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One should not urge somebody to return the goods (to the seller from whom he has already bought) so as to sell him his own goods; nor should one demand the hand of a girl who has already been engaged to someone else unless he (the latter) permits him to do."
- 9-(1515) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No Muslim should urge somebody to cancel a transaction (upon which the seller has already agreed) with his brother (i.e. the purchaser as well as its price has been agreed upon) so as to purchase it from him."
- 10-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated through another chain of transmitters, that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade one's purchasing (in opposition) to his brother.
- 11-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not go forward to meet the (desert) riders (to buy from them on the way with cheaper prices before they reach the town and know the real prices of their goods). Do not urge buyers to cancel their transactions to sell them (your own goods) yourselves, and do not practice outbidding (against one another). A town dweller should not sell the goods on behalf of the desert dweller. Do not leave she-camels or sheep without being milked for a long time, when they are on sale, and whoever buys such an animal has the option, after milking it, either of keeping it, in case of being satisfied with it, or of returning it, in case of being displeased with it, along with a Sa of dates."
- 12-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that one should meet the (desert) riders (so as to buy from them with cheaper prices), that a town dweller should sell (goods) on behalf of a desert dweller, that a woman should ask the divorce of her sister (in order to deprive her of her belongings). (He also forbade) outbidding (against one another), keeping milk for a long time in the udder of the animal, which is on sale, and purchasing (in opposition) to one's brother.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, through another chain of transmitters. In the narration of both Ghundur and Wahb (it was mentioned): It was forbidden (by The Prophet). In the narration of Abd As-Samad (it was mentioned): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade.

13-(1516) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade outbidding (against one another).

[5] Forbiddance of meeting the traders (to buy from them with cheaper prices before their arrival in the town)

- 14-(1517) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that the (traders of the) goods should be met (in order to buy from them on the way) until they reach the markets. (This is the wording of Ibn Numair. As for the two other transmitters, they told that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade the meeting (of goods traders).
- (...) Ibn Umar narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.
- 15-(1518) Abu Uthman narrated from Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade meeting the (traders of the) sales (to buy from them on the way).
- 16-(1519) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that the (traders of the) goods should be met (in order to buy from them on the way).
- 17-(...) Ibn Sirin narrated: I heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" telling: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not meet the (traders of the) goods (on the way), and if one met them and bought something from them, and then its (the merchandise's) owner went to the market (and knew that its real price was more than what he had been paid), he should have the option (to take it and cancel the transaction).

Muhaqala, Muzabana, Mukhabara, and purchasing date-palm trees until (their fruits) have become ripe, i.e. until they have become red or yellow and fit for eating. Muhaqala means to sell the field (of standing crops) by a definite amount of foodstuff. Muzabana means to sell the (fresh fruits on the) date-palm trees by many Wasaqs of dry dates. Mukhabara means (to rent the land for a specific share of its yield such as its) one-third, one-fourth, and the like of that. Zaid said: I asked Ata Ibn Abu Rabah: Did you hear Jabir Ibn Abdullah relating that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He answered in the affirmative.

- 84-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling fresh fruits for dry fruits (of the same kind with measure which leads to disputes among the people as being based upon dangers and mistakes, known as Muzabana), selling standing crops for measured foodstuff (Muhaqala), renting the land for a definite share of its yield (Mukhabara), selling the fruits until they have started to ripen. I (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Sa'id (another sub-narrator): What does he mean by (his saying) "until they have started to ripen"? He said: Until they have become red and yellow and fit for eating.

105-(1546) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade Muzabana and Muhaqala. Muzabana is to purchase the fresh fruits on the date-palm trees (by dry dates according to measure). Muhaqala is to rent the land (for a specific share of its yield).

106-(1547) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We used to see no harm in renting the land for a definite share of its yield until the first year was over, when Rafi Ibn Khadij pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden it.

- 107-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Dinar, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Ibn Uyaina, he added: So, we abandoned it for that (Hadith narrated by Rafi).
- 108-(...) Mujahid narrated: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" said: Rafi (Ibn Khadij) prevented us (by the Hadith he narrated from The Prophet) to benefit from (renting) our land (for a definite share of its yield).
- 109-(...) Nafi narrated: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" used to rent his farms during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the caliphate of Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, and the first part of the caliphate of Mu'awiya, until towards the end of Mu'awiya's caliphate, he was reported that Rafi Ibn Khadij narrated

[18] Renting the land for food

- 113-(1548) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we used to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield), or for a definite amount of food. One day, one of my paternal uncles came to us and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing, which was been of benefit for us, but the obedience of Allah and His Messenger is much more beneficial for us. He forbade us to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield), or for a definite amount of food. Therefore, he ordered that the landlord should either cultivate the land himself (if he so liked), or give it to somebody else gratis to cultivate it. He (The Prophet) disliked renting it and the like of that."
- (...) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated from Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him": We used to rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (of its yield)... and the rest is the same.
 - (...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Hakim.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Hakim, from Rafi Ibn Khadij, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he did not mention "from some of his paternal uncles."
- 114-(...) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" reported: My uncle Zuhair came to me and said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing which was a source of benefit to us." I said: "What is that? Whatever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" says is right." He said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent for me and asked: "What are you doing with your farms?" I replied: "O Messenger of Allah! We get our farms rented on the basis that we get the yield produced at the banks of the water streams for the rental fee, or rent them for some Wasaqs of dates or barley." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so, but cultivate them yourselves or let them be cultivated by others gratis, or keep them uncultivated."

[19] Renting the land for gold and silver

- 115-(1547) Hanzala narrated that he asked Rafi Ibn Khadij about renting the land. Upon this he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land." I said to him: "What about (renting the land for) gold and silver (i.e. money)?" He replied: "As for (renting the land for) gold and silver, there is no harm in it."
- 116-(...) Hanzala Ibn Qais Al-Ansari narrated: I asked Rafi Ibn Khadij about renting the land for gold and silver. He said: There is no harm in it. During the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", people used to rent the land for (the yield produced on the areas irrigated with) canals and (the yield produced on) the ends of the streamlets, and shares of the crops. (Sometimes) that (portion specified for the rental fee) might be destroyed, and the other might be safe, and vice versa. Since the people had no rental other than that, they were prevented to practice it. But, if it (the rental fee) was something definite and secured (such as money), there would be no harm in it.
- 117-(...) Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were the most to work on cultivation among the Ansar. He (Rafi) said: We used to rent the land on the condition that (the yield of) that portion would be for us, and (the yield of) that portion would be for them. Perhaps, that (portion) might yield and this (portion) might not yield. So, he (The Prophet) forbade us to practice that. As for (renting the land for) silver (i.e. money), he did not forbid us (to do it).
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, with the same chain of transmitters.

[20] What about sharecropping and renting (the land)

- 118-(1549) Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'ib narrated: I asked Abdullah Ibn Ma'qil about sharecropping. He said: Thabit Ibn Ad-Dahhak "Allah be pleased with him" told me that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade sharecropping. According to the narration of Ibn Abu Shaiba, he (mentioned that he) said: He (The Prophet) forbade it. He (Ibn As-Sa'ib) said: I asked Ibn Ma'qil, without naming Abdullah.
- 119-(...) Abdullah Ibn As-Sa'ib narrated: We entered upon Abdullah Ibn Ma'qil, whom we asked about sharecropping. Upon this he said: Thabit pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade sharecropping, and permitted renting (the land for money) and said: "There is no harm in it."

[21] The land is granted

120-(1550) Mujahid narrated: I said to Tawus: Come along with me to Ibn Rafi Ibn Khadij, so as to listen from him the Hadith he is narrating from his father from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (as regards the forbiddance of renting the land). Upon this he scolded him and said: "By Allah! Had I known that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden it, surely, I would not have practiced it. But, the most knowledgeable of them (Muslims) (i.e. Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both") narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is better for one to give his land to his brother gratis than to take (from him) a fixed rent on it.""

- 121-(...) Both of Amr and Ibn Tawus narrated that Tawus used to rent his land for a specific share of its yield. Amr said: I said (to Tawus): "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! If you abandoned such a renting of land for a specific share of its yield, (it would be better) since they pretend that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade it." He replied: "O Amr! The most knowledgeable of them (Muslims) (i.e. Ibn Abbas) told me that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had not forbidden it, but said: "It is more beneficial for one to give his land to his brother gratis than to take (from him) a fixed rental fee on it.""

Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is better for one to give his land to his brother gratis (to cultivate it) than to take (from him) such-and-such (a rent), i.e. something definite."" Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: That's Haql, or Muhaqala in the dialect of Ansar.

(22) The Book Of Sharecropping

(It is to take care of one or many trees of somebody on the condition that he would have a certain share of the fruits; and that applies also to cultivating the land and then sharecropping)

[1] Sharing the fruits

- 1-(1551) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" treated the people (Jews) of Khaibar (in such a way as to give them the land to cultivate) for half of its yield of fruits or vegetation (as their wages).
- 2-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the land to the people of Khaibar (to utilize it) on the condition that half the yield of fruits or vegetation would be their share. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to give his wives yearly one hundred Wasaqs each: eighty Wasaqs of dates and twenty Wasaqs of barley. When Umar became the caliph, and distributed (the land of) Khaibar, he gave the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the option either they should have the land and water as their shares, or he should secure for them (their shares of those) Wasaqs yearly. They differed: Some of them chose the land and water, and some chose the Wasaqs (to be secured for them) yearly. A'isha and Hafsa were among those who chose the land and water.
- 3-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" treated the people (Jews) of Khaibar (in such a way as to give them the land to cultivate) for half of its yield of fruits or vegetation...and the rest is the same as narrated by Ali Ibn Muzhir. He did not mention that A'isha and Hafsa were among those who chose the land and water. He mentioned: He (Umar) gave the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the option to give them the land. He did not mention the water.

When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had conquered Khaibar, he wanted to expel the Jews from it, as its land became the property of Allah, His Apostle, and the Muslims. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to expel the Jews but they requested him to let them stay there on the condition that they would do the labour and get half of the fruits. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told them: "We will let you stay on this condition, as long as we wish." So they (Jews) kept on living there until Umar expelled them to Taima and Ariha.

He came out to them, raising the curtain of his room, addressing Ka'b: "O Ka'b!" Ka'b replied: "Here I'm responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle!" He (The Prophet) said (to him): "Reduce your debt to one half," gesturing with his hand. Ka'b said: "I have done so, O Allah's Apostle!" On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him (Ibn Abu Hadrad): "Get up and fulfill the debt to him."

- 21-(...) Abdullah Ibn Ka'b Ibn Malik narrated that Ka'b Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" demanded his debt back from Ibn Abu Hadrad...and the rest is the same.
- (...)Abdullah Ibn Ka'b Ibn Malik narrated from his father Ka'b Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" That Abdullah Ibn Abu Hadrad Al-Aslami owed him some debt. Ka'b met him, and caught hold of him. They started talking and their voices grew louder. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by them and addressed Ka'b, pointing out to him to reduce the debt to one half. So, Ka'b got one half of the debt and exempted the debtor from the other half.

[5] If one found what he had sold with the purchaser, who became bankrupt, he would have the right to take it back

[6] The merit of giving respite to the one who is in difficulty

26-(1560) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated that Hudhaifa told them: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The angels received a soul of a man from those (people) who were before you, whom they asked: "Did you do any good?" he replied in the negative. They said: "Try to remember (any good you had done)." He said: "I used to give loans to people. I used to order my servants to give respite to the one who was in difficulty (to repay his debts), and excuse the rich one (to repay his debt at his convenience)." Upon this Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" said: "Then, excuse him."

- 27-(...) Rib'i Ibn Hirash narrated: Once, Hudhaifa and Abu Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with both" met one another. Hudhaifa said: (It was narrated that) a man met his Lord (after death), Who asked him: "What did you do (of good in the world)?" he (the man) said: "Indeed, I did no good except that I was a man of wealth (and I used to lend money to the people), and whenever I demanded it back, I used to accept only what was available (from the man who could afford it), and exempt (the one who was in difficulty) from what was not available." Upon this He (Allah) said (to the angels): "Excuse My slave." Abu Mas'ud said: It was like this that I heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".
- 28-(...) Hudhaifa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "There was a man who died and then he was admitted in Paradise. He was asked: "What (good) did you use to do (in the world)?" Either he remembered or was reminded. Then, he said: "I used to sell (commodities) to the people. I used to give more time to the one who was in difficulty (to repay his debts), and I used to be lenient in accepting the coins or cash payment." Subsequently, he was forgiven." [12] Prohibition of selling the wine

- 67-(1578) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressing (the people) in Medina: "O people! Allah Almighty referred to (the prohibition of) the wine, and perhaps Allah would reveal something pertaining to it. So, whoever has anything of it should sell it and benefit of its price." It was a short time later when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah Almighty prohibited the wine. So, whomever this Verse (of prohibition) reached and he had anything of it (wine), should neither drink nor sell it." The people brought what they had of it in the streets of Medina, and spilled it.
- 68-(1579) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Wa'la (a man from the people of Egypt) narrated that he came to Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and asked him about making juice from grapes. Ibn Abbas said: Once, a man presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a leather container full of wine. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Did you not know that Allah had prohibited it?" the man replied in the negative. Then he said something secret to another man (by his side). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What secret did you tell him?" he said: "I ordered him to sell it." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "No doubt, The One Who prohibited drinking it, prohibited also selling it." Then, he opened the leather container until what was in it was spilled.

79-(1586) Ibn Shihab narrated from Malik Ibn Aws Ibn Al-Hadathan: I came saying: "Who would exchange Dirhams (of silver for those Dinars of gold)?" Talha Ibn Ubaidullah said to him (and he was sitting in the house of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab): "Show us your gold (and leave it) and then come to us once again when our servant comes so that we would give you your (Dirhams of) silver." Upon this Umar said: "No, by Allah! Either you should give him his (coins of) silver (now) or you should give back to him his gold. No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Selling) silver for gold is usury except from hand to hand (on the spot), (selling) wheat for wheat is usury except from hand to hand (on the spot), (and selling) dates for dates is usury except from hand to hand (on the spot).""

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Uyaina from Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

80-(1587) Abu Qilaba narrated: I was in Sham sitting (with some people) in a (shape of a) ring including Muslim Ibn Yasar. Then Abu Al-Ash'ath came. the people said: "Abu Al-Ash'ath! Abu Al-Ash'ath!" then, he sat. I said to him: Narrate to our brother the Hadith of Ubada Ibn As-Samit. He said: Well. We took part in an expedition and the leader of the people was Mu'awiya. We got a lot of spoils, including utensils of silver. Mu'awiya ordered a man to sell them for something from those given to the people (i.e. the soldiers). The people hastened towards that. When this news reached Ubada Ibn As-Samit he stood up and said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding selling gold for gold, silver for silver, wheat for wheat, parley for parley, dates for dates, and salt for salt unless they are equivalent (in weight and quality and handed over) on the spot. Whoever added anything or accepted any addition would be considered to have committed usury." Consequently, the people returned what they had got (from such a sale).

When this news reached Mu'awiya, he stood up and addressed the people saying: What is the matter with those men who narrated traditions

However, the price of this kind in the market is so-and-so, and the price of that kind is so-and-so." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! In this way, you have committed usury. If you want that (i.e. to get those dates of such a better kind), sell your dates by a certain commodity, by which you could buy the dates you like.""

Abu Sa'id said: "Then, is (the sale of) dates by dates more entitled to be regarded as usury or (the sale of) silver by silver?" he (the narrator) said: I came to Ibn Umar afterwards (with whom I discussed the matter) and he forbade me to do it, but I did not go to Ibn Abbas. Abu As-Sahba told me that he asked Ibn Abbas about it in Mecca, and he disapproved of it.

101-(1596) Abu Salih narrated: I heard Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" saying: "(The exchange of) Dinar by Dinar and Dirham by Dirham should be done like by like; and whoever increased something (in any side) or accepted such an increase would be regarded to have committed usury." I said to him: "But, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" say something other than that." He (Abu Sa'id) said: "I met Ibn Abbas and asked him: Tell me about that which you say: Is it something you heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or you found in the Book of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He"?" He said: "I did neither hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor did I find it in Allah's Book. [21] Selling the camel on the condition that one should ride it (until he returns from the journey)

- 109-(715) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he was riding a camel who got exhausted. Then, he intended to let it off. (He resumed): The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined me and invoked good for me, and he poked it with the result that it turn to walk (so much fast) as it had never walked as such before. He said (to me): "Sell it to me for an ounce." I said: "No." he said once again: "Sell it to me." I sold it to him for an ounce, on the condition that I should ride it until I reach my family. When I reached, I brought the camel to him, and he paid me its price. When I returned, he sent (somebody) behind me (so that I might come to him). Then, (when I came back to him) he said: "Do you see that I asked you to reduce (the price) in order to take your camel? Take your camel and Dirhams, for it is a gift for you."

attended a certain expedition with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who (on the way of return) overtook me, while I was riding a camel used for carrying water which got so exhausted that it was hardly walking. He asked me: "What is wrong with your camel?" I said: "It is tired." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stepped behind, struck it and invoked good for it. It (turned to be so much fast to the extent that it) was walking ahead of all the camels. He (The Prophet) asked me: "Now, how do you see your camel?" I said: "It is very good, by virtue of your blessing."

He said to me: "Do you sell it to me?" I felt shy (to refuse) for I had no camel used for carrying water other than it. I replied in the affirmative. I sold it to him provided that I should ride it until I would reach Medina. I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a newly married." I excused him (to proceed faster) and he gave me permission. I proceeded ahead of the people towards Medina until I reached it, whereupon my maternal uncle asked me about the camel. I told him of what I had done with it. He blamed me for it.

He (the narrator) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said to me when I took his permission (to proceed faster): "What did you marry? A virgin or a previously married woman?" I said to him: "I married a previously married woman." He said: "Why did you not marry a virgin who could play with you and you could play with her?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My father died (or was martyred) and left young sisters of mine. So, I disliked to marry a girl like them, who would not be able to educate them, and look after them. So, I married a previously married woman so that she would look after and educate them." He (the narrator) said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Medina, I brought the camel to him in the morning. He gave me its price and returned it (the camel) to me.

He (the narrator) said: When I arrived in Medina, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Bilal: "Weigh an ounce of gold and some more to him." He gave me an ounce of gold and added extra Qirat for me. I said: "This addition made by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would lie with me forever." It was in a case of mine, which the people of Sham took on the day of Harra (on which there was fighting and robbery by the people of Syria in Medina in the sixty-third year of Hegira).

Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on a journey when my camel used for carrying water lagged behind...and the rest is the same, in which he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pricked it and then said to me: "Ride in the name of Allah." He also mentioned: He (The Prophet) kept adding (in supplication) for me and saying: "Might Allah pardon you!"
- 113-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon me while my camel was tired, he pricked it and it jumped (and walked so much fast) that I was to constrain its nose string in order that I could hear the talk of him (The Prophet), but I was not able to have control over it. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" overtook me and said: "Sell it to me." I sold it to him for five ounces (of gold) provided that I would ride it to Medina. He said: "You have (the right of) riding it to Medina." He (the narrator) said: When I arrived in Medina, I came to him (and brought the camel to him). He (gave me its price and) added an extra ounce for me. Then, he granted it (the camel) to me (besides its price).

[28] The pre-emption

133-(1608) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who has a partner in a home or a (garden of) date-palm trees, it is unlawful for him to sell (his share) until he takes permission from his partner. If he (such a partner) liked, he would take (and buy) it, and if he disapproved of it, he would abandon that (idea of selling)."

134-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made valid the pre-emption in every joint undivided property, dwelling or garden, in such a way that it is unlawful for him (a partner) to sell (his share) until he takes permission from his partner. If he (the later) liked, he might take (and buy) it, and if he liked, he might leave it. If he sold without taking permission from his partner, then, such a partner would have more right to take (and buy) that (which he sold).

135-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The pre-emption is valid in every joint (undivided) property, land, dwelling, or garden it might be, in such a way that it is not valid that one should sell (his share of it) until he offers it to his partner, who might take (and buy) it, or leave it. [30] Prohibition of oppression and usurping the land (of others) or anything else illegally

137-(1610) Sa'id Ibn Zaid Ibn Amr Ibn Nufail "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, Allah would encircle his neck with it on the Day of Judgement seven earths."

- 138-(...) Umar Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father that Arwa disputed Sa'id Ibn Zaid Ibn Amr Ibn Nufail over a portion of his home. He said: "Abrogate your claim over it, for I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, it would encircle his neck on the Day of Judgement seven earths." O Allah! If she is a liar, let her be blind, and make her grave in her house!" He (the narrator) commented: Afterwards, I saw her blind, touching the walls (in order to know her way), and she used to say: "The invocation of Sa'id Ibn Zaid has befallen me." Then, while she was walking in the house, she passed by a well inside the home, in which she fell down. (She died, and in this way) that (well) became her grave.
- 139-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Arwa, daughter of Uwais claimed that Sa'id Ibn Zaid usurped a portion of her land illegally. She filed the case before Marwan Ibn Al-Hakam. Upon this Sa'id Ibn Zaid said: "How would I usurp anything from her land illegally after what I had heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he (Marwan) asked him: "What did you heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who usurped (anything even as little as) a span of land illegally, Allah would encircle his neck with it on the Day of Judgement seven earths." Marwan said to him: "I would not ask you to bring an evidence after that." He (Sa'id) said: "O Allah! If she has told a lie, let her be blind and cause her to be killed in that very land!" he (the narrator) said: (it was so). She did not die before she had become blind. While she was walking in her land, she fell down in a pit and then died.

(24) The Book Of Gifts

[1] Disapproval of buying anything one gave in charity from him, to whom it had been given

- 1-(1620) Zaid Ibn Aslam narrated from his father that he had heard Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" saying: I gave an outstanding horse in Allah's Cause. The person to whom it was given, did not look after it. I intended to buy it from him, thinking that he would sell it cheaply. When I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that he said: "Don't buy it, and do not take back whatever you have given in charity, for the person who takes back what he has given in charity, is like a dog that swallows back its vomit."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Anas, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he added (that The Prophet said): "Don't buy it, even if he gives it to you for one Dirham."
- 2-(...) Zaid Ibn Aslam narrated from his father that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab gave a horse to be ridden in Allah's Cause. But the person who got it neglected it, and he was of little property. So, he wanted to buy it. He came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about that. But he said: "Do not buy it even if it was given to you for one Dirham, because the example of him who takes back his gift is like the example of a dog which swallows back its vomit."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Aslam through another chain of transmitters, but the narration of Malik and Rawh is much longer and more complete.

[1] The bequest should be made only with one-third (the property)

5-(1628) Amir Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: In the year of the Farewell Hajj, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me when I fell ill and was about to die as a result of that disease. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! I am very ill as you see. I am a rich man and have no heir except my only daughter. Shall I give two-thirds of my property in charity?" He said: "No." I said: "Shall I then give one half of it in charity?" He said: "No, (give) one-third (in charity); and even one-third is too much. No doubt, it is better to leave your children rich than to leave them poor, begging from others. Allah will reward you for whatever you spend with the intention of getting Allah's Pleasure even if it were a mouthful of food you put into your wives mouth." I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall I be left behind (in Mecca) after my companions go?" He said: "If you are left behind, you will be upgraded and elevated for every deed you will do with a desire to get Allah's Pleasure. I hope that you will live long so that some people will benefit by you while others will be harmed. O Allah! Please fulfill the migration of my companions and do not make them turn back on their heels. But (we feel sorry for) the unlucky Sa'd Ibn Khawla." The

[3] What reward one gets after his death

14-(1631) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the son of Adam (i.e. mankind) died, his deeds would cease except for three: A recurring charity, an advantageous knowledge by which (people would) benefit, or a good child who might invoke (Allah) for him."

[4] The endowment (Waqf)

15-(1632) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab got (a piece of) land in Khaibar and he went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to consult him about it saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I got (a piece of) land in Khaibar better than which I have never had, what do you suggest for me to do with it?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you like you can give the land as endowment and give its yield in charity." So Umar gave it in charity as an endowment on the condition that it should neither be sold, purchased, given to anybody as a gift, nor should it be inherited. However, Umar gave its yield in charity to the poor people, to the Kith and kin, for manumitting slaves, in Allah's Cause, and to the travellers and guests. But there would be no harm if the administrator of the endowment ate from it fairly (according to his need), and fed his friends without the intention of getting wealthy from it.

I (a sub-narrator) said: I narrated this Hadith to Muhammad, and when I reached this point "without the intention of getting wealthy from it", he said: "without hoarding wealth (out of it)." Ibn Awn said: The one who read this book told me that it (was mentioned in it): "without hoarding wealth (out of it)."

- (...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn, with the same chain of transmitters, but the narration of Ibn Abu Za'ida and Azhar ended at his saying: "and fed his friends without the intention of getting wealthy from it." What follows was not mentioned.
- (1633) Ibn Umar narrated that Umar said: I got a (piece of) land from the land of Khaibar. I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I got a (piece of) land, dearer to me and better than which I've never got any property..." and the rest is the same, without mentioning: I told Muhammad... and what follows it.

[5] The one who has nothing to bequeath might not make a bequest

16-(1634) Talha Ibn Musarrif narrated: I asked Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with him": "Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" make a will?" He replied: "No." I asked him: "How is it then that making a will has been enjoined on people, (or why have they been ordered to make a will)?" He replied: "He (The Prophet) made a bequest (to abide) by the Book (Qur'an) of Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He"."

17-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Mighwal, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Waki (it was mentioned that the narrator told): I said: "Then, how have the people been ordered to make will?" According to the narration of Ibn Numair: I said: "Then, how has making a bequest been enjoined upon Muslims?"

18-(1635) Masruq narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" neither left a Dinar, a Dirham (i.e. money in cash), a goat (sheep) or a camel, nor did he make a bequest (as regards his possessions, for he had none).

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

19-(1636) Al-Aswad narrated: In the presence of A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" some people mentioned that a will had been made (by The Prophet) for Ali (to be his successor). A'isha said: "When did he appoint him by will? Indeed, when he died he was resting against my chest (or in my lap) and he asked for a washbasin. Then he collapsed while he was in that state, and I could not even perceive that he had died. Then, when did he appoint him by will?"

20-(1637) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Thursday! What (dangerous thing) took place on Thursday!" Then he started weeping till his tears wetted the gravels of the ground. I said: "O Ibn Abbas! What (happened on) Thursday?" He said: "On Thursday the illness of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was aggravated and he said: "Fetch me a writing material so that I may have something written to you after which you will never go astray." The people (present there) differed in this matter and people should not differ before a prophet. Then, they said: "What is the matter with him? Has he lost his consciousness? Try to inquire from him about that." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let me alone, since the

(26) The Book Of Vows

[1] The order to fulfill one's vow

- 1-(1638) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Sa'd Ibn Ubada asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the religious verdict as regards a vow made by his mother who died before she fulfilled it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Fulfill it on her behalf."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, through another chain of transmitters.
- [2] Forbiddance of taking vows since it never averts anything (such as the Divine Decree)
- 2-(1639) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started forbidding us to make vows saying: "It (vow) never averts anything (such as the Divine Decree), but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken (in fulfilling it) from the miser."
- 3-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The vow neither hastens nor delays anything, but (it is taken so that) by which something might be extracted from the miser."
- 4-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade making vows, and said: "It is not necessary that) it would produce good but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken from the miser."
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 5-(1640) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not make vows since the vow never saves anyone from the Divine Decree, but (it is made so that) by which something might be taken out from the miserly person."
- 6-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade making vows, and said: "It (the vow) never averts (anything) from the Divine Decree, but it is meant so that something might be taken out from the miserly person."

- (...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Abu Amr, with the same chain of transmitters.

[3] There is no fulfillment of any vow in disobedience to Allah or in anything, which is not in the possession of him who makes it

8-(1641) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The (tribe of) Thaqif was allies of Banu Uqail. Those of Thaqif took as captives two of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" captivated one of those of Uqail, and they took along with him (the she-camel) Al-Atba. Once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon him while he was fettered, whereupon he said: "O Muhammad!" he (The Prophet) went to him and replied: "What is the matter with you?" he asked: "For what (crime) did you take me (as captive)? Why did you catch hold of the one walking ahead of the pilgrims (i.e. the she-camel)?" He (The Prophet) said: "For a great crime (you've made). I (by the help of my companions) caught hold of you for the crime of your allies, Banu Thaqif."

He (The Prophet) turned away. The man called him once again and said: "O Muhammad! O Muhammad!" Since Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was merciful and tenderhearted, he returned to him and said: "What is the matter with you?" He said: "I am a Muslim." He (The Prophet) said: "Had you said that when you had had a mastership over yourself, you would have got every prosperity." He turned away. He (the captive) called him (for the third time) saying: "O Muhammad! O Muhammad!" He (The Prophet) went to him and said: "What is the matter with you?" the man said: "I am hungry, so feed me, and I am thirsty, so supply me with water." He (The Prophet) said: "That is (to cover) your need." Afterwards, he was ransomed for the two men (who had been captivated by Banu Thaqif).

He (the narrator) added: Once, a woman of the Ansar had been taken as captive, and Al-Adba also was caught. The woman was fettered. The people used to give rest to their animals in front of their houses. One night, she (the captivated woman) fled from the fetter and then came to the camels. The more she drew near a camel, the more it fretted and fumed. So, she left them until she came to Al-Adba, which did not fret and fume, since it was submissive. She rode upon its back, drove it away and then went off. When those (of Thagif) felt this, they went in pursuit of it, but it (the shecamel) exhausted them. She (the woman) took yow to Allah, that in case He saved her through it, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice. When she arrived in Medina, the people saw her and said: "Here is Al-Adba, the she-camel of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." She (the woman) said that she had taken a vow that if Allah saved her through it, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice. They came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and informed him of that, whereupon he said: "Exalted be Allah! How bad she rewarded it that she took vow to Allah that if He saved her on its back, she would slaughter it as a sacrifice! There is no fulfillment of a vow in disobedience, or in anything which is not in the possession of the one (who made it)." In the narration of Ibn Hujr (he said): "There is no vow in disobedience to Allah."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Hammad he said: Al-Atba was a she-camel of a man from Banu Uqail, and it was among those (animals), which proceeded ahead of the pilgrims. It was also mentioned that she (the captivated woman) came to a docile trained she-camel.

[4] What about him who vowed to go to Ka'ba on foot

9-(1642) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw an old man supported between his two sons (while he was walking). He asked: "What is wrong with this (man)?" they said: "He took a vow to walk (to Ka'ba on foot)." Upon this he said: "No doubt, Allah is not in need of his tormenting himself." Then, he ordered him to ride.

10-(1643) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon an old man who was walking between his two sons, resting upon them. He asked: "What is the matter with this (old man)?" one of his sons said: "O Messenger of Allah! He had made a vow (to go to Ka'ba on foot)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Ride O old man! No doubt, Allah is not in need of you and your vow."

(27) The Book Of Oaths

[1] Forbiddance to swear by anything other than Allah Almighty

- 1-(1646) Salim Ibn Abdullah narrated from his father: I heard Umar saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" forbids you to swear by your fathers." Umar said: By Allah! Since I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding it, I've never sworn by it, either by myself or on behalf of anyone (of whom I narrate anything).
- 2-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. But in the narration of Uqail, he said: I've never sworn by it since I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding it, nor have I uttered it (in my talks). He did not mention "either by myself or on behalf of others."
- (...) Az-Zuhri narrated from Salim that his father said: Once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard Umar swearing by his father... and the rest is the same as narrated by Yunus and Ma'mar.
- 3-(...) Abdullah narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon Umar Ibn Al-Khattab in a group of riders, while Umar was swearing by his father, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed them (saying): "Verily, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" forbids you to swear by your fathers. So, whoever (is intending to) take an oath, let him swear by Allah, otherwise he should keep silent."
- 4-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".
- (...) Abdullah Ibn Dinar narrated that he heard Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever (is intending to) take an oath, let him swear by nothing other than Allah." Quraish used to swear by their fathers, so, he (The Prophet) said: "Do not swear by your fathers."

[2] Whoever swore by Lati and Uzza (forgetfully or jokingly or by mistake) should say "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah"

5-(1647) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever among you took an oath, and mentioned (the idol of) Lati in his oath, should say: "There is no god but Allah", and whoever said to his companion: "Come so that I would gamble with you" should give something in charity (as expiation)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. (Grand imam) Abu Al-Husain: Muslim said: No one narrated this statement (i.e. "Come so that I would gamble with you") except Az-Zuhri, who alone narrated ninety traditions with good transmitters, and no one shared them with him.

6-(1648) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should neither swear by idols nor by your fathers."

[3] Desirability of the fact that if one takes an oath on something and then finds that it is beneficial to do another thing (which is against his oath), he would do what is better, and make expiation for his oath

7-(1649) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" along with a group of The Ash'arites, asking him to provide us with means of conveyance. He said: "By Allah, I will not provide you with any means of conveyance; and I have nothing to make you ride on." We stayed as long as Allah wished. Then some camels as booty were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he ordered that we should be given three camels with white humps. When we set out we (or some of us) said: "By Allah! We will never be blessed (with what we have been given). We came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him to provide us with means of conveyance, but he took an oath not to provide us with any means of conveyance. Let's go and remind him."

We returned and told him. He replied: "I have not provided you with means of conveyance, but Allah has provided you with it, and by Allah, Allah willing, if I take an oath to do something, and later on I find out that it is more beneficial to do something different, I will do the thing which is better, and give expiation for my oath."

8-(...) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: My Companions sent me to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to ask him for some mounts to ride on as they were accompanying him in the army of difficulty, (and that was the holy battle of Tabuk). I said: "O Allah's Prophet! My companions sent me to you to provide them with means of conveyance." He said: "By Allah! I will not make you ride anything." It happened that when I reached him, he was in an angry mood, and I didn't notice it. So I returned sadly because of the refusal of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to provide us with means of conveyance), and for fear that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" might have become angry with me.

I returned to my companions and informed them of what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said. Only a short while had passed when I heard Bilal calling: "O Abdullah Ibn Qais!" I replied to his call. Bilal said: "Respond to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who is calling you." When I went to him, he said: "Take these two camels tied together, these two camels tied together, and also these two camels tied together," referring to six camels he had bought from Sa'd at that time. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "Take them to your companions and say: Allah (or Allah's Apostle) allows you to ride on these, so ride on them."

Abu Musa further said: I took them to my companions and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allows you to ride on these (camels). But by Allah, I will not leave you till some of you proceed with me to somebody who heard the statement of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when I came to ask him (to provide you with means of conveyance) on your behalf, according to which he refused (to provide you with them) in the first time I had asked him on your behalf, and then his (statement of) giving me (those six camels) after that, lest you would think that I narrate to you a thing which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not say." They said to me: "By Allah! Though we consider you as true, we will do what you like."

So Abu Musa proceeded along with some of them till they came to those who heard the statement of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" according to which he denied them (some animals to ride on) and later (his statement) according to which he gave them the same. So these people told them the same information as Abu Musa had told them.

There entered a red-faced man from the tribe of Banu Taimullah, who seemed to be a Mawla, , to whom Abu Musa said: "Come near (to eat)." But he (the man) hesitated. He said to him once again: "Come near (to eat), for I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" eating it (the chicken)." He

Abu Musa said: "I will tell you about this matter. We waited as long as Allah wished, after which some camels were brought as booty to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (Abu Musa) further said: "When we set out some of us said to the others: "We have made The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forget his oath. We then would never be blessed (in what we have been given)." So, we returned to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! We came to you to provide us with means of conveyance, and you took an oath not to provide us with any means of conveyance. Then, you provided us with means of conveyance. Have you forgotten (such an oath) O Messenger of Allah?" He replied: "As for me, By Allah, Allah willing, if I take an oath to do something, and later on I find out that it is more beneficial to do something different, I will do the thing which is better, and give expiation for my oath. Then, go, (and You should know that) It is Allah Almighty Who provided you with the means of conveyance."

[7] The unbeliever's vow, and what he would do with it in case he embraced Islam

27-(1656) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar that Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! During the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, I made a vow to observe I'tikaf in the Sacred House for a single night (what would I do with it?)" he (The Prophet) said: "Fulfill your vow."

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar, with a slight variation of wording.
- 28-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at Al-Ji'rana, on his return from Ta'if: "O Messenger of Allah! During the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, I made a vow to observe I'tikaf for a single night in the Sacred House, what would you think?" he said: "Go and observe I'tikaf (in it) for a day (and a night)."

He (the narrator) further said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given him a slave-girl from the one-fifth (of the booty). When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" released the captives of the people (of Hawazin), Umar heard them saying: "We have been released by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." [8] How would the masters treat their slaves, and the expiation for (the sin of) slapping the face of one's slave

- 29-(1657) Zadhan Abu Umar narrated: I came to Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" and he had just manumitted a slave of his. Then, he took a wood stick or something like it from the ground and said: "It (such a manumission) implies no reward (even as little as to be) equal to that (wood stick, since my intention when I manumitted him was not out of gift whose reward would be expected from Allah), but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever slapped the face of his slave or beat him, then the expiation for such (a sin) is to manumit him.""
- 30-(...) Zadhan narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" called a slave of his and saw a scare (of a strike) on his back. He asked him: "Has this (strike) pained you?" he replied in the negative. He said: "Then, you've become free." He (the narrator) said: Then, he (Ibn Umar) took something from the ground and said: "No doubt, I would receive no reward for (manumitting) him more than that (very little thing), but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Whoever beat a slave of his for no sin he has committed, or slapped his face (for no significant fault), then, the expiation of that should be to manumit him."

(28) The Book of Oaths for establishing responsibility for murders, fighting, law of equality, and blood money

[1] What about Qasama

1-(1669) Both of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma and Rafi Ibn Khadij "Allah be pleased with them" reported: Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted and later on, Muhaiyisa came upon Abdullah Ibn Sahl and found him murdered. He buried him and returned to Medina. He, Huwaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, who was the youngest of them, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Abd Ar-Rahman intended to talk before his two companions, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." He kept silent and the other two spoke, and he spoke with them. They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, whereupon he said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder or the murderer)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of infidels?" When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw that, he himself paid the blood money (of the murdered).

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge if fifty of them take oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "(How should we believe in the oaths of) infidels?" So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own (property). Sahl said: One day, I entered a fold, and one of those she-camels (which were given as the blood money) hit me with its leg.

- (...) Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma narrated the same Hadith about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" paid his blood-money from his own (property). He did not mention that he had entered the fold.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, from Bushair Ibn Yasar, from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma.
- 3-(...) Bushair Ibn Yasar narrated that during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisa Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid, who were from the Ansar, namely from Banu Haritha, set out together to Khaibar, with whose inhabitants of Jews there was a peace (treaty). Then, they parted to fulfill their needs. Later on, Abdullah Ibn Sahl was killed and was found (as thrown) in a spring. His companion (Muhaiyyisa) buried him, and returned to Medina. The brother of the murdered Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, along with Huwaiyyisa and Muhaiyyisa went (to The Prophet). They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the matter of Abdullah, and that he was murdered.

Bushair Ibn Yasar pretended in his narration from whomever he met among the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he (The Prophet) said to them: "Let you take fifty oaths (as to who has killed your companion), after which you will be entitled to take the blood-money of your murdered person (or your companion)." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! We neither saw nor did we attend (this murder)." He (Bushair) pretended that he (The Prophet) said: "Then, let the Jews clear themselves from your charge by (taking) fifty (oaths)." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should we accept the oaths of infidels?" Bushair pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" paid himself his blood money from his own (property).

Later on, they found one of them murdered...and the rest is the same, in which he said (in the end): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked that his blood should be wasted, so, he paid his bloodwit one hundred camels of those given in charity.
- 6-(...) Abu Laila Abdullah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl narrated that Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma told him from some great men of his tribe that Abdullah Ibn Sahl and Muhaiyyisa went out to Khaibar as they were struck with poverty and difficult living conditions. Then Muhaiyyisa was informed that Abdullah had been killed and thrown in a pit or a spring. Muhaiyyisa went to the Jews and said: "By Allah, you have killed him." The Jews said: "By Allah, we have not killed him." Muhaiyyisa then came back to his people and told them the story. He, his elder brother Huwaiyyisa and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl came (to The Prophet) and Muhaiyyisa who had been at Khaibar, proceeded to speak, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Muhaiyyisa: "The eldest! The eldest!" meaning: "Let the eldest of you speak."

Huwaiyyisa spoke first and then Muhaiyyisa. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Jews should either pay the blood-money of your (deceased) companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a letter to the Jews in that respect, who replied: "We, by Allah, did not kill him." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Huwaiyyisa, Muhaiyyisa, and Abd Ar-Rahman: "Can you take an oath by which you will have the right to take the blood-money?" They said: "No." He said: "Shall we ask the Jews to take an oath (to deny the charge) before you?" They replied: "But the Jews are not Muslims." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them the blood money from his own property. He sent to them one hundred shecamels, which were made to enter the house. Sahl said: A red she-camel of them kicked me.

[2] What about fighters and apostates

- 9-(1671) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some people of the tribe of Uraina came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Medina (in order to embrace Islam). They found its (Medina's) climate inappropriate for them. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "If you like to go out with the camels of charity and drink their milk and urine (as a kind of medicine), you could do." They did so and became healthy. Then they turned to the camels' shepherds and killed them, reverted to Heathenism (after embracing Islam), and then drove away the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When this news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he sent (some people) in their pursuit. They were caught and brought back. He (The Prophet) cut off their hands and legs, and branded their eyes with pieces of iron. He left them in Al-Harra till they died.

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Abu Wa'il from Abdullah from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". According to a certain narration, it was mentioned: "which will be decided." But some narrated it as "in connection to which judgements will be established among the people."

[9] The decisive prohibition of bloodshed, (violation of) honors and (seizing) the property (of others illegally)

29-(1679) Abu Bakra "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The division of time has turned to its original structure which was current when Allah created the Heavens and the Earths. The year consists of twelve months, out of which four months are sacred: Three are in succession: Dhul-Qa'da, Dhul-Hijja and Muharram, and (the fourth is) Rajab of (the tribe of) Mudar which comes between Jumada the last and Sha'ban."

Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Which is this month?" We said: "Allah and His Apostle know better." On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Isn't it the month of Dhul-Hijja?" We replied: "Yes." Then he said: "Which town is this?" We replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better." On that he kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said: "Isn't it the town (of Mecca)?" We replied: "Yes."

Then he said: "Which day is today?" We replied: "Allah and His Apostle know better." He kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said: "Isn't it the day of slaughtering one's sacrifice?" We replied: "Yes." He said: "So your blood, your properties, And your honour Are as sacred to one another as this day of yours, in this city of yours, in this month of yours; and surely, you will meet your Lord, who will ask you about your deeds. Beware! Do not become infidels after me, cutting the throats of one another. It is incumbent on those who are present to convey this message (of mine) to those who are absent. May be that some of those to whom it will be conveyed will understand it better than those who have actually heard it." Then, he (The Prophet) asked: "Haven't I conveyed (Allah's Message) to you?"

حدّثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ حَبِيبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدٌ - يَعْنِي ابْنَ الْحَارِثِ -. ١٠ ـ باب صحة الإقرارِ بالقتلِ وتمكين ولي القتيل من القِصَاص،

٣٢ _ (١٦٨٠) _ حدّثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ الْعَنْبَرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو يُونُسَ، عَنْ سِمَاكِ بْنِ حَرْبٍ؛ أَنَّ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنَ وَائِلِ حَدَّثَهُ؛ أَنَّ أَبَاهُ حَدَّثَهُ قَالَ: "إِنِّي

strap. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! This (man) killed my brother." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Did you really kill him?" he (whose brother was killed) said: "If he did not confess, I would hold the evidence against him." The man said: "Yes, I killed him." He (The Prophet) said: "Why did you kill him?" he said: "We were striking down the leaves of a tree when he insulted me and made me angry. I hit him with the axe on the side of his head and killed him."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Do you have anything to afford (as a blood-money) on your behalf?" he said: "I have got nothing except my clothes and axe." He (The Prophet) said: "Do you think that your people would buy your life (by paying the blood-money on your behalf)?" he said: "I'm more insignificant in the sight of my people than to do that." Then, he (The Prophet) threw his strap to him (whose brother was killed) and said to him: "Here it is your companion." Then, the man set out with him. When he turned away, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If he killed him, he would be like him (in the fact that he would have neither excellence nor favour)."

(Being informed of what The Prophet had said) he returned and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I was informed that you had said: "If he killed him, he would be like him." I caught hold of him according to your order." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you not like that he should bear the burden of the sin of you and your companion (i.e. your killed brother)?" he said: "O Prophet of Allah! (Perhaps he said) yes, I like so." He (The Messenger of Allah) said: "If it is so, then, let it be." He threw the strap (of the murderer) and let him go.

33-(...) Algama Ibn Wa'il narrated from his father that a man who killed another man was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who (passed a judgement, according to which he) enabled the heir of the murdered one to take retribution from him. He set out with him, dragging him with (the help of) a strap tied around his neck. When he turned away, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both the killer and the killed would be admitted in the (Hell) fire." A person went to that man (who had the right of taking retribution), and reported to him the statement of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", as a result of which, he let him (the murderer) go. Isma'il Ibn Salim said: I mentioned that (Hadith) to Habib Ibn Abu Thabit, who said: Ibn Abu Ashwa narrated to me that (it was so because) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had asked him to forgive him, but he rejected.

[11] The blood money of the fetus, and the obligation of paying the blood money for the unintentional murder or the semi-intentional murder

- 34-(1681) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that two women of (the tribe of) Hudhail (fought one another and) one of them threw the other (with a stone) and caused her to have a miscarriage. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged in connection with it (the fetus) that a slave or a slave-girl should be paid (as a blood-money).
- 35-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the verdict that a male or female slave should be given as a blood-money for the fetus which was in the womb of a woman from the tribe of Banu Lihyan, as a result of an (attack by another woman which led to) abortion. But the lady about whom the judgement of compensation died, so The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her inheritors should go to her offspring and husband and that the penalty should be paid by her close relatives.
- 36-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Two women from Hudhail fought with each other, one of whom threw the other with a stone that killed her and what was in her womb. They (i.e. the relatives of the killer and the relatives of the victim) filed their case to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who judged that the bloodmoney for the fetus was a slave or a slave girl, and the blood-money for the killed woman was to be paid by the killer's family. He made her son and those with him her heirs. Hamal Ibn An'Nabigha Al-Hudhali said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why should I pay blood money for one who neither drank, nor ate, nor spoke, nor cried (after miscarriage by which it would be known that he died after he was alive). It is like a nonentity (which deserves no blood-money)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He seems to be one of the brothers of soothsayers in view of the rhymed speech he composed."
- (...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that two women fought with each other...and the rest of the Hadith is the same without mentioning: He made her son and those who were with him her heirs. Somebody said: "Why should we pay blood-money? He did not name Hamal Ibn Malik.

- 37-(1682) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a woman struck her fellow-wife who was pregnant with a tent-pole and killed her. One of them belonged to the tribe of Lihyan. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made the killer's close relatives responsible for paying blood-money on her behalf, and ordered that a slave or a slave-girl should be given as blood-money for what was in her womb. One of the murderer's relatives said: "Should we pay blood-money for one who, neither ate, nor drank, nor cried (after delivery by which it would be known that he died after he was alive), who was just like a nonentity (who deserved no compensation)?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He speaks rhymed phrases like the desert dwellers." He imposed the blood money upon them.
- 38-(...) Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a woman struck her fellow-wife (who was pregnant) with a tent-pole and killed her. The file was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who made the killer's close relatives responsible for paying blood-money on her behalf. Since she (the killed woman) was pregnant, he also ordered that a slave or a slave-girl should be given (as blood-money for what was in her womb). - (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, according to which (it was mentioned that) she had a miscarriage. This file was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who judged that a slave or a slave girl should be given (as blood-money for the fetus), and made the heirs of the woman (who killed) responsible to pay it. The blood money for the killed woman was not mentioned.
- 39-(1683) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama told that Umar consulted the people about the (blood-money which should be paid for) a woman's miscarriage. Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba said: "I witnessed The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having judged that a slave or a slave-girl should be given for it." Umar said: "Bring me one to bear witness to you." Muhammad Ibn Maslama bore witness to him.

6-(1686) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cut (the hand of) a thief (when he stole) a shield priced at three Dirhams.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar. Some narrators substituted the world "value" for "price".

7-(1687) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah curses a thief who steals an egg and gets his hand cut off, or steals a rope and gets his hands cut off." (People interpreted the egg as an iron helmet, and thought that the rope might cost a few Dirhams).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but with a slight variation of words.

[2] Cutting (the hand of) the thief belonging to a high social class, and forbiddance of intercession for canceling the legal punishments

8-(1688) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: People of Quraish were concerned with the lady from Banu Makhzum who had committed theft. They asked: "Who will intercede for her with Allah's Apostle?" Some said: "No one has the courage to do so except Usama Ibn Zaid, the beloved one to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." When Usama spoke about that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you intercede for somebody in a case connected with Allah's Prescribed Punishments?" Then he got up and delivered a sermon saying: "What destroyed the nations before you, was that if one amongst them belonging to a high social class stole, they would forgive him, and if a person amongst them belonging to a low social class stole, they would execute the Legal punishment on him. By Allah, if Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand."

9-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: People of Quraish were concerned with the lady who had committed theft during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the expedition of the Conquest (of Mecca). They asked: "Who will intercede for her with Allah's Apostle?" Some said: "No one has the courage to do so except Usama Ibn Zaid, the beloved one to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

When she was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then Usama spoke about that to him, the colour of (the face of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed, and he said: "Do you intercede for somebody in a case connected with Allah's Prescribed Punishments?" Usama said to him: "Then, ask for Allah's forgiveness for me." In the evening, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and delivered a sermon. He praised Allah and lauded Him as He deserves. Then he said:

By Him, in Whose hand is my life! If Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand."

Then, he ordered that the hand of this woman who had stolen should be cut off. A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" further said: Afterwards, her repentance (to Allah) was good, and she got married. She used to come to me, and I would convey her needs to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

10-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: A woman from Makhzum used to borrow the luggage (from others) and then refuse to give it back. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her hand should be cut off (because she had committed theft). Her family came to Usama Ibn Zaid and spoke to him (so that he might intercede for her with The Prophet). He spoke to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and interceded) for her...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

11-(1689) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, a woman from Makhzum committed theft. She was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She sought refuge with Umm Salama, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Allah! If it was Fatima (who had committed theft), I would cut her hand." Then, it (her hand) was cut off.

[3] The legal punishment of committing adultery

12-(1690) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Take (teachings) from me! Take (instructions) from me! Allah has ordained a way for those (women): (The legal punishment of adultery committed by) an unmarried (male or female) with an unmarried (or married female or male) is to receive one hundred lashes and a (sentence of a) year in exile. (The legal punishment of adultery committed by) a married (male or female) with a married (or an unmarried female or male) is to receive one hundred lashes and a (sentence of) stoning to death."

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Mansur, with the same chain of transmitters.

الْعَشِيُّ قَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَاخْتَطَبَ فَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِمَا هُوَ أَهْلُهُ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَمَّا بَعْدُ، فَإِنَّمَا أَهْلَكَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ، أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا إِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الشَّرِيفُ، تَرَكُوهُ. وَإِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الشَّرِيفُ، تَرَكُوهُ. وَإِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الشَّرِيفُ، تَرَكُوهُ. وَإِذَا سَرَقَ فِيهِمُ الضَّحِيفُ، أَقَامُوا عَلَيْهِ الْحَدَّ. وَإِنِّي، وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ، لَوْ أَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتَ مُحَمَّدٍ سَرَقَتْ فَقُطِعَتْ يَدُهَا.

Ubada Ibn As-Samit reported that whenever revelation was sent down to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would feel its severity, and the complexion of his face would change. One day, revelation was sent down upon him, with the result that he felt the same severity. When such a state was over and he was relieved, he said: "Take (instructions) from me! Allah has ordained a way for those (women who commit adultery): (When) a married man (commits adultery) with a married woman, and an unmarried man with an unmarried woman, then in case of the married (persons) there is (a legal punishment of) one hundred lashes and then stoning (to death); and in case of the unmarried persons, there is (the legal punishment of) one hundred lashes and exile for a year."
- 14-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, but according to this narration (it was mentioned that) the unmarried should be lashed and exiled, and the married person should be lashed and stoned to death. Neither one year nor one hundred was mentioned.

[4] Stoning to death the married adulterer

15-(1691) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" sat on the pulpit of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "No doubt, Allah sent Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with truth and He sent down the Book upon him, and the verse of stoning was included in what was sent down to him. We recited it, kept it in our memory and understood it. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stoned to death (the married adulterer and adulteress) and so did we after him. I am afraid that over the time, the people may say: We do not find the (punishment of) stoning to death in the Book of Allah, and thus go astray by leaving this duty prescribed by Allah. Stoning to death is a duty laid down in Allah's Book for married men and women who commit adultery when proof is established, there is pregnancy, or a confession."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

But the man turned to the side towards which The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had turned his face, and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have committed fornication." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face to the other side. He repeated the same with him four times. So after the man had given four witnesses against himself, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called him and said: "Are you insane?" He replied: "No." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Are you married?" he replied in the affirmative. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to his companions): "Go and stone him to death." Ibn Shihab said: I was told by a person who heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: I was one of those who stoned him. We stoned him at the praying place in Medina. When the stones hit him with their sharp edges, he escaped. But we caught him at Al-Harra, and stoned him till he died.

He witnessed against himself four times that he had committed adultery, whereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Perhaps you kissed or embraced (her)." He said: "No, by Allah! One deviating (from the straight path) has committed adultery." He (The Prophet) had him stoned to death, and then delivered the following speech: "Is it that whenever we set out for Jihad in the cause of Allah, one of you would lag behind, shriek like the bleating of a male goat, and give a small quantity of milk! By Allah, in case I was enabled (by Allah) to catch hold of anyone of those, I would surely punish him (in such a way as to prevent anyone else from doing so)."

He said: "Yes (I did)." When he bore four witnesses against himself, he (The Prophet) ordered that he should be stoned to death.

20-(1694) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man from (the tribe of) Aslam came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I committed a misdeed (of adultery). So, execute its legal punishment upon me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked his family who said: "We know nothing bad of him except that he committed a misdeed, and he thinks that nothing would save him from it unless its legal punishment is executed on him." When he returned to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he ordered us to stone him to death.

We went with him to Baqi Gharqad. We neither fastened him, nor did we dig a pit for him. We threw him with the (pieces of) bone, solid earth and pebbles. But, he ran away, and we ran after him until he came to the side of Al-Harra, where he stood erect before us. We threw him with the rocks of Harra (i.e. the huge stones) until he (died and) became motionless.

He returned but not afar when he came back (for the third time) and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him the same. When he came in the fourth time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "From what should I purify you?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked whether he was mad, and he was told that he was not mad. He asked: "Has he drunk wine?" a man got up and smelled him, but no smell of wine was detected on him. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Has you committed adultery?" he replied in the affirmative. He ordered (that he should be stoned to death), and he was stoned to death.

The people divided into two different parties (having two different opinions) about him. Some said: "He was destroyed, and his sin surrounded him." Others said: "There was no repentance better than that of Ma'iz, who came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", put his hand in his hand, and said to him: "Kill me with the stones (for the crime I had committed)."" They remained as such for two or three days after which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came while they were sitting. He sat and then said: "Ask for Allah's forgiveness for Ma'iz Ibn Malik." They said: "Might Allah forgive Ma'iz Ibn Malik!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, he offered a repentance (to Allah, so much great) that if it was distributed among (people of) a nation, it would extend to imply them."

Moreover, a woman from Ghamid, a branch of Azd came to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Purify me!" he said to her: "Woe to you! Return, ask for Allah's forgiveness for you, and repent to Him." She said: "I think you intend to send me back as you had sent back Ma'iz Ibn Malik." He asked: "What is the matter?" she said that she was pregnant as a result of committing adultery. He asked: "Is it you (who committed adultery with him)?" she replied in the affirmative. He said: "(You would receive no punishment) until you give birth to what is in your womb." A man from the Ansar sponsored her until she had delivered. When she delivered (her child) he came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "The woman belonging to Ghamid delivered (her child)." He (The Prophet) said: "We should not stone her to death and leave her child so small, without anyone to suckle him." A man from the Ansar got up and said: "I'm responsible for (the costs of) suckling him, O Prophet of Allah." Subsequently, he (The Prophet) stoned her to death.

23-(...) Abdullah Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that Ma'iz Ibn Malik Al-Aslami came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I've wronged myself since I committed adultery. I have the desire that you should purify me." He sent him back. On the following day, he (Ma'iz) came to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I committed adultery." He (The Prophet) sent him back once again. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent to his people (a message) saying: "Do you know if there is anything wrong with his mind which you deny?" They said: "We do not know him but as a wise good man among us, according to our judgement."

When it was the fourth time, a pit was dug for him and he (The Prophet) ordered (that he should be stoned to death) and he was stoned to death.

He (the narrator) added: Then, a woman from Ghamid came to him (The Prophet), and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I committed adultery, so purify me." He (The Prophet) sent her back. On the following day she (came and) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you send me back? Perhaps, you send me back as you sent Ma'iz back. By Allah, I became pregnant (as a result of committing adultery)." He said: "Well, if you insist on that, then go away until you deliver (what is in your womb)." When she delivered she came with the child (wrapped) in a rag and said: "Here is the child whom I delivered." He said: "Go away and suckle him (and do not come back) until you wean him." When she had weaned him, she came to him with the child, catching hold of a piece of bread in his hand. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Here is he after I had weaned him and now he eats food." He (The Prophet) entrusted the child to one of the Muslims and ordered (that she should receive the legal punishment of adultery) and she was put in a ditch up to her chest and he ordered people who stoned her. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid came forward with a stone, which he flung at her head with the result that the blood gushed forth on the face of Khalid who abused her. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard his (Khalid's) abusing her. He (The Prophet) said: "O Khalid! Be quiet! By Him in Whose Hand is my life! She offered such a repentance that even if a wrongful tax collector had repented, he would have been forgiven." Then he ordered her (to be brought) and he offered the funeral prayer on her. Then, she was buried.

24-(1696) Imran Ibn Husain "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a woman from (the tribe of) Juhaina came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she was pregnant as a result of adultery. She said: "O Prophet of Allah! I committed (a prohibited thing which necessitates) one of the legal punishments. So, execute it upon me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called her guardian and said: "Be good to her and when she delivers (what is in her womb), bring her to me." He did accordingly. (When she was brought) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that her garments should be straightened upon her. Then, he ordered her (to be stoned) and she was Umar said to him: "Do you offer the funeral prayer on her, O Prophet of Allah, though she committed adultery?" upon this he (The Prophet) said: "She offered a repentance (so much great) that if it was distributed among seventy of Medina's dwellers, it would extend to imply them. 25-(1697&1698) Both of Abu Huraira and Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani "Allah be pleased with them" narrated: A Bedouin came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I beseech you by Allah to judge in my case according to Allah's Laws." His opponent, who was more learnt than him, got up and said: "Well, judge between us according to Allah's Laws and excuse me to speak." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would speak." He said: "My son was a labourer working for this man, with whose wife he committed illegal sexual intercourse. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death; so, in lieu of that, I paid a ransom of one hundred sheep and a slave-girl to save my son. Then I asked the learned scholars who said: "Your son has to be whipped one hundred lashes and exiled for one year."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my life is! I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to go back to you, and your son will receive a hundred lashes and one-year exile. O Unais! When she confessed (of adultery) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered (that she should be stoned) and she was stoned to death.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the (learnt men of) Jews and asked them: "What do you find (as a legal punishment) for the adulterers in (your Book of) Torah?" They replied: "We blacken their faces with charcoal, carry them with their faces turning opposite and circumambulate with them (among the people)." He said: "Then, bring the Torah if you are truthful." The Torah was brought, and while they were reciting it, the one who was reciting put his hand over the Divine Verse of stoning to death and read what was before and what was next to it. Abdullah Ibn Salam who was in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order him to lift up his hand." He lifted up his hand, beneath which the Divine Verse of stoning to death was. ٢٨ ـ (١٧٠٠) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ. كِلاَهُمَا عَنْ أَبِي مُعَاوِيَةً. قَالَ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةً، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُرَّةً، عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ. قَالَ: مُرَّ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ عَيْقَ بِيَهُودِيِّ مُحَمَّماً مَجْلُوداً. فَدَعَاهُمْ عَيَاقَ فَقَالَ: adultery) became prevalent among or great men. So, it became a habit that whenever we took one belonging to a high social class from among us, (who had committed adultery), we would leave him (without executing such a legal punishment), and whenever we took a poor one (in such a state), we would execute such a legal punishment on him. So, we said: Let's agree upon something, which we could execute, on both the rich and the poor one. Then, we substituted (the punishment of) charcoaling the face and lashing for (the punishment of) stoning to death." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! I would be the first to revive a tradition which they (abandoned and subsequently) caused to die." He ordered (that he should be stoned) and he was stoned to death.

On that occasion, Allah revealed: "O Messenger! let not those grieve thee, who race each other into Unbelief: (whether it be) among those who say "We believe" with their lips but whose hearts have no Faith; or it be among the Jews- men who will listen to any lie- will listen even to others who have never so much as come to thee. They change the words from their (right) times and places: they say, "If ye are given this, take it, but if not, beware!" If any one's trial is intended by Allah, thou hast no authority in the least for him against Allah. For such- it is not Allah's will to purify their hearts. For them there is disgrace in this world, and in the Hereafter a heavy punishment." (The Repast "Al-Ma'ida" 41)

He means that (the Jews used to) say: "Come to Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to ask for his religious verdict as regards the adultery). If he ordered you to execute (the punishment of) charcoaling the face and lashing, then accept it from him, and if he ordered you to execute (the punishment of) stoning to death, then beware (of taking it)." In this connection Allah Almighty revealed: "If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) Unbelievers." (The Repast 44) "And if any fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) wrongdoers." (The Repast 45) "If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah hath revealed, they are (no better than) those who rebel." (The Repast 47) that implies all of the unbelievers.

and villages (where there was abundant of water and the land was more fertile), he asked the people: "What do you see in (the legal punishment of) lashing the drunk?" Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf said: "I see that you should make it equal to the lightest legal punishment." In this way, Umar lashed eighty lashes (as a legal punishment of drinking wine).

- (...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id from Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 37-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beat the drunk with date-palm leaf stalks and sandals (as a legal punishment)...and the rest is the same without mentioning the countryside and villages.
- 38-(1707) Hudain Ibn Al-Mundhir Abu Sasan narrated: I was with Uthman Ibn Affan when Al-Walid (Ibn Uqba, the Kufa previous governor) was brought to him. It was he who offered two Rak'as for the Morning prayer and then said (to the people praying behind him): "Would I pray more with you?" two men, one of whom was Humran, bore witness against him. He bore witness that he drank wine. The other man bore witness that he saw him vomiting. Uthman said: "He would not have vomited it unless he had drunk it." He added: "O Ali! Stand up and lash him." Ali said: "Get up O Hasan and lash him." Al-Hasan said: "Let those who undertook its (the caliphate's) coolness (i.e. blessings and pleasures) undertake also its heat (i.e. severities and difficulties)." It seemed as if he (Ali) became angry with him. He said: "O Abdullah Ibn Ja'far! Stand up and lash him." He lashed him while Ali was counting (the lashes), until he reached forty (lashes), he said: "Stop! The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whipped forty (lashes), Abu Bakr whipped forty (lashes), and Umar whipped eighty (lashes as the legal punishment of the drunk). Every (kind of punishment) is a tradition (which might be followed), though that (punishment of forty lashes) is dearer to me."
- 39-(1707) Umair Ibn Sa'id narrated that Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" said: "I would not feel sorry for one who dies because of receiving a legal punishment, except the drunk, for if he died (while being punished), I would give blood money to his family because no fixed punishment has been commanded by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the drunk."

40-(1708) Abu Burda Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say: "Nobody should be flogged more than ten lashes except if he is guilty of a crime, the legal punishment of which is assigned by Allah."

- 41-(1709) Ubada Ibn As-Samit "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were in a gathering with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he said: "Swear allegiance to me for: Not to associate anything in worship along with Allah, not to commit adultery, not to steal, and not to kill your children. Whoever among you fulfils his pledge will be rewarded by Allah. Whoever indulges in any of them (except the ascription of partners to Allah) and gets the punishment in this world, that punishment will be expiation for that sin. (30) The Book Of Judgements

[1] The defendant should take an oath to refute the claim

- 1-(1711) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If all the people are to be given only depending upon their claims, then there would be some people who would have claims over the lives and property of some men (though illegally); but the defendant should take an oath (in order to refute the claim)."
- 2-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed a judgement on the basis that the defendant should take an oath (in order to refute the claim).

[2] The judgement depending upon the oath and the witness

- 3-(1712) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed a judgement depending upon an oath and a witness (presented by the plaintiff).
- [3] Passing the judgement might depend upon an apparent (though not true) evidence, and the more eloquent in expressing his plea can win the case
- 4-(1713) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You file your cases before me, and perhaps, some of you would be more eloquent in expressing their pleas, with the result that I should pass a judgement in his favour depending upon what I hear from him. So, anyone to whom I slice off something from the right of his brother (and he never deserves it), should not take it, for (in case he takes it) I have sliced off to him with it a portion of the fire (of Hell)."

He has forbidden for you: to be undutiful to your mothers, to bury your daughters alive, and to withhold giving back the rights of the others. He has hated for you three (bad characteristics): to talk too much (about others or vain useless talk), to ask too many questions (in controversial religious matters) and to waste the wealth (by extravagance)."

[6] The reward of the judge when he does his best to give a decision (depending upon his knowledge), correct or incorrect it might be

15-(1716) Amr Ibn Al-As narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If a (knowledgeable) judge gave a judgement (after doing his best) and he was right in it, then he would receive a double reward, and if he gave a judgement (after doing his best to be right) but he was mistaken, then, he would receive a reward."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Aziz Ibn Muhammad, with this addition following the Hadith: Yazid said: I narrated this Hadith to Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Hazm, who said: "It is thus that Abu Salama narrated to me from Abu Huraira.

[10] The difference of those who try to reach a correct judgement

20-(1720) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There were two women, each of whom had a child with her. A wolf came and took away the child of one of them, whereupon the other said: "It has taken your child." The first said: "No, it has taken your child." So they both carried the case before (The Prophet) David "Peace be upon him" who judged that the living child be given to the elder. So both of them went to Solomon Ibn David "Peace be upon them" and informed him (of the case). He said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." The younger lady said: "May Allah be merciful to you! Don't do that, for it is her (The other lady's) child." So he gave the child to the younger."

(31) The Book Of The Fallen Thing Which Is Picked up

1-(1722) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked about the fallen thing which is picked up. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Recognize its container and its tying material and then make a public announcement about it for one year. If its owner shows up, give it to him; otherwise use it as you like." The man said: "What about the lost sheep?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is for you, your brother or the wolf." The man asked: "What about the lost camel?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Why should you take it so long as it has got its water-container (stomach) and its hooves, and it can reach the places of water and eat the trees till its owner finds it?"

- 2-(...) Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani narrated: A man went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about picking up a fallen thing. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make public announcement about it for one year. Remember the description of its container and the string with which it is tied; and if somebody comes and claims it describing it correctly, (give it to him); otherwise, utilize it." He said: "O Allah's Apostle! What about a lost sheep?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You can take it, since it is for you, for your brother (its owner), or for the wolf." He further asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What about a lost camel?" On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became so much angry that his cheeks (or his face) turned red and said: "What do you have to do with it, as it has its feet, its water reserve (and can drink and eat) until its owner finds it."

١٧ _ (١٧٢٧) _ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثُ. (َح) وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رُمُّح: أَخْبَرَنَا اللَّيْثُ، عَنْ عَقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ؛ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: قُلْنَا: أَخْبَرَنَا اللَّيْثُ، عَنْ عَقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ؛ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: قُلْنَا:

"O Messenger of Allah! You always send us (as your envoys) and it happens that we might halt at some people who would not entertain us. What is your opinion as regards that?" upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "If you halt at some people who entertained you with the same as a guest should be entertained, then, accept it; and if they did not do so, then you would take from them what should be given to a guest."

[4] Desirability to spend the surplus wealth on one's brother

18-(1728) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were on a journey with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man came riding his mount. He started turning his sight right and left. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has an extra mount should give it to him, who has no mount; and whoever has a surplus provisions should give it to him who has no provisions." He (the narrator) added: He (The Prophet) made a mention of so many kinds of property (whose surplus should be given to those who have nothing of it) to the extent that we thought that one had no right over the surplus (of anything).

[5] Desirability to mix the (remaining) provisions (of the people) together in case the provisions ran short

19-(1729) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a certain expedition. We suffered from a great difficulty (because of the shortage of provisions) that we intended to slaughter some of our mounts. The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that our (remaining) provisions should be collected, for which we spread a leather sheet, on which the (remaining) provisions of the people heaped up. I stretched myself to guess how much that (sheet) was, and I guessed it (in length and breadth) as sufficient for a she-goat to sit, and we were (at this time) fourteen hundred. He (the narrator) added: We all ate our fill, and stuffed our bags. Then, The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is there any (water for) ablution?" a man brought a pot containing very little water, which he poured in a basin, from which all of us performed ablution, using the water abundantly, and we were fourteen hundred. Then, eight persons came and asked: "Is there any (water for) ablution?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The ablution has already been performed."

يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّكَ تَبْعَثَنَا فَنَنْزِلُ بِقَوْمٍ فَلاَ يَقْرُونَنَا. فَمَا تَرَىٰ؟ فَقَالَ لَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنْ نَزَلْتُمْ بِقَوْمٍ فَأَمَرُوا لَكُمْ بِمَا يَنْبَغِي لِلضَّيْفِ، فَاقْبَلُوا، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَفْعَلُوا، فَخُذُوا مِنْهُمْ حَقَّ الضَّيْفِ الَّذِي يَنْبَغِي لَهُمْ».

[البخاري: كتاب المظالم، باب قصاص المظلوم إذا وجد مال ظالمه، رقم: ٢٤٦١].

٤ - بابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ المُوَاسَاةِ بفُضُول المال

١٨ ـ (١٧٢٨) ـ حدثنا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الأَشْهَبِ، عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدِ الْخُدْرِيِّ، قَالَ: بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ فِي سَفَرِ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ عَلَيْ، إِذْ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ عَلَىٰ رَاحِلَةٍ لَهُ. قَالَ: فَجَعَلَ يَصْرِفُ بَصِرَهُ يَمِيناً وَشِمَالاً. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْ اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ كَانَ مَعُهُ فَضْلُ ظَهْرٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ. وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ فَضْلٌ مِنْ زَادٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ. وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ فَضْلٌ مِنْ زَادٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ. وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ فَضْلٌ مِنْ زَادٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ. وَمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ فَضْلٌ مِنْ زَادٍ فَلْيَعُدْ بِهِ عَلَىٰ مَنْ لاَ ظَهْرَ لَهُ.

قَالَ: فَذَكَرَ مِنْ أَصْنَافِ الْمَالِ مَا ذَكَرَ، حَتَّىٰ رَأَيْنَا أَنَّهُ لاَ حَقَّ لأَحَدِ مِنَّا فِي فَضْلِ.

٥ ـ باب اسْتِحْبَابِ خَلْطِ الأَزْوَاد إذا قَلَّتْ والمواساة فيها

19 ـ (١٧٢٩) ـ حدّثني أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُوسُفَ الأَزْدِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا النَّضْرُ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ الْيَمَامِيَّ ـ: حَدَّثَنَا عِكْرِمَةُ ـ وَهُوَ ابْنُ عَمَّارٍ ـ. حَدَّثَنَا إِيَاسُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، مُحَمَّدٍ الْيَمَامِيَّ ـ: حَدَّثَنَا عِكْرِمَةُ ـ وَهُو ابْنُ عَمَّارٍ ـ. حَدَّثَنَا إِيَاسُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، قَالَ: خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي غَزْوةٍ. فَأَصَابَنَا جَهْدٌ. حَتَّىٰ هَمَمْنَا أَنْ نَنْحَرَ بَعْضَ ظَهْرِنَا. فَأَمَرَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَجَمَعْنَا مَزَاوِدَنَا، فَبَسَطْنَا لَه نِطَعاً، فَاجْتَمَعَ زَادُ الْقَوْمِ عَلَى ظَهْرِنَا. فَأَمْرَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَحَرُوثُهُ كَمْ هُو؟ فَحَزَرْتُهُ كَرَبْضَةِ الْعَنْزِ. وَنَحْنُ أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةً مِعَةً. النَّطَع. قَالَ: فَتَطَاوَلْتُ لأَخْرُرُهُ كَمْ هُو؟ فَحَزَرْتُهُ كَرَبْضَةِ الْعَنْزِ. وَنَحْنُ أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةً مِعَةً. قَالَ: فَتَعَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ عَشْرَةً مِعَةً وَمُعَلَى مَنْ وَقَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ عَشْرَةً مِعَةً رَجُلٌ بِإِدَاوَةٍ لَهُ، فِيهَا نُطْفَةٌ. فَأَفْرَغَهَا فِي قَدَحٍ. فَتَوَضَّأَنَا كُلُّنَا. وَضُوءٍ؟» قَالَ: فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ بِإِدَاوَةٍ لَهُ، فِيهَا نُطْفَةٌ. فَأَفْرَغَهَا فِي قَدَحٍ. فَتَوَضَّأَنَا كُلُّنَا كُلُنَا كُلُنَا عُشْرَةً مِثَةً . أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَة مِثَةً . أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَة مِثَةً . أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَة مِثَةً . أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَة مِثَةً .

قَالَ: ثُمَّ جَاءَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ ثَمَانِيَةٌ فَقَالُوا: هَلْ مِنْ طَهُورٍ؟ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «فَرغَ الْوَضُوءُ».

(32) The Book Of Jihad And Expeditions

- [1] The permissibility of invading the unbelievers whom the call of Islam had already reached, without notifying them before the attack
- 1-(1730) Ibn Awn narrated: I wrote to Nafi, asking him about the (necessity of) calling (the unbelievers to Islam) before fighting. He wrote to me (the following reply): "That was during the early days of Islam. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invaded (the tribe of) Banu Al-Mustaliq while they were inattentive, and their animals were being watered at the (stream of) water. He killed their fighters and captured their captives. On that day, he got (Yahya said: I thought he said Juwairiya) Bint Al-Harith. This Hadith was narrated to me by Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both", who was involved in this army (of Muslims).
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn with the same chain of transmitters, in which he mentioned "Juwairiya Bint Al-Harith", with no doubt.
- [2] Appointing the leaders of the expeditions by the imam, and his advice to them to abide by the etiquettes of war and the related matters
- 2-(1731) Yahya Ibn Adam narrated from Sufyan: He dictated to us (the following Hadith).
- 3-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed anyone as leader of an army or detachment, he would privately urge him to fear Allah and to be good to the Muslims who were with him. He would say: "Fight in the name of Allah and in the cause of Allah. Fight against those who disbelieve in Allah. Fight and do not misappropriate (the spoils). You should neither break your pledge, nor should you mutilate (the dead) bodies. You should not also kill the children.

When you meet your unbelieving enemies, call them to three things. If they respond to any one of them, you should accept it and keep yourself from causing any harm to them. Call them to (embrace) Islam. If they respond to you, you should accept it from them and withhold yourself from fighting them. Then call them to emigrate from their land to the land of the Emigrants, and tell them that if they do that, they will have all the privileges and obligations of the Emigrants. If they refuse to emigrate (from their land), inform them that they will become as the Bedouin Muslims and will be subject to the orders of Allah like other believers, but they will not share the spoils of war or booty with them unless they take part with the Muslims in fighting (the unbelievers).

If they refuse (to embrace Islam), ask them to give the tribute. If they agree to give it, accept it from them and keep yourself from (fighting) them. If they refuse to give the tribute, seek for Allah's help and fight them. When you besiege a fort whose people appeal to you for protection granted in the name of Allah and His Messenger, do not give them the guarantee of Allah and His Messenger, but give them your own guarantee and that of your companions, for in case (it happens that) the protection given by you or your companions is disregarded, it will be a lesser sin than that (you will commit) in case the protection guaranteed in the name of Allah and His Messenger is disregarded. If you be eige a fort whose people ask you to let them out according to Allah's Command, do not let them out according to Allah's Command, but do that according to your own command, for you do not know whether you will be able to implement Allah's command regarding them."

- 4-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a leader with a detachment, he would call him and advise him...and the rest is the same.

- 27-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! We might kill the women and children of the unbelievers during the night raids (what is your command as regards it?)" He said: "(There is no harm if not intentionally since) they are from them."
- 28-(...) Ibn Abbas narrated from As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama that it was said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If some horsemen raided (the enemy) during the night and killed some from the children of the unbelievers (what is your command?)" upon this he said: "(There is no harm if not intentionally since) they are from their fathers."

[10] It is permissible to cut and burn the trees of the unbelievers

- 29-(1746) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" burnt (most of) the date-palms of Banu An-Nadir, and cut down (some of them). Those date palms were at Al-Buwaira. Qutaiba and Ibn Rumh added in their narration: So, Allah revealed His saying: "Whether ye cut down (o ye Muslims!) The tender palm trees, or ye left them standing on their roots, it was by leave of Allah, and in order that He might cover with shame the rebellious transgressors." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 5)
- 30-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had the date-palm trees of Banu An-Nadir cut down and burnt. Regarding this case, Hassan Ibn Thabit said this poetic Verse: "the terrible burning of Al-Buwaira has been received uninterestedly by the nobles of Banu Lu'ai (The chiefs of Quraish)." It was on that occasion that it was revealed: "Whether ye cut down (o ye Muslims!) The tender palm trees, or ye left them standing on their roots, it was by leave of Allah."
- 31-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had the date-palm trees of Banu An-Nadir burnt.

consummate the marriage, and has not done so yet, should not accompany me; nor should a man who has built a house but has not completed its roof; nor should a man who has sheep or pregnant she-camels and is waiting for the birth of their young ones." So, The Prophet carried out the expedition. When he reached that town at the time or nearly at the time of the Asr prayer, he said to the sun: "O sun! You are under Allah's Order and I am under Allah's Order. O Allah! Stop it from setting." It was stopped till Allah made him victorious.

Then he collected the booty and the fire came to burn it, but it did not burn it. He said (to his men): "Some of you have stolen something from the booty. So one man from every tribe should give me a pledge of allegiance by shaking hands with me." (When they did so) the hand of a man got stuck over the hand of their prophet. Then that Prophet said (to the man): "The theft has been committed by your people. So all the persons of your tribe should give me the pledge of allegiance by shaking hands with me." The hands of two or three men got stuck over the hand of their Prophet who said: "You have committed the theft." Then they brought a head of gold like the head of a cow which they put among the (objects of the) booty on the ground; and the fire came and consumed the booty. In this way, the war booty had not been made lawful for anyone before us. But when Allah saw our weakness and disability, He made the war booty legal for us."

[12] The spoils of war

33-(1748) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated: My father took a sword from the one-fifth of the spoils of war, and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Grant this to me." But he refused. On that occasion, Allah Almighty revealed: "They ask thee concerning (things taken as) spoils of war. Say: "(Such) spoils are at the disposal of Allah and the Messenger: so fear Allah, and keep straight the relations between yourselves: Obey Allah and His Messenger, if ye do believe."" (The spoils Of War "Al-Anfal" 1)

34-(...) Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd narrated from his father: Four holy Verses have been revealed in connection with me. Once, I got a sword (from the spoils of war) which was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (Mus'ab added) he (my father) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give it to me in addition to my share of booty." He said: "Place it." He (my father) stood up and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put it where you had taken it." Then, he stood up and

- (...) Abu Muhammad, the freed slave of Abu Quatada narrated the (following) Hadith.
- (...) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (on an expedition) in the year of (the holy Battle of) Hunain. When we faced the enemy, some of the Muslims turned back. I saw a man from the unbelievers having overpowered one of the Muslims. I turned round and attacked him from behind, striking him between his neck and shoulder. He turned towards me and caught hold of me (so much violently) that I noticed death approaching me. Then death overtook him and let me alone. I joined Umar Ibn Al-Khattab who said: "What has happened to the people (which led them to retreat)?" I said: "It is Allah's Decree." Then the people returned (and the battle ended with the victory of Muslims).

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat (to distribute the spoils of war) and said: "Whoever killed a pagan and has an evidence for it, then his (the deceased) belongings will be for him." I stood up and said: "Who will give evidence for me?" Then I sat down. He (The Prophet) said like this. I stood up and said: "Who will give evidence for me?" then, I sat down once again. He (The Prophet) said so for the third time, after which I stood up. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What is the matter with you O Abu Quatada?" I narrated the story to him. A man from among the people said: "He has told the truth O Messenger of Allah. The belongings of that (pagan) killed by him are with me. Make him concede his right (to me)." Abu Bakr said:

"No, by Allah, this should not happen. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" will not tend to deprive one of the lions of Allah who fight in the cause of Allah and His Messenger in order to give you his share of booty." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He (Abu Bakr) has told the truth. Give the belongings to him (Abu Quatada)." He gave them to me. I sold the armour (included in the belongings which I got) and bought with its price a garden in the street of Banu Salama. This was the first property I gained after embracing Islam.

42-(1752) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While I was standing in the row on the day (of the battle) of Badr, I looked to my right and my left and saw two young Ansari boys. I wished I had been between men stronger than them. One of them drew my attention saying: "O Uncle! Do you know Abu Jahl?" I said: "Yes, What do you want from him, O my nephew?" He said: "I have been informed that he abuses Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". By Him, in Whose Hands my life is, if I see him, then my body will not leave his body till either of us who is destined to meet his fate earlier is killed." I was astonished at that talk. Then the other boy called my attention saying the same as the other had said.

After a while I saw Abu Jahl walking amongst the people. I said (to the boys): "Look! This is the man you asked me about." So, both of them attacked him with their swords and struck him to death. Then they returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to inform him of that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Which of you has killed him?" Each of them said: "I Have killed him." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Have you cleaned your swords?" They said: "No. " He then looked at their swords and said: "No doubt, you both have killed him." But, the belongings of the deceased were given to Mu'adh Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Jamuh. (The two boys were Mu'adh Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Jamuh and Mu'adh Ibn Afra).

belongings, but Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, who was the leader, prevented him. Awf Ibn Malik went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him. He (The Prophet) asked Khalid: "What did prevent you to give him the booty?" he replied: "I regarded it as too much O Messenger of Allah." He (The Prophet) said: "Give it to him." Then, Khalid came upon Awf Ibn Malik who pulled him by his cloak and said: "Has what I had reported to you from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard him, with the result that he got angry and said: "Do not give him O Khalid! Do not give him O Khalid! Would you leave my leaders for me? However, the example of you and them is like one who was asked to take some camels and sheep in order to graze, and he took them to graze. When it was time for them to drink, he brought them to a pool, from which they drank its clear (water) and left its dirty (water), with the result that its clearness (i.e. the best reward) would become for you, and its dirt (i.e. the blame) would be for those (leaders)."

While we were having our breakfast with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man came riding a red camel. He made it kneel down, took out a strap of leather from its girth with which he tied the camel. Then he started eating with the people and looking (curiously here and there). We were in a state of weakness and lacking of mounts, since some of us were on foot. Suddenly, he left us quickly, came to his camel, which he untied. He made it kneel down, rode it and then urged it and it ran with him. A man on a brown she-camel chased him (regarding him as a spy).

Salama (the narrator) added: I came out hurriedly on foot. I ran on until I was near the thigh of the she-camel. I proceeded further until I was near the thighs of the camel. I advanced further until I caught hold of the nose string

I brought the camel driving it along with the man's baggage and arms. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" along with the people came to receive me. He asked: "Who has killed the man?" The people said: "Ibn Al-Akwa." He said: "Then, the entire belongings of the man are for him."

[14] Giving extra rewards to the fighters, and ransoming the Muslims with the captives (from the enemy)

46-(1755) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father (Salama Ibn Al-Akwa): We fought (the tribe of) Fazara under the leadership of Abu Bakr who was appointed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When we were as far from the water as a distance covered only in an hour, Abu Bakr ordered us to halt during the last portion of the night. Then we attacked from all sides and reached their watering place. Some of the enemies were killed and others were captured. I saw a group of people consisting of women and children. Since I was afraid that they should precede me to the mountain, I shot an arrow between them and the mountain. When they saw the arrow, they stopped. I came driving them.

Among them there was a woman from Banu Fazara. She was wearing a leather coat. Her daughter, who was one of the most beautiful girls in Arabia, was with her. I drove them until I brought them to Abu Bakr who granted this girl to me as a reward. Then, we arrived in Medina. I had not yet disrobed her when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me in the street and said: "Give me that girl O Salama." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! She has appealed me. I had not yet disrobed her." On the next day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me in the street once again and said: "O Salama! Give me that girl, may Allah bless your father." I said: "She is for you O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! I have not yet disrobed her." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent her to the people of Mecca, and ransomed with her many Muslims who had been captured (and kept as prisoners) at Mecca.

If a town disobeys Allah and His Messenger (and fights Muslims) one-fifth of the booty taken from it should be for Allah and His Messenger and the rest should be for you."

- 48-(1757) Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The properties of Banu An-Nadir which Allah had transferred to His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as Booty were not gained by the Muslims with their horses and camels (i.e. were not gained through war). The properties therefore, belonged especially to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (from which) he used to give his family their yearly expenditure and spend what remained thereof on arms and horses to be used in Allah's Cause.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.
- 49-(...) Malik Ibn Aws narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent (a messenger) to me (to come to him). I went to him when the sun rose high. I found him in his home, sitting on a bedstead, made of date-palm leaves, covered with no mattress. he was leaning over a leather pillow. I greeted him and sat down. He said: "O Malik! Some persons of your people who have families came to me and I have ordered that a gift should be given to them. So take and distribute it among them." I said: "Would that you order someone else to do it!" He said: "O Malik! Take it." Then, his doorman Yarfa came saying: "O Commander of the Believers! Uthman, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf, Az-Zubair and Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas are asking your permission (to enter into you). May I admit them?"

Umar said: "Yes." So they were admitted, and they came in. A while later, he came again and said: "May I admit Ali and Abbas?" Omar said: "yes." So, they were admitted. (When they came in and sat down) Abbas said: "O Commander of The Believers! Judge between me and this (Ali) liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer." (They had a dispute regarding the property of Banu An-Nadir, which Allah had given to His Apostle as booty with no war). The (present) companions said: "O Commander of The Believers! Judge between them and relieve both of them in front of each other." (Malik Ibn Aws said: I think they had come only for that purpose). Umar said: "Be patient! "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our (prophets') property will not be inherited, and whatever we leave, is to be used for charity"?" The group said: "Yes (He said so)." Umar then turned to Ali and Abbas and said: "I beseech you by Allah by Whose Permission the Heaven and the Earth exist, do you know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our (prophets') property will not be inherited, and whatever we leave, is to be used for charity"?" They replied: "Yes (He said so)." Umar then said: "Allah bestowed upon His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a special favour of something of this booty which he gave to nobody else." (Umar then recited Allah's saying): "What Allah has bestowed on His Messenger (and taken away) from the people of the townships- belongs to Allah- to His Messenger and to kindred and orphans, the needy and the wayfarer; in order that it may not (merely) make a circuit between the wealthy among you. So take what the Messenger assigns to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds from you. And fear Allah; for Allah is strict in Punishment." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 7) (The narrator said): I do not know whether he (Umar) recited also the previous Verse.

Umar added: "So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed among you the property of Banu An-Nadir, but, by Allah, neither did he favour himself with it to your exclusion, nor did he take possession of it and leave you, (on the contrary, he distributed it amongst you) till this property remained out of it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to spend the yearly expenses of his family out of this property, and used to keep the rest of its revenue to be spent in Allah's Cause. I ask you by Allah, do you know this?" They replied: "Yes." He besought Ali and Abbas by the same he had besought the people: "Do you know this?" they replied in the affirmative.

Umar added: "When Allah had taken His Prophet unto Him, Abu Bakr said: "I am the successor of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Then, both of you came to him: You (Abbas) demanded your inheritance from your nephew, and this (Ali) demanded the inheritance of his wife from her father, whereupon Abu Bakr said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We (Prophets) should not be inherited, for what we leave should be used for charity." The result was that you regarded him as a liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer; and Allah knows that he was true, pious, rightly-guided, and a follower of what is right.

قَالَ: فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: أَنَا وَلِيُّ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَجِئْتُمَا، تَطْلُبُ مِيرَاثَكَ مِيرَاثَكَ امْرَأَتِهِ مِنْ أَبِيهَا.

Then Allah took Abu Bakr unto Him and I became the (second) successor of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the successor of Abu Bakr. You regarded me as a liar, sinful, treacherous betrayer; and Allah knows that I have been true, pious, rightly-guided, and a follower of what is right. So, I became in charge of that (property). Then, you both (Ali and Abbas) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case. You asked me to hand over it to you. I said to you: "I am ready to hand over this property to you if you wish, on the condition that you would take Allah's Pledge that you would manage it in the same way as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do," and you took it on that condition." (Then, he asked them): "was it right?" they replied: "Yes."

He said: "Now, both of you come to me in order to give a (different) judgement between you. No, by Allah, I will never give any judgement between you other than that (I have already given) until the Hour is established. If you are unable to manage it, then return it to me (and I will do the job on your behalf)."

[16] The Prophet's saying: "We (The Prophets) should not be inherited, and whatever we leave should be used for charity"

51-(1758) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, his wives intended to send Uthman Ibn Affan to Abu Bakr, in order to ask him about their inheritance from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this A'isha said to him: "Did not The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" say: "We (Prophets) should not be inherited, and whatever we leave should be used for charity"?"

52-(1759) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Fatima "Allah be pleased with her" the daughter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent somebody to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (after being appointed as caliph), asking for her inheritance of what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had left of the property bestowed on him by Allah from the booty gained without war in Medina, and Fadak, and what remained of one-fifth the Khaibar's booty. On that, Abu Bakr said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our property should not be inherited. Whatever we (prophets) leave, is to be given in charity, but the family of (The Prophet) Muhammad can eat from this property." By Allah, I will make no change in the state of the charity of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I also will leave it as it was during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", of which I will dispose in the same way as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did." In this way, Abu Bakr refused to give anything of that to Fatima.

As a result, she became angry with Abu Bakr, kept away from him, and did not talk to him till she died. She remained alive for six months after the death of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When she died, her husband Ali buried her at night without informing Abu Bakr; and he led the funeral prayer by himself. When Fatima was alive, the people used to respect Ali so much. But after her death, Ali noticed a change in the people's attitude towards him. So Ali sought reconciliation with Abu Bakr and giving him the pledge of allegiance. However, Ali had not given the pledge of allegiance during those months (during which Fatima was alive after The Prophet's death). Ali sent somebody to Abu Bakr saying: "Come to us, but let nobody come with you." He seemed to have disliked that Umar might come. Umar said (to Abu Bakr): "No, by Allah, you shall not enter upon them alone!" Abu Bakr said: "What do you think they will do to me? By Allah, I will go to them."

Abu Bakr entered upon them. Ali testified that there is no God but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah. Then he said (to Abu Bakr): "We know well your superiority and what Allah has given you. We are not jealous of the good Allah has bestowed upon you (by being caliph). But you did not consult us in the question of ruling, in which we thought that we had a right because of our near relationship to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He kept speaking until Abu Bakr's eyes flowed with tears. When Abu Bakr spoke, he said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is! To keep good relations with the relatives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is dearer to me than to keep good relations with my kith and kin. But as for the trouble, which arose between you and me about his property, I will do my best to spend it on what is good. Therefore, I will not leave any rule or regulation I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing in disposing of it, but that I will follow." Ali said to Abu Bakr: "I promise to give you the pledge of allegiance in this afternoon."

When Abu Bakr performed Dhuhr prayer, he came up the pulpit, testified that there is no God (to be worshiped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, and then mentioned the story of Ali and his delay in giving the pledge of allegiance, excusing him, and accepting the excuses he had offered. Then Ali asked for (Allah's) forgiveness. Testified that there is no God but Allah, and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah. He praised Abu Bakr's right, and said that he had not done what he had done because of jealousy of Abu Bakr, or as a protest of that with which Allah had favored him. (Ali added): "But we thought that we had some right in this affair (of regime), in which he (Abu Bakr) did not consult us, and in this way, caused us to feel sorry." Consequently, all the Muslims became happy and said: "You have done the right thing." The Muslims then became pleased with Ali since he returned to what people had done (of giving the pledge of allegiance to Abu Bakr).

A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that both of Fatima and Al-Abbas "Allah be pleased with them" came to Abu Bakr, demanding their inheritance from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". At this time, they demanded his land in Fadak, and his share from (the property of) Khaibar. Upon this Abu Bakr said to them: "I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying..." and the rest is the same, with a slight change of words.

Abu Bakr said to her: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our property will not be inherited. But whatever we (prophets) leave is (to be used for) charity." However, Fatima remained alive for six months after the death of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Fatima used to ask Abu Bakr for her share from the property of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which he left at Khaibar and Fadak, in addition to his property at Medina (devoted for charity). Abu Bakr refused to give her that property and said: "I will not leave anything The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do, because I am afraid that if I left something from The Prophet's tradition, then I would go astray." (Later on) Umar gave The Prophet's property (of charity) at Medina to Ali and Abbas, but Ali overpowered him (and kept it in his possession). But he withheld the properties of Khaibar and Fadak in his custody and said: "These two properties are the charity which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used for his expenditures and urgent needs. Now their management is to be entrusted to the ruler." (Az-Zuhri said: "They have been managed in this way till today.")

- 56-(1761) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our property should not be inherited, but whatever we (Prophets) leave should be (used for) charity."

[17] The way of distributing the booty among the present people

- 57-(1762) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed the booty in such a way that he gave two shares to the cavalryman and one share to the footman.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters, without mentioning "the booty".

١٨ ـ بابُ الإمدادِ بالمَلائكة في غَزْوَةِ بَدْرٍ وإبَاحَةِ الغَنَائِمِ

٥٨ _ (١٧٦٣) _ حدَّثنا هَنَّادُ بْنُ السَّرِيِّ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ الْمُبَارِكِ، عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ

Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cast a glance at the infidels, and they were one thousand while his own Companions were three hundred and nineteen. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned (his face) towards the Qibla, stretched his hands and began his supplication to his Lord: "O Allah! Accomplish for me what You have promised me. O Allah! Bring about what You have promised me. O Allah! If this small group of Muslims is destroyed, You will not be worshipped on the earth." He continued his supplication to his Lord, stretching his hands, facing the Qibla, until his mantle slipped down from his shoulders.

Abu Bakr came to him, picked up his mantle and put it on his shoulders. Then he embraced him from behind and said: "O Prophet of Allah! This supplication of yours to your Lord will be sufficient for you, and He will accomplish for you what He has promised you." On this occasion, Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" revealed (the following Qur'anic verse): "When ye appealed to your Lord for help, He responded to your call (saying): I will support you with one thousand angels coming in succession." (Al-Anfal 9) In this way, Allah supported him with angels.

Abu Zumail said that Ibn Abbas narrated to him: On that day, while a Muslim was chasing an infidel who was going ahead of him, he heard over him' a whip's lashing and a rider's voice saying: Go ahead, O Haizum! He looked in front of him, and behold! The infidel fell down on his back. When he looked at him (closely, he observed) a scar on his nose and his face was torn as if it were lashed with a whip, and it turned green. An Ansari man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to whom he narrated that (story). He (The Prophet) said: "You have told the truth. This was a support from the third heaven."

On that day, The Muslims killed seventy persons and took seventy as captives. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abu Bakr and Umar (Allah be pleased with them): "What is your opinion about those captives?" Abu Bakr said: "They are our kith and kin. I think you should release them after getting from them a ransom, which will be (a source of) power for us against the infidels. Probably, Allah would guide them to Islam." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Umar): "What is your opinion O Ibn Al-Khattab?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I am not of the same opinion as Abu Bakr. I am of the opinion that you should hand them over to us so that we would chop off their necks. Hand over Aqil to Ali in order to chop off his neck, and hand over such and such relative to me in order that I would chop off his neck. They are the chiefs of the infidels, and the men of the greatest power from among them."

(Umar resumed): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was inclined to the opinion of Abu Bakr and was not inclined to mine. When I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the next day I found him and Abu Bakr sitting, and they were weeping. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why are you and your Companion weeping? Tell me if there is reason for weeping, I would weep, otherwise, I would pretend to weep for your weeping." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I weep for what has happened to your companions who took ransom (from the prisoners). I was shown their torture, which was brought to me as close as this tree." (He pointed to a tree close to him.)

Then, Allah Almighty revealed: "It is not fitting for a Prophet that he should have prisoners of war until he hath thoroughly subdued the land. Ye look for the temporal goods of this world; but Allah looketh to the Hereafter: and Allah is Exalted in might, Wise. Had it not been for a previous ordainment from Allah, a severe penalty would have reached you for the (ransom) that ye took. But (now) enjoy what ye took in war, lawful and good: but fear Allah; for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Spoils of War "Al-Anfal" 67:69) Hence, Allah made booty lawful for them."

[19] Fastening and detaining the war prisoner and the permissibility of releasing him

59-(1764) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent some cavalry towards Najd and they brought a man from the tribe of Banu Hanifa called Thumama Ibn Uthal, the chief of the people of Yamama. They fastened him to one of the pillars of the Mosque. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to him and said: "What have you got, O Thumama?" He replied: "I have got a good idea, O Muhammad! If you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody, and if you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful, and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given."

بَكْرِ وَعُمَرَ: «مَا تَرَوْنَ فِي هَوُلاَءِ الأُسَارَىٰ؟» فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرِ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ! هُمْ بنُو الْعَمِّ وَالْعَشِيرَةِ. أَرَىٰ أَنْ تَأْخُذَ مِنْهُمْ فِدْيَةً. فَتَكُونَ لَنَا قُوَّةً عَلَى الْكُفَّادِ. فَعَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَهْدِيَهُمْ لِلإِسْلاَمِ.

١٩ ـ باب رَبْطِ الأُسِير وحَبْسِه وجواز المنِّ عليه

He was left till the next day when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "What have you got O Thumama?" He said: "What I told you: If you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful; if you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody; and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given. "The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left him till the day after, when he said: "What have you got, O Thumama?" He said: "I have got what I told you: If you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful; if you kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody; and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want, and you will be given."

On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Release Thumama."

So he (Thumama) went to a garden of date-palm trees near the Mosque, took a bath and then entered the Mosque and said: "I testify that there is no God (to be worshipped) but Allah, and testify that Muhammad is His Apostle! By Allah, O Muhammad! There was no face on the surface of the earth which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now your face has become the most beloved face to me. By Allah, there was no religion which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now it is the most beloved religion to me. By Allah, there was no town which had been more disliked by me than yours, but now it is the most beloved town to me. Your cavalry arrested me (at the time) when I was intending to perform Umra. Now what do you think?"

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him good tidings and ordered him to perform the Umra. So when he came to Mecca, someone said to him: "Have you deviated from your religion?" Thumama replied: "No! By Allah, I have embraced Islam with Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah. No, by Allah! Not a single grain of wheat will come to you from Yamama unless The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gives his permission."

[20] Expelling the Jews from (the land of) Hijaz

61-(1765) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were in the Mosque, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and said: "Let us go to the Jews." We went out till we reached them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and called them: "O Community of Jews! If you embrace Islam, you will be safe." they said: "You have reported (Allah's message to us), O Abu Al-Qasim!" he said: "This is what I wanted (from you). If you embrace Islam, you will be safe." They replied: "You have reported (Allah's message to us), O Abu Al-Qasim!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "That is what I wanted (from you)." When he said to them his statement for the third time, he said: "You should know that the earth belongs to Allah and His Apostle. Indeed, I want to expel you from this land. So, if anyone amongst you owns some property, he is permitted to sell it. It should be known to you that the Earth belongs to Allah and His Apostle."

62-(1766) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Banu An-Nadir and Banu Quraidha fought against The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (violating their peace treaty), so The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" expelled Banu An-Nadir and allowed Banu Quraidha to remain at their places (in Medina) till they fought against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" again. He then killed their men and distributed their women, children and property among the Muslims, but some of them joined The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he granted them safety, and they embraced Islam. He expelled all the Jews from Medina. They were the Jews of Banu Qainuqa, the tribe of Abdullah Ibn Salam, and the Jews of Banu Haritha and all the other Jews of Medina.

(...) The same Hadith was narrated on the authority of Musa, with the same chain of transmitters, but the narration of Ibn Juraij is more complete and much longer.

[21] Expelling both the Jews and the Christians from the Arab peninsula

63-(1767) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "I am going to expel all the Jews and the Christians from the Arab peninsula, and I will leave nobody there but a Muslim."

O Allah! If there still remains any (probability of) fighting with the Quraish (disbelievers), then keep me alive till I fight against them in your cause. O Allah! I think you have put an end to the fight between us and them (Quraish unbelievers)., so, if you put an end to war between them and us, then let this wound burst and cause me to die as a result of that." Subsequently, the wound started bleeding from the front part of his neck. There was a tent in the Mosque belonging to Banu Ghifar who were surprised by the blood flowing towards them. They said: "O people of the tent! What is that which is coming to us from your side?" Indeed, blood was flowing abundantly out of Sa'd's wound. Sa'd then died as a result of that.

You (people of Aws) have left your cooking pot empty (since your previous allies of Quraidha were killed), while the cooking pot of the people (of Khazraj) was hot and boiling. Abu Hubab, the nobleman said: "Keep staying O Qainuqa, and do not depart." However, they (the people of Quraidha) were weighty (and deep-rooted because of their great wealth and power) in their country, just as rocks are weighty in (the mountain of) Maitan."

69-(1770) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us (after returning from) the day of (The Holy Battle of) The Confederates: "None of you should pray The Dhuhr except in Banu Quraidha." Some people were afraid that they would be overtaken by The (Asr) time on their way to Banu Quraidha, so, they prayed it before reaching Banu Quraidha. Some of them said: "We should not pray it except (in Banu Quraidha) where The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us (to pray it), even if we were overtaken by the (Asr) time." But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", did not blame any of them.

[24] The Emigrants return the gifts of trees and date-palms given by the Ansar to them, after they became wealthy by virtue of the conquests

70-(1771) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When the Muhajirs (Emigrants) migrated from Mecca to Medina, they came without having anything (i.e. money) in their hands, while the Ansar (Supporters) possessed lands and date palms. They divided their property with the Emigrants. The Ansar divided (the land) with them on the condition that they would give half the fruit from the orchards every year, and the Muhajirs would undertake the labour and provide the land with the basic needs (of cultivation) on their behalf.

The mother of Anas Ibn Malik was called Umm Sulaim and she was also the mother of Abdullah Ibn Talha who was a brother of Anas from his mother's side. The mother of Anas had given the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" her date-palms, which he gave to Umm Aiman, the slave-woman who had been set free by him and was the mother of Usama Ibn Zaid. Then Anas Ibn Malik told Ibn Shihab that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished the war with the people of Khaibar and returned to Medina, the Muhajirs returned to the Ansar all the gifts, which they had given them out of the fruits. He (Anas Ibn Malik) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned to my mother her date-palms and gave to Umm Aiman date-palms from his orchard instead of them.

٢٤ ـ بابُ ردِّ المهاجرينَ إلى الأنصار منائِحَهُم من الشجر والثمر حين استغنوا عنها بالفتوح

٧٠ ـ (١٧٧١) ـ وحدثني أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ وَحَرْمَلَةُ. قَالاَ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبِ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ. قَالَ: لَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمُهَاجِرُونَ، مِنْ مَكَّةَ، الْمَدِينَةَ قَدِمُوا وَلَيْسَ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ شَيْءٌ.

قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ؛ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ لمَّا فَرَغَ مِنْ قِتَالِ أَهْلِ خَيْبَرَ. وَانْصَرَفَ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ. رَدَّ الْمُهَاجِرُونَ إِلَى الْأَنْصَارِ مَنَائِحَهُمُ الَّتِي كَانُوا مَنَائِحَهُمُ الَّتِي كَانُوا مَنَائِحَهُمُ مِنْ ثِمَارِهِمْ. قَالَ: فَرَدَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلَىٰ أُمِّي عِذَاقَهَا. وَأَعْطَىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلَىٰ أُمِّي عِذَاقَهَا. وَأَعْطَىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَمَّ أَيْمَنَ مَكَانَهُنَّ مِنْ حَائِطِهِ.

Ibn Shihab told: Umm Aiman, who was the mother of Usama Ibn Zaid, was a slave-woman belonging to Abdullah Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib. She was from Ethiopia. When Amina (daughter of Wahb) gave birth to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" after his father had died, Umm Aiman was his (The Prophet's) wet-nurse until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew up and emancipated her, and married her to Zaid Ibn Haritha. She died five months after the death of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

71-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some (Ansari people) used to give as a gift date-palm trees to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till Banu Quraidha and Banu An-Nadir were conquered. Then, he gave back to them their date-palm trees. Anas added: my people ordered me to come and ask The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to return some or all the date-palm trees they had given to him. However, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given those date-palm trees to Umm Aiman. I came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and told him about that) and he gave them to me. On that, Umm Aiman came and put the garment around my neck and said: "No, by Allah! We will not return those date-palm trees to you since The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them to me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to her): "O Umm Aiman! Leave those (date-palm trees) and I will give you so much (in substitution)." But she kept on rejecting, saying: "No, by Him, but Whom there is no god" till he gave her ten times her date-palm trees or nearly ten times her date-palm trees.

[25] Permissibility of eating from the foodstuff of the booty in the house of war

- 72-(1772) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, I got a leather container of fat, of which I caught hold. I said: "Today, I would give nothing from that (fat) to anyone." I turned and behold! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (standing behind me) smiling.
- 73-(...) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, a leather container having some food and fat was thrown by somebody. I jumped to take it. I looked behind, and suddenly I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" there. So I felt shy (to take it).

[26] The letter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Heraclius, calling him to embrace Islam

74-(1773) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Abu Sufyan told me: During the time of the armistice between me (i.e. the people of Quraish) and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I set out (in a commercial caravan) to Sham. At the same time, a letter was brought from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Heraclius, the ruler of the Romans. However, Dihya Al-Kalbi brought it and handed it to the ruler of Busra, who, in turn, handed it to Heraclius. Heraclius asked: "Is there anyone belonging to the people of that man who claims to be a Prophet?" they replied in the affirmative. I was invited along with some people from Quraish. We entered upon Heraclius, who made us sit in front of him.

Heraclius asked: "Who amongst you is closely more related to that man who claims to be a Prophet?" Abu Sufyan said: I replied: "I am (the nearest relative to him)." They made me sit in front of him, and made my companions stand behind me. Heraclius called his interpreter and told him to tell my companions that he wanted to put some questions to me regarding that man (The Prophet) and that if I told a lie they (my companions) should contradict me." Abu Sufyan added: By Allah! Had I not been afraid of my companions labeling me a liar, I would not have spoken the truth (about The Prophet). Then, he told his interpreter to ask me:

"What is his family status amongst you?" I replied: "He belongs to a good noble family amongst us." He said: "Was anybody amongst his ancestors a king?" I replied: "No." Heraclius said: "Have you ever accused him of telling lies before his claim (to be a Prophet)?" I replied: "No." Heraclius asked: "do the noblemen or the poor follow him?" I replied: "only the poor people do follow him." He said: "Are his followers increasing or decreasing (day after day)?" I replied: "They are increasing." He then asked: "Does anybody amongst those who embrace his religion become displeased and reject it afterwards?" I replied: "No." Heraclius asked: "have you ever had a war with him?" I replied: "Yes." Then he asked: "What was the result of the battles?" I replied: "Sometimes he was victorious and sometimes we were." Heraclius said: "Does he break his promises?" I replied: "No. We are at armistice with him but we do not know what he will do in it." I could not find opportunity to say anything against him except that. Heraclius further asked: "has anybody amongst you ever claimed the same (To be a Prophet) before him?" I replied: "No."

Heraclius asked the interpreter to convey to me the following: "I asked you about his family and your reply was that he belonged to a very noble family. In fact, all the Apostles come from noble families amongst their respective people. Then I asked you whether anyone of his ancestors was a king. Your reply was in the negative. If it had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this might have wanted to take back his ancestral kingdom. I then asked you whether the rich or the poor people followed him. You replied that only the poor men followed him. In fact, all Apostles have been followed by this very class of people. I further asked whether he was ever accused of telling lies before he said what he said. Your reply was in the negative. Therefore, I wondered how a person who does not tell a lie about others could ever tell a lie about Allah.

I further asked you whether there was anybody, who, after embracing his religion, became displeased and rejected it. Your reply was in the negative. As a matter of fact, this is (the sign of) true faith, when its delight enters the hearts with which it mixes completely. Then I asked you whether his followers were increasing or decreasing. You replied that they were increasing. Indeed, this is the way of true faith, until it is complete in all respects. I asked you whether you were at war with him, and you replied that you had been, and that the victory had been shared by turns: sometimes you suffered losses at his hands, and sometimes he suffered losses at your hands. However, that was the state of the Messengers, who might be put to trial, and then the decisive victory would be for them.

I asked you whether he had ever betrayed. You replied in the negative. However, the Apostles never betray. I questioned you whether anybody else amongst you claimed such a thing; and your reply was in the negative. If the answer had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man was following the previous one's statement. Heraclius said: "What does he order you to do?" I said: "He orders us to pray, to speak the truth, to keep good relations with our Kith and kin, and to be chaste." Heraclius then said: "If what you have said is true, then, he is a Prophet. I knew that he was going to appear but I did not know that he would be from you. Indeed, if I know I could reach him definitely, I would like to go immediately to meet him. If I were with him, I would certainly wash his feet. His dominion will very soon extend to this place beneath my feet."

Heraclius then asked for the letter sent to him by Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The letter went as follows: "In the name of Allah the most gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muhammad the Apostle of Allah to Heraclius the ruler of Byzantines. Peace be upon him, who follows the right path. Now and then: I invite you to embrace Islam, and if you become a Muslim you will be safe, and Allah will double your reward. But if you reject this invitation of Islam you will commit a sin by misguiding your subjects (of peasants)": "Say: O People of the Book come to common terms as between us and you: that we worship none but Allah; that we associate no partners with him; that we erect not, from among ourselves, lords and patrons other than Allah. If then they turn back, say ye: bear witness that we (at last) are Muslims (bowing to Allah's will)" (Al Imran 64).

Abu Sufyan then added: When Heraclius had finished reading the letter, there was a great noise and cry in the Royal Court. Therefore, he ordered that we should be turned out of the court. When we came out, I said to my companions: "Indeed, the case of Ibn Abu Kabsha (The Prophet Muhammad) has become so prominent that even the King of Banu Al-Asfar (Romans) is afraid of him." Then I started to become sure that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would be the conqueror in the near future until Allah guided me to embrace Islam.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab with the same chain of transmitters, in which he added: When Allah inflicted defeat upon the armies of Persia, Heraclius moved from Hims to Jerusalem thanking Allah Who granted him victory. It was also mentioned (in the letter of The Prophet): "From Muhammad, the slave of Allah and His Apostle"... "The sin of your followers"... "To the call of Islam".

[27] The letters sent by The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to the kings of the unbelievers, calling them to (believe in) Allah

75-(1774) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote (and sent letters) to Khosrau (the king of the Persians), Caesar (the emperor of Romans), the Negus (the king of Abyssinia) and every despot, calling them to (believe in) Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He". But that (Negus) was not the same Negus, on whom the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the funeral prayer (when he died).

[28] The holy battle of Hunain

76-(1775) Al-Abbas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the Day of (the holy battle of) Hunain. I and Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib stuck to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we did not separate from him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was riding on his white mule which had been presented to him by Farwa Ibn Nufatha Al-Judhami. When the Muslims faced the unbelievers, the Muslims fled away, turning back, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started spurring his mule towards the (direction of the) unbelievers. I was catching hold of the rein of the mule of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", keeping it from going very fast, while Abu Sufyan was catching hold of the stirrup of (the mule of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abbas! Call out to the people of (the huge tree of) Samura." Al-Abbas, who was a man of a loud voice, said: I called out at the top of my voice: "Where are the people of Samura?" By Allah! When they heard my voice, they came back (to us) just as cows come back to their calves, and said: "Here we are, responding to your call! Here we are, responding to your call!" Al-Abbas said: They started fighting the unbelievers. Then there was a call to The Ansar. Those (who called out to them) cried: "O community of the Ansar! O community of the Ansar!" Banu Al-Harith Ibn Al-Khazraj were the last to be called. Those (who called out to them) cried: "O Banu Al-Harith Ibn Al-Khazraj!"

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was riding on his mule looked at their fight with his neck stretched forward, and he said: "This is the time when the fight is raging hot." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took (some) pebbles, which he threw in the face of the unbelievers. Then he said: "By the Lord of Muhammad! The unbelievers have been defeated." He (Al-Abbas) further said: I went round and saw that the battle was in the same state in which I had seen it. But behold! By Allah! As soon as he had thrown them (the infidels) with those pebbles, I started to observe that their force had been spent out and they began to retreat.

- 77-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ma'mar, from Az-Zuhri, according to which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (after throwing the pebbles in the face of the infidels): "By the Lord of Ka'ba! They have been defeated." The following addition was made: Until Allah defeated them...as if I am seeing The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pursuing them on his mule.

- 78-(1776) Abu Ishaq narrated: A person said to Al-Bara (Ibn Azib): "O Abu Umara! Had you fled away on the Day of (the holy battle of) Hunain?" He replied: "No, by Allah! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not retreat. But, some hasty young men from his companions who were either improperly armed or were unarmed met a group of men who were (so excellent) archers that their arrows never missed the mark. Those men were from Banu Hawazin and Banu Nasr. They shot at them a volley of arrows that could hardly miss (their targets). The people turned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was riding on his white mule. Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib was leading his (mule). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got down, supplicated and invoked Allah's help. He said: "I am the Prophet! This is not a lie! I am the son of Abd Al-Muttalib!" Then he made them (the Muslims) align in battle array.

Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not flee. But, some hasty young men who were either improperly armed or were unarmed met a group of men from Banu Hawazin and Banu Nasr who were (excellent) archers. The latter shot at them a volley of arrows as much as lots of locusts, which did not miss (their targets). The people turned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith was leading his mule. He (The Prophet) got down, supplicated and invoked Allah's help. He said: "I am really The Prophet! This is not a lie! I am the son of Abd Al-Muttalib! O Allah! Send down Your help." Al-Bara resumed: When the battle grew fierce, we, by Allah, would seek protection by his side, and the bravest from amongst us was he who confronted the onslaught and he was The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

- 80-(...) Abu Ishaq reported: Al-Bara Ibn Azib "Allah be pleased with him" was asked by a man from Qais: "Did you flee leaving Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during the battle of Hunain?" Al-Bara replied: "But Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not flee. The people of the Tribe of Hawazin were good archers. When we met them, we attacked them, and they fled. When we turned over the war spoils (in order to collect them), they (the pagans) faced us with arrows, but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not flee. No doubt, I saw him on his white mule with Abu Sufyan Ibn Al-Harith holding its rein. He (The Prophet) was saying: "I am truly The Prophet; I am the son of Abd Al-Muttalib."

I held both of them, and went until I came upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", as defeated, while he was riding his white mule. Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Ibn Al-Akwa has seen something frightful." When they surrounded The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he dismounted from the mule and took a handful of dust from the earth, which he threw in the faces (of the enemy), and said: "Might the faces (of the unbelievers) be deformed!" There was no one Allah has created among them but his eyes were filled with dust, by virtue of that handful (of dust). The result was that they turned back fleeing. 82-(1778) Abdullah Ibn Amr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" besieged the people of Ta'if and could not conquer them, he said: "We will return (to Medina) If Allah wills." The Companions (of The Prophet) said: "Shall we go away without conquering it (The Fort of Ta'if)?" on that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to them): "(Let's go to) fight tomorrow." They fought and (many of them) got wounded, whereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We will return (to Medina) tomorrow if Allah wills." When Abu Bakr spoke, he (The Prophet) paid no attention to him, and when Umar spoke he also paid no attention to him. He (the narrator) added: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called upon the people (to go forth to Jihad). So they set out and encamped at Badr. Then, the water-carriers of Quraish arrived. There was among them a black slave belonging to Banu Al-Hajjaj. The Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught hold of him and asked him about Abu Sufvan and his companions. He said: "I know nothing about Abu Sufyan, but Abu Jahl, Utba, Shaiba and Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf are there." When he said this, they beat him. Then he said: "Well, I will tell you about Abu Sufyan." Whenever they stopped beating him and asked him (once again) about Abu Sufyan, he would say: "I know nothing about Abu Sufyan, but Abu Jahl. Utba, Shaiba and Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf are there." When he said this, they beat him again. At the same time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was standing in prayer. When he saw this he finished his prayer and said: "By Allah in Whose hand is my life! You beat him when he tells you the truth, and you let him when he tells you a lie."

He (the narrator) further said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is the very location where so-and-so (of the infidels of Quraish) would be killed." He put his hand on the ground (while saying) "here and here". Behold! None of them fell away from the very location to which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had referred by putting his hand on the ground.

[31] The conquest of Mecca

84-(1780) Abdullah Ibn Rabah narrated from Abu Huraira: Many delegates came to Mu'awiya during the month of Ramadan. We prepared food for one another. Abu Huraira was one of those who invited us to his house many times. I said: "Would I not prepare food and invite them to my dwelling place?" I ordered that food should be prepared. I met Abu Huraira in the evening and said: "(I invite you to come to) have your food with me tonight." He said: "You anticipated me." I said: "Yes, and I invited them." (When they came and finished having their meals) Abu Huraira said: "Would I not tell you a Hadith from your traditions, O community of Ansar?" He talked of the Conquest of Mecca saying:

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded until he reached Mecca. He placed Az-Zubair (as the leader of the force) on one wing and Khalid on the (force of the) other, and made Abu Ubaida lead the detachment that had no armours. They took their way

٣١ ـ باب فَتْح مَكَّة

٨٤ ـ (١٧٨٠) ـ حدّثنا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُغِيرَةِ: حَدَّثَنَا شَلَيْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُغِيرَةِ: عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. قَالَ: وَفَدَتْ وُفُودٌ حَدَّثَنَا ثَابِتُ الْبُنَانِيُّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ رَبَاحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. قَالَ: وَفَدَتْ وُفُودٌ إِلَىٰ مُعَاوِيَةَ. وَذٰلِكَ فِي رَمَضَانَ، فَكَانَ يَصْنَعُ بَعْضُنَا لِبَعْضِ الطَّعَامَ، فَكَانَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ مِمَّا يُكْثِرُ أَنْ يَدْعُونَا إِلَىٰ رَحْلِهِ. فَقُلْتُ: أَلاَ أَصْنَعُ طَعَاماً فَأَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَىٰ وَحْلِهِ. وَقُلْتُ: أَلاَ أَصْنَعُ طَعَاماً فَأَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَىٰ رَحْلِهِ. وَقُلْتُ: الدَّعُوةُ وَحَلِي؟ فَأَمَرْتُ بِطَعَامٍ يُصْنَعُ. ثُمَّ لَقِيتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ مِنَ الْعَشِيِّ. فَقُلْتُ: الدَّعُوةُ وَلَهُمْ. فَقَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: أَلاَ أَعْلِمُكُمْ عِنْدِي اللَّيْلَةَ. فَقَالَ: اسَبَقْتَنِي. قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ. فَلَعَوْتُهُمْ. فَقَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: أَلاَ أَعْلِمُكُمْ عِنْ حَدِيثٍ مِنْ حَدِيثٍ مِنْ حَدِيثٍ مِنْ حَدِيثٍ مَنْ مَلَالًا عَبَيْدَةً عَلَى الشَّيْرِةُ عَلَى المُجَنِّيَةِ وَقَالَ: أَقْبَلَ رَصُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ قَدِمَ مَكَّةً. فَبَعَثَ الزُّبَيْرَ عَلَى إِحْدَى الْمُجَنِّيْنِ وَبَعَثَ الْوَادِي. وَبَعَثَ الزُّبَيْرَ عَلَى الْحُسِّرِ، فَأَخَذُوا بَطْنَ الْوَادِي. خَالِداً عَلَى الْمُجَنِّيَةِ الأُخْرَىٰ. وَبَعَثَ أَبَا عُبَيْدَةً عَلَى الْحُسِّرِ، فَأَخَذُوا بَطْنَ الْوَادِي.

through the interior of the valley. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the midst of a large contingent of fighters. When he saw me he said: "O Abu Huraira!" I said: "I am here responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Let none except the Ansar come to me." (The narrators other than Shaiban added) "Call to me (only) the Ansar."

Abu Huraira resumed: So they gathered around him. Quraish also gathered their ruffians and their (lowly) followers, and said: "We shall send them forward. If they get anything, we shall be with them (to share it), and if they are befallen by anything, we shall pay (as remuneration) whatever we are required to pay." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the Ansar): "You see the ruffians and the (lowly) followers of Quraish." He hinted by (striking) one of his hands against the other that they should be killed and then he said: "Meet me at As-Safa." Then we went on. (At that time) if anyone of us wanted that a certain person should be killed, he would be killed, with no resistance.

Abu Huraira resumed: There came Abu Sufyan and said: "O Messenger of Allah! the blood of Quraish has been made lawful (to be shed). There will be no Quraish afterwards." Then he (The Prophet) said: "Who enters the house of Abu Sufyan will be safe." Some of the Ansar whispered among themselves: "It seems that he (The Prophet) has been overpowered by his inclination to his city (of Mecca) and tenderness towards his kith and kin." Abu Huraira added: (Just at this time) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was being Divinely revealed. However, whenever he started to be Divinely revealed, we would know that, and during the time of receiving it, none of us would dare raise his eyes towards The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" until this state of revelation was over.

When the state of revelation was over, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the Ansar): "O community of Ansar!" They said: "Here we are responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah!" He said: "You said that "It seems that he (The Prophet) has been overpowered by his inclination to his city (of Mecca) and tenderness towards his kith and kin." They said: "We said so." He said: "Well. I am Allah's slave and Messenger. I migrated to Allah and to you. I will live with you and will die with you." consequently, they (the Ansar) turned to وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي كَتِيبَةٍ. قَالَ: فَنَظَرَ فَرَآنِي. فَقَالَ: «أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ» قُلْتُ: لَبَيْكَ. يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ. فَقَالَ: «لا يَأْتِينِي إِلاَّ أَنْصَارِيٌّ».

زَادَ غَيْرُ شَيْبَانَ: فَقَالَ: «اهْتِفْ لِي بَالأَنْصَارِ» قَالَ: فَأَطَافُوا بِهِ. وَوَبَّشَتْ قُرَيْشٌ أَوْبَاشاً لَهَا وَأَتْبَاعاً. فَقالُوا: نُقدِّمُ هٰؤُلاءِ. فَإِنْ كَانَ لَهُمْ شَيْءٌ كُنَّا مَعَهُمْ. وَإِنْ أُصِيبُوا أَعْطَيْنَا الَّذِي سُئِلْنَا.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «تَرَوْنَ إِلَىٰ أَوْبَاشِ قُرَيْشٍ وَأَتْبَاعِهِمْ» ثُمَّ قَالَ بِيَدَيْهِ، إِحْدَاهُمَا عَلَى الأُخْرَى. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «حَتَّىٰ تُوَافُونِي بِالصَّفَا» قَالَ: فَانْطَلَقْنَا، فَمَا شَاءَ أَحَدٌ مِنْهُمْ يُوجِّهُ إِلَيْنَا شَيْنًا.

قَالَ: فَجَاءَ أَبُو سُفْيَانَ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أُبِيحَتْ خَضْرَاءُ قُرَيْشٍ. لاَ قُرَيْشَ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: «مَنْ دَخَلَ دَارَ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ فَهُوَ آمِنٌ» فَقَالَتِ الأَنْصَارُ، بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ: أَمَّا الرَّجُلُ فَأَدْرَكَتْهُ رَغْبَةٌ فِي قَرْيَتِهِ، وَرَأْفَةٌ بِعَشِيرَتِهِ.

قَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: وَجَاءَ الْوَحْيُ. وَكَانَ إِذَا جَاءَ الْوَحْيُ لاَ يَخْفَىٰ عَلَيْنَا، فَإِذَا جَاءَ فَلَيْسَ أَحَدٌ يَرْفَعُ طَرْفَهُ إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ ينْقَضِيَ الْوَحْيُ، فَلَمَّا انْقَضَى الْوَحْيُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: "يَا مَعْشَرَ الأَنْصَارِ. قَالُوا: لَبَيْكَ. يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ.

قَالَ: «قُلْتُمْ: أَمَّا الرَّجُلُ فَأَدْرَكَتْهُ رَغْبَةٌ فِي قَرْيَتِهِ». قَالُوا: قَدْ كَانَ ذَاكَ. قَالَ: «كَلاَّ، إِنِّي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولُهُ. هَاجَرْتُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَإِلَيْكُمْ. وَالْمَحْيَا مَحْيَاكُمْ. وَالْمَمَاتُ مَمَاتُكُمْ». فَأَقْبَلُوا إِلَيْهِ يَبْكُونَ وَيَقُولُونَ: واللَّهِ، مَا قُلْنَا الَّذِي قُلْنَا إِلاَّ الضِّنَّ بِاللَّهِ وَبِرَسُولِهِ.

فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ يُصَدِّقَانِكُمْ وَيَعْذِرَانِكُمْ» قَالَ: فَأَقْبَلَ

him in tears and they were saying: "By Allah, we said what we said because of our firm attachment to Allah and His Messenger." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah and His Messenger testify that you are true and accept your apology."

He (the narrator) further said: Some people turned to the house of Abu Sufyan and (some) people shut their doors. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" advanced until he approached the (Black) Stone. He kissed it and circumambulated Ka'ba. He reached near an idol beside Ka'ba, which was worshipped by the (unbelieving) people. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a bow in his hand, which he was holding from its crooked end. When he approached the idol, he started piercing its eyes (with the bow) while he was saying: "Truth has come and falsehood has perished." When he finished the circumambulation, he came to Safa, which he ascended to a height from where he could see Ka'ba. Then, he raised his hands and started praising Allah and supplicating what he wanted to supplicate.

- 85-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Al-Mughira, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he added: He (The Prophet) hinted (by striking) one of his hands against the other: "Kill them entirely." He also added: They (the Ansar) said: "We said so, O Messenger of Allah." Upon this he said: "Then, what is (the significance of) my name (as a Prophet, whose name is derived from the praise)? Nay! I'm Allah's slave and Messenger."
- 86-(...) Abdullah Ibn Rabah narrated: We came in delegates to Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan, and Abu Huraira was among us. Everyday, one of us used to prepare food for his companions. It was my turn when I said to Abu Huraira: "O Abu Huraira! It is my turn (to prepare meals for you, so come to have food with me)." They (my companions) came to the house, but the food had not been ready yet. I said: "O Abu Huraira! It'd be better to narrate to us about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till our food is ready."

Abu Huraira narrated: On the day of the Conquest (of Mecca), we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who made Khalid (Ibn Al-Walid) (as the leader of the force) on the right wing, and Az-Zubair (as the leader of the force) on the left wing, and appointed Abu Ubaida as the leader of the force (which had to proceed towards) the interior of the valley. He said to me: "O Abu Huraira! Call the Ansar to me." I called them and they came running. He said: "O community of Ansar! Do you see the ruffians and the (lowly) followers of Quraish?" they replied in the affirmative. He said: "Observe them, and if you find them tomorrow, you should kill them entirely." He hinted with his hand. Then, he placed his right (hand) on his left and said (to the detachment of Khalid Ibn Al-Walid): "Your appointment would be near (the mountain of) As-Safa."

He (the narrator) said: On that day, no one (from the infidels of Quraish) appeared to them but that they (killed him and) caused him to fall down. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came up (the mountain of) As-Safa. The Ansar came and stood by the side of As-Safa. Abu Sufyan came and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The (sanctity of) Quraish has been destroyed, and there will be no Quraish afterwards." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyan is safe, whoever lays down the arms is safe, and whoever (enters his house and) close the door is safe." The Ansar said: "As for him (The Prophet), he has been overtaken by his tenderness towards his clan, and his inclination to his city (of Mecca)." Then, the revelation was sent down upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said (to the Ansar): "You said (among yourselves): "As for him (The Prophet), he has been overtaken by his tenderness towards his clan, and his inclination to his city (of Mecca)." Then, what is (the significance of) my name (as a prophet whose name is derived from the praise)?" He said it thrice. "I am Allah's slave and Messenger. I migrated to Allah and to you. I will live with you and will die with you." They (the Ansar) said: "By Allah, we said what we said only because of our eager attachment to Allah and His Messenger." He said: "No doubt, Allah and His Messenger testify that you are true, and accept your apology."

[32] Removing the idols from around Ka'ba

87-(1781) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca, there were three hundred and sixty idols around the Ka'ba. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started striking them with a stick he had in his hand and was saying: "And say: truth has (now) arrived, and falsehood perished: for falsehood is (by its nature) bound to perish." (The Night Journey "Al-Isra" 81) and: "Say: The Truth has arrived, and Falsehood neither creates anything new, nor restores anything." (Saba (Sheba) 49). Ibn Abu Umar added in his narration: On the day of the Conquest.

[33] No Quraishi person would be killed as bound hand and foot after the Conquest (of Mecca)

88-(1782) Abdullah Ibn Muti narrated from his father: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying on the day of the Conquest (of Mecca): "No Quraishi person would be killed as bound hand and foot (i.e. as unbelievers because all of them would embrace Islam and would not renegade to apostasy as some others would do) from this day onto the Day of Judgement."

89-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zakariyya, with the same chain of transmitters, but with the following addition: At this time (when The Prophet said what he had said), no one from Quraish (whose names were) Asi (Disobedient) had embraced Islam except Muti (the narrator of the Hadith), whose name was (before Islam) Asi (Disobedient), but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed his name to Muti (Obedient, after embracing Islam).

[34] The treaty of Al-Hudaibiya

90-(1883) Abu Ishaq narrated: I heard Al-Bara Ibn Azib saying: Ali Ibn Abu Talib wrote the (document of the) treaty between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the infidels, on the day of Al-Hudaibiya. He wrote: "This is (the treaty) on which Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah..." they (the infidels) said: "Do nod write "The Messenger of Allah", for if we know that you are The Messenger of Allah, we will never fight against you." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Ali: "Erase that (phrase)." Ali said: "I'm not to erase it." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" erased it with his own hand. He (the narrator) added: From among the terms (of the treaty) they put the condition that they (the Muslims) should enter Mecca (for Umra in the coming year), where they would stay for only three (days), and that they should not enter but with their sheaths of swords.

Abu Ishaq narrated: I heard Al-Bara Ibn Azib saying: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a treaty with those (infidels) of Al-Hudaibiya, Ali wrote a document between them. He wrote: "From Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah..." and the rest is the same, without mentioning: "This is (the treaty) on which".

Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was prevented (to enter) the House, those (infidels) of Mecca concluded a peace treaty with him according to which he would enter Mecca and stay there for three days only (in the coming year), that he should not enter but with the sheaths containing the swords, that he should not get out accompanying anyone of its people, and that he should not prevent anyone of those who were with him to stay in it. He said to Ali: "Write the (document of) conditions between us: "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. This is the peace treaty, which Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah, concluded." The unbelievers (of Quraish) said (to The Prophet): "If we know that you are The Messenger of Allah, we surely would follow you, but write: "Muhammad, the son of Abdullah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Ali to erase that (phrase of "The Messenger of Allah)." Ali said: "No, by Allah, I am not to erase it." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Show me its location." He (Ali) showed him its place, where he erased it and wrote: "The son of Abdullah".

(In the following year The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca and) he stayed there three days. When it was the third day, they (the infidels of Mecca) said to Ali: "This is the last day (of stay) according to the treaty of your companion. So, tell him to go out." When he (Ali) told him of that, he (The Prophet) said: "Yes." Then, he went out.

93-(1784) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that (the people of) Quraish including Suhail Ibn Amr concluded a peace treaty with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Ali: "Write "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful."" On that Suhail said: "As for the Name of Allah, we do not know what is the significance of (the phrase) "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful." But, write what we know, i.e. "In the Name of You, O Allah."" He (The Prophet) said: "Write: "From Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah."" They (those of Quraish) said: "If we knew that you are The Messenger of Allah, surely, we should follow you. But write your name and the name of your father." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Write: "From Muhammad Ibn Abdullah.""

They agreed with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the condition that "If anyone of you (Muslims) came to us (in Mecca), we would not return him to you, but if anyone of us (the infidels) came to you (in Medina), you should return him to us." They (the Muslims) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we write that?" he said: "Yes, for whoever among us went to them, then, might Allah keep him away, and whoever among them came to us (and we returned him), then, might Allah relieve him and make for him a way of exit."

94-(1785) Abu Wa'il narrated: Sahl Ibn Hunaif got up on the day of (the battle of) Siffin and said: "O people! Blame yourselves! We were with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Al-Hudaibiya. If we had been called to fight, we would have fought. That was in the (year of the) peace treaty made between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the infidels (of Quraish). Umar Ibn Al-Khattab came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Aren't we on the right and our opponents on the wrong?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes." Umar said: "Aren't our killed persons in Paradise and theirs in Hell?" He said: "Yes." Umar said: "Then why should we accept hard terms in matters regarding our religion? Shall we return before Allah judges between us and them?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! I am the Apostle of Allah and Allah will never degrade me."

Then Umar returned angrily; and he could not keep patient until he met Abu Bakr and said to him: "O Abu Bakr! Aren't we on the right and our opponents on the wrong?" he said: "Yes." Umar said: "Aren't our killed persons in Paradise and theirs in Hell?" He said: "Yes." Umar said: "Then why should we accept hard terms in matters regarding our religion? Shall we return before Allah judges between us and them?" On that Abu Bakr said (to him): "O Ibn Al-Khattab! He is the Apostle of Allah and Allah will never degrade him." Then The Sura of The Victory "Al-Fath" was sent down to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who sent to Umar and made him recite it. Umar said to him: "Is that (peace treaty of Al-Hudaibiya) regarded as a victory?" he (The Prophet) replied in the affirmative. On that he (Umar) became pleased and then returned.

except that when I came out with my father Husail we were caught by the unbelievers of Quraish, who said: "Do you want to go to Muhammad?" We said: "We do not want to go to him, but we wish to go to Medina." They took from us a covenant in the name of God that we would go back to Medina and would not fight beside Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So, we came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and narrated that to him. He said: "You should proceed (to Medina). We will fulfill the covenant (you) made with them and seek for the help of Allah against them."

[36] The holy battle of the Confederates

99-(1788) Ibrahim At-Taimi narrated from his father: While we were with Hudhaifa, a man said: "Had I joined (the time of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would have fought on his side, and done my best (in order to support him)." On that Hudhaifa said: "Would you do that? No doubt, I saw us when we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the night of the (holy battle of the) Confederates, and we were overtaken by strong wind and severe cold. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him. He said: "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him. He said (for the third time): "Is there anyone to (go in order to reconnoiter and) bring me the news of the people (of the enemy), might Allah make him with me on the Day of Judgement?" we kept silent, and none of us replied to him.

Then, he said: "Stand up, O Hudhaifa and (go and detect the enemy and) bring us the news of the people." I could find no flee since he called me by my name. He said: "Go and bring me the news of the people, and do not prompt them against us." When I turned back from him, (I felt warm) as if I was walking in a heated bath. (When I reached the enemy) I found Abu Sufyan warming his back against fire. I put an arrow in the middle of the bow and intended to shoot him, but I mentioned the saying of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Do not prompt them against us", though if I had thrown him (with the arrow),

فَذَكَرْتُ قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «وَلاَ تَذْعَرْهُمْ عَلَيَّ» وَلَوْ رَمَيْتُهُ لأَصَبْتُهُ. فَرَجَعْتُ

surely, I would have killed him. I returned walking (and I felt warm as if I was walking) in a heated bath. When I came and related to him (The Prophet) the news of the people, I felt cold once again. So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrapped me in a surplus mantle, which was on him, while he was praying. I (slept and) kept asleep until it was morning, when he (The Prophet) said to me: "Get up, O sleeping so much."

[37] The holy battle of Uhud

100-(1789) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that during the holy battle of Uhud, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was surrounded (by the unbelievers) among seven of his companions from the Ansar and two from Quraish. When they (the unbelievers) overwhelmed him, he said: "Who would keep them away from us, and he would be admitted in Paradise (or he would be my companion in the Paradise)?" a man from the Ansar advanced and fought them until he was killed. When they (the unbelievers) overwhelmed him once again, he said: "Who would keep them away from us, and he would be admitted in Paradise (or he would be my companion in the Paradise)?" a man from the Ansar advanced and fought them until he was killed. It remained as such until all the seven (Ansari men) were killed. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, we have not been just to our companions (since we let them fight until they were killed without participating with them)."

101-(1790) Abu Hazim narrated that Sahl Ibn Sa'd had been asked about the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: His face was wounded, his canine tooth got broken, and the helmet was broken on his head. Fatima, the daughter of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" washed the injuries, and Ali Ibn Abu Talib poured water from a shield. When Fatima saw that the water did but aggravated the bleeding, she took a piece of a mat, which she burnt, and inserted its ashes into the wound. In this way, the blood was congealed (with the result that bleeding stopped).

102-(...) Abu Hazim narrated that Sahl Ibn Sa'd had been asked about the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "By Allah, I know who washed the injuries of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and who poured water (for washing them), as well as I know with what he was treated...and the rest is the same.

وَأَنَا أَمْشِي فِي مِثْلِ الْحَمَّامِ، فَلَمَّا أَتَيْتُهُ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ، وَفَرَغْتُ، قُرِرْتُ. فَأَلْبَسَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنْ فَضْلِ عَبَاءَةٍ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ يُصَلِّي فِيهَا. فَلَمْ أَزَلْ نَائِماً حَتَّىٰ أَصْبَحْتُ. فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحْتُ قَالَ: «قُمْ، يَا نَوْمَانُ».

103-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abu Hazim from Sahl Ibn Sa'd, through another chain of transmitters, and with a slight variation of words.

104-(1791) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, the canine tooth of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was broken, and he was wounded in his head. He started wiping the blood off him saying: "How could a people be prosperous since they wounded their Prophet, broke his canine tooth while he was calling them to (believe in) Allah?" on that Allah sent down: "Not for thee, (but for Allah), is the decision: whether he turns in mercy to them, or punishes them; for they are indeed wrongdoers." (Al Imran 128)

105-(1792) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: As if I was seeing The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" like a Prophet from among the Prophets, whose people had hit him, while he was wiping the blood off his face and saying: "O my Lord! Forgive for my nation for they know nothing."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he mentioned: "While he was removing the blood from his forehead."

[38] The severe anger of Allah with those (unbelievers) killed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

106-(1793) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (pointing to his broken canine tooth) said: "Allah's Wrath has become severe on the people who harm their Prophet. Allah's Wrath has become severe on the man who is killed by the Apostle of Allah in Allah's Cause."

[39] The hurt received by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the unbelievers and the hypocrites

107-(1794) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering prayer near the House. Abu Jahl (Father of Ignorance) was sitting with some of his companions. At the same time, there was (the abdominal contents of) a camel, which was slaughtered a day earlier. Abu Jahl said to the others: "Who amongst you will bring the abdominal contents (intestines, etc.) Of a camel of Banu (sons of) so and so and put it on the shoulders of Muhammad, when he prostrates?" The most unfortunate of them got up and brought it, and when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrated he placed it between his shoulders. Then, they started laughing and falling on one another.

I was standing and watching but could do nothing. Had I had some people to protect me, I would have lifted it from the back of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in prostration and he did not lift his head until somebody went and told Fatima (The Prophet's daughter) who came, and she was still a young girl, and threw that (camel's Abdominal contents) away from his back. Then, she went to them and insulted them. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished his prayer, he raised his voice and invoked evil against them. However, it was his habit that if he invoked for something, he would invoke thrice, and if he asked for something, he would ask thrice.

He said thrice: "O Allah! Punish Quraish." When they heard his voice (invoking evil against them), they stopped laughing, and were frightened of his invocation (against them, in view of the fact that they had a conviction that the prayers and invocations were accepted in this town of Mecca). He (The Prophet)said: "O Allah! Punish Abu Jahl, Utba Ibn Rabie'a, Shaiba Ibn Rabie'a, Al-Walid Ibn Utba, Umaiyya Ibn Khalaf, and Uqba Ibn Abu Mu'ait." He mentioned the seventh whose name I cannot recall. By Him, Who has sent Muhammad with the truth, I saw all of those persons who were counted by him (Allah's Apostle) dead on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, and then they were dragged into the Qalib (one of the wells) of Badr.

108-(...) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was prostrating (as he was performing prayer near Ka'ba), there were some people from Quraish (sitting in a gathering) around him. Then, Uqba Ibn Abu Mu'ait (got up and) brought the abdominal contents of a (slaughtered) camel, which he threw over the back of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who did not raise his head. Then Fatima (The Prophet's daughter) came and threw them away from him, and she invoked evil against the one who did so. He (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Destroy (the pagans of) Quraish: Abu Jahl Ibn Hisham, Utba Ibn Rabie'a,

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Your tribe troubled me a lot, and the worst trouble was that on the day of Agaba when I presented myself to Ibn Abd Yalil Ibn Abd Kulal and he did not respond to my demand. So I departed, overwhelmed with excessive sorrow, and proceeded on, and could not be conscious till I found myself at Qarn Ath-Tha'alib where I lifted my head towards the sky to see a cloud shading me unexpectedly. I looked up and saw Gabriel in it. He called me saying: "Allah has heard your people's saying to you, and what they have replied back to you. containing people of different religions: there were Muslims, pagans, idol-worshippers and Jews, including Abdullah Ibn Ubai, and in that gathering Abdullah Ibn Rawaha was also present. When a cloud of dust raised by the donkey reached that gathering, Abdullah Ibn Ubai covered his nose with his garment and then said: "Do not cover us with dust." Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" greeted them, stopped, dismounted, and invited them to (believe in) Allah (To embrace Islam) and recited to them the Holy Qur'an. On that, Abdullah Ibn Ubai said: "O man! There is nothing better than that, which you say. If it is the truth, then do not trouble us with it in our gatherings. Return to your mount and if somebody comes to you, relate (your tales) to him." On that Abdullah Ibn Rawaha said: "Well! Bring it (What you want to say) to us in our gathering, for we love that."

So the Muslims, the pagans and the Jews started abusing one another till they were on the point of fighting with one another. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept on quietening them till they became calm, whereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode his mount and proceeded till he entered upon Sa'd Ibn Ubada. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Sa'd: "O Sa'd! Did not you hear what Abu Hubab said?" He meant Abdullah Ibn Ubai. "He said so-and-so." On that Sa'd Ibn Ubada said: "O Allah's Apostle! Excuse and forgive him, for by Allah, Allah gave you the truth with which He sent you at the time when the people of this town (Medina) had decided unanimously to crown him and tie a turban on his head (as chief). But when Allah opposed that (decision) through the Truth that Allah gave to you, he (Abdullah Ibn Ubai) was grieved with jealousy. That caused him to do what you have seen." So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" excused him.

- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with the same chain of transmitters, and added here: "And that was before Abdullah (Ibn Ubai) embraced Islam."
- 117-(1799) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It was said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Would that you see Abdullah Ibn Ubai." So, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to him, riding a donkey, with the Muslims accompanying him, walking on salty barren land. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Abdullah Ibn Ubai, the latter said: "Keep away from me! By Allah, the bad smell of your donkey has harmed me." On that an Ansari man said (to Abdullah): "By Allah! The smell of the donkey of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is better than your smell." On that a man from Abdullah's tribe got angry for Abdullah's sake, and the two men abused each other which caused the companions of the two men to get angry. The two groups started fighting with sticks, shoes and hands. We were informed that the following Divine Verse was revealed (on this occasion): "If two parties among the Believers fall into a quarrel, make ye peace between them: but if one of them transgresses beyond bounds against the other, then fight ye (all) against the one that transgresses until it complies with the command of Allah; but if it complies, then make peace between them with justice, and be fair: for Allah loves those who are fair (and just)." [41] Killing Abu Jahl

118-(1800) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who will go and see what has happened to Abu Jahl?" Ibn Mas'ud went and found that the two sons of Afra had struck him to death (and he was in his last breaths). Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud took hold of him by the beard and said: "Are you Abu Jahl?" Abu Jahl said: "Can there be a man superior to one whom you have killed or one whom his own folk have killed?" Abu Mijlaz added: Abu Jahl said: "But, if somebody other than farmers killed me (it would be dearer to me)."

119-(1801) Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who is willing to kill Ka'b Ibn Al-Ashraf who has hurt Allah and His Apostle?" Thereupon Muhammad Ibn Maslama got up saying: "O Allah's Apostle! Would you like that I kill him?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes." Muhammad Ibn Maslama said: "Then allow me to say a (false) thing (in order To deceive Ka'b). "The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You may say it." Then Muhammad Ibn Maslama went to Ka'b and spoke to him, mentioning what

Muhammad Ibn Maslama said: "Now as we have followed him, we do not want to leave him until we see how his end is going to be. Now we want you to lend us something." Ka'b said: "Yes, (I will), but what should you mortgage to me?"

Muhammad Ibn Maslama said: "What do you want?" Ka'b replied: "Mortgage your women to me." He said: "How can we mortgage our women to you and you are the most generous of the Arabs?" Ka'b said: "Then mortgage your sons to me." He said: "How can we mortgage our sons to you? Later they would be abused by the people's saying that so-and-so was mortgaged for one or two Wasaqs of dates (and that would cause us great disgrace). But we will mortgage our arms to you." He said: "Well (it is alright)." He (Muhammad Ibn Maslama) promised Ka'b that Muhammad would return to him, in the company of Al-Harith, Abu Abs Ibn Jabr and Abbad Ibn Bishr.

Then, they came to him, and invited him and he came down to them at night. His wife said: "I hear a voice as if blood is dropping from it." Ka'b said: "They are none but Muhammad Ibn Maslama and his foster brother and Abu Na'ila. A generous man should respond to a call at night even if he was invited to be killed." Muhammad Ibn Maslama said to his companions: "When he (Ka'b) comes, I will stretch my hand to his head, and when I get a strong hold of his head, then, get at him." Ka'b Ibn Al-Ashraf came down to them wrapped in his clothes (and diffusing perfume). They said: "We detect the smell of perfume on you." Ka'b replied: "I have got so-and-so, the best Arab woman who know how to use the high class of perfume." He (Muhammad Ibn Maslama) requested Ka'b: "Will you allow me to smell your head?" Ka'b said: "Yes, you might smell." Muhammad smelt it. Then he requested Ka'b again: "Will you allow me (to smell your head once again)?" Ka'b said: "Yes." When Muhammad got a strong hold of him, he said (to his companions): "Get at him!" So they killed him.

١٢٠ ـ (١٣٦٥) ـ وحدّثني زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبِ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ عُلَيَّةَ ـ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ بْنِ صُهَيْبٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ؟ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ غَزَا خَيْبَرَ. قَالَ: فَصَلَّيْنَا عِنْدَهَا صَلاَةَ الْغَدَاةِ بِغَلَسٍ. فَرَكِبَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ. وَرَكِبَ أَبُو طَلْحَةَ، وَأَنَا

and peace be upon him" passed through the lane of Khaibar quickly and my knee was touching the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He uncovered his thigh and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When he entered the town, he said: "Allah is greater! Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned." He repeated this thrice. The people came out for their jobs and some of them said: "Muhammad (has come)." (Some of our companions added, "With his army.") We then conquered it.

- 121-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, I was riding behind Abu Talha and my foot was touching the foot of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". We came to them (the people of Khaibar) just when the sun has appeared. They (the inhabitants of Khaibar) brought out their cattle and sheep, and they came out with their axes, baskets and spades. (When they saw the Prophet) they said: "Muhammad and the army!" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Khaibar has been ruined. Whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight), then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned." Then, they (the people of Khaibar) were defeated by (virtue of) Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He".
- 122-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Khaibar, he said: "Whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight), then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned."
- 123-(1802) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We went out to Khaibar in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". While we were proceeding at night, a man from the group said to Amir Ibn Al-Akwa: "O Amir! Won't you let us hear your poetry?" Amir was a poet, so he got down and started reciting for the people poetry that kept pace with the camels' footsteps, saying: "O Allah! Without you we would not have been guided on the right path, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed. So please forgive us, what we have committed (Our flaws); let all of us Be sacrificed for Your Cause; make our feet firm When we meet our enemy, And send calmness Upon us; and If they call us towards An unjust thing, We will refuse. The infidels have made a hue and Cry to ask others help against us."

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who is that (camel) driver (reciting poetry)?" The people said: "He is Amir Ibn Al-Akwa." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "May Allah bestow His Mercy on him." A man amongst the people said: "O Allah's Prophet! It (martyrdom) has been affirmed to him. Would that you let us enjoy his company longer!" Then we reached and besieged Khaibar till we were afflicted with severe hunger. Then he (The Prophet) said: "No doubt, Allah enabled you to conquer it (Khaibar)." In the evening of the day of the conquest of the city, the Muslims made huge fires. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What are these fires? For what (kind of) cooking are you making the fire?" The people replied: "Meat." He asked: "What kind of meat?" They said: "The meat of donkeys." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Throw away the meat and break the pots." A man said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall we throw away the meat and wash the pots instead?" He said: "(Yes, you can do) that too."

When the army rows lined up for the clash, Amir's sword was short. When he aimed at the leg of a Jew to strike it, the sharp blade of the sword returned to him and injured his own knee, which caused him to die. When they returned from the battle of Khaibar (Salama, the narrator, was catching hold of my hand), and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw me silent, he said: "What is troubling you?" I replied: "Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! The people say that the deeds of Amir are lost." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who said so?" I said: "So-and-so, so-and-so, and Usaid Ibn Hudair Al-Ansari." Upon this he said: "Whoever says so, is mistaken, for Amir has got a double reward." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his two fingers and added: "He (Amir) was a persistent struggler in the Cause of Allah; and there is only a few Arabs who did (such good deeds) as he (Amir) had done."

124-(...) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When it was the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, my brother Amir fought fiercely beside The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" before (the sharp blade of) his sword returned to him and then killed him. Upon this the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spoke about his death, and doubted (whether it was martyrdom, saying): "A man killed by his weapon." In this way, they had doubt in some of his affairs.

Salama added: Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from (the battle of) Khaibar. I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Allow me to recite some poetic verses to you." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allowed him. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: "I know what you are going to recite." I recited: "By Allah! Without Allah we would not have been guided on the right path, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have told the truth." (Salama resumed): "Send calmness Upon us, and make our feet firm When we meet our enemy. No doubt, the infidels have rebelled against us."

He (Salama) resumed: When I finished my poetic verses, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "Who said this poetry?" I said: "My brother." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Might Allah bestow His mercy upon him." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! There are some people who are reluctant to offer the funeral prayer for him, saying that he was a man, who was killed by his weapon." He said: "He (was martyred and) died as a persistent struggler (in Allah's cause)." Ibn Shihab said: I asked one of the sons of Salama Ibn Al-Akwa about that, and he narrated to me a similar Hadith except that he said: When I said that some people were reluctant in offering the funeral prayer for him, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They are mistaken. He (Amir) died as a persistent struggler (in Allah's cause), for whom there will be a double reward." He indicated to that by raising his two fingers together.

[44] The holy battle of the Confederates (or the Ditch)

125-(1803) Al-Bara "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of Al-Ahzab (The Confederates) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to carry earth with us, and the earth was covering the whiteness of his Abdomen. He was reciting: "By Allah! Without You we would have got no guidance, nor given in charity, nor prayed. So please bless us with tranquility and make firm our feet when we meet our enemies. Indeed (those) people (or perhaps he said: the chieftains (of the tribes)) have refused to follow us (in accepting Islam); but never shall we give in if they try to bring affliction upon us." He used to raise his voice (while reciting that).

of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf met me (on the way) and said: "The milch shecamels of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been taken away by force." I asked: "Who had taken them?" He replied: "(Those of) Ghatafan." I made three loud cries (to people of Medina) saying: "Come for help!" I made the people between the two huge rocks of Medina hear me.

Then I rushed onward and caught up with the robbers while they were watering the camels. I started throwing arrows at them as I was a good archer and I was saying: "I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today there will perish the wicked people." I kept on saying like that till I restored the shecamels (of The Prophet). I also snatched thirty Burdas (Garments) from them. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the other people came there, and I said: "O Allah's Prophet! I have stopped the people (of Ghatafan) from taking water and they are thirsty now. So send (some people) after them now." On that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O son of Al-Akwa! You have overpowered them, so forgive them." Then we all came back and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seated me behind him on his she-camel till we entered Medina.

132-(1807) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father: We reached Al-Hudaibiya with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we were fourteen hundred in number. There were fifty goats for them, which could not be watered (in view of the shortage of water in the well). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat on the edge of the well. Either he supplicated (Allah) or spat into the well after which The water gushed. We drank and watered (the animals). Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called us to take the oath of fealty, as he was sitting at the base of a tree. I was the first man to take such an oath. Then other people took the oath. When half the people did so, he said to me: "Come to take the oath of fealty O Salama!" I said: "I was among the people who took the oath earlier." He said: "(You may do it) once again."

Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw that I had no arms. He gave me a big or a small shield. Then he resumed accepting oaths of fealty from the people until it was the last group of them when he said (to me): "Won't you swear fealty, O Salama?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I took the oath with the first group of the people and then (I swore fealty) once again in the middle of the people." He said: "(You may do so) again." In this way, I took the oath of fealty thrice. Then he said to me: "O Salama! Where is the shield I gave to you?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My uncle Amir met me and he had no weapons. So I gave the shield to him." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed and said: "You are like a person belonging to the ancient days who said: O Allah! I seek a friend who is dearer to me than myself." (When all the Companions had sworn fealty to The Prophet), the polytheists sent messages of peace, until people were able to move from one camp to the other. At last, the peace treaty was concluded.

I was a dependant of Talha Ibn Ubaidullah. I used to water his horse and rub its back. I also used to serve Talha (by doing many jobs for him) and eat from his food. I had left my family and my property as an emigrant in the cause of Allah and His Messenger. When we and the people of Mecca had concluded a peace treaty and the people of one side started mixing with those of the other, I came to a tree, swept away its thorns and lay down (in order to take rest) at its base. At the same time, four polytheists from the Meccans came to me and began to talk badly about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I became angry with them and moved to another tree. They hung their arms (to the tree) and lay down (in order to take rest).

Meanwhile, somebody from the lower part of the valley cried out: "Run up, O Emigrants! Ibn Zunaim has been murdered." I drew my sword and attacked those four while they were asleep. I seized their arms, which I gathered them in my hand and said: "By the One Who has bestowed honour upon Muhammad, none of you shall raise his head, else I will cut his face." I came driving them to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (At the same time) my uncle Amir came (to him) driving a man from Abalat called Mikraz. Amir was dragging him on a horse with a thick covering on its back along with seventy polytheists. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cast a glance at them and said: "Let them go so as to prove guilty of breach more than once (before we punish them)." In this way, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forgave them. It was on this occasion that Allah revealed the following verse: "And it is He Who has restrained their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Mecca, after that He

And Allah sees well all that ye do." (The Victory "Al-Fath" 24)

Then we proceeded returning to Medina, and halted at a place where there was a mountain between us and Banu Lihyan who were polytheists. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for Allah's forgiveness for one who would come up the mountain at night to act as a reconnoiterer for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions. I came up (that mountain) twice or thrice that night. Then, we arrived in Medina. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent his camels with his slave, Rabah, and I was with him. I went to the pasture with the horse of Talha along with the camels.

When it was the morning, Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Fazari raided and drove away all the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and killed their shepherd. I said: "O Rabah! Ride this horse, convey it to Talha Ibn Ubaidullah and Inform The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that the polytheists have raided on his camels." Then I stood upon a hillock, faced Medina, and cried out thrice: "Come to help!" I set out in pursuit of the raiders, shooting at them with arrows and reciting: "I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today is the day of defeat for the wicked people." I would overtake a man from them, shoot at him an arrow, which, piercing through the saddle, would reach his shoulder. I would say: "Take it, and I am the son of Al-Akwa, and today is the day of defeat for the wicked people."

By Allah! I continued shooting at them and hamstringing their animals. Whenever a horseman turned upon me, I would come to a tree and (hid myself) sitting at its base. Then I would shoot at him and hamstring his horse. Then, they entered a narrow mountain defile. I came up that mountain and held them at bay, throwing stones at them. I continued pursuing them in this way until I released all the camels of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and no camel was left with them. They left me. Then I followed them shooting at them until they dropped more than thirty garments and thirty lances, in order to lighten their burden. There was nothing they dropped except that I put a mark using (a piece of) stone so that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions would recognize it (as booty).

(They proceeded) until They came to a narrow valley when so and so, son of Badr Al-Fazari joined them. They sat down to take their breakfast and I sat on the top of a tapering rock. Al-Fazari said: "Who is that person I am seeing?" They said: "This person has disturbed us. By God, he has not left us as of the dusk and has been shooting at us until he has seized everything from our hands." He said: "Let four of you get at him (and then kill him)." Four of them ascended the mountain and advanced towards me. When I was able to talk to them, I said: "Do you recognize me?" They said: "No. Who are you?" I said: "I am Salama Ibn Al-Akwa'. By the One Who has honoured the face of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" I can kill whomever I like of you but none of you will be able to kill me." One of them said: "I think so." So they returned.

I did not move from my place until I saw the horsemen of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who came riding through the trees. behold! the first of them was Al-Akhram Al-Asadi. Behind him was Abu Ouatada Al-Ansari and behind him was Al-Migdad Ibn Al-Aswad Al-Kindi. I caught hold of the rein of Al-Akhram's horse (When the raiders saw this), they fled away. I said (to Al-Akhram): "O Akhram! Protect yourself against them until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions join you." He said: "O Salama! If you believe In Allah and the Day of Judgment and (if) you know that Paradise is a reality and Hell is a reality, you should not stand between me and martyrdom." I let him go. Al-Akhram and Abd Ar-Rahman (Al-Fazari) fought each other. Al-Akhram hamstrung Abd Ar-Rahman's horse and the latter struck him to death. Abd Ar-Rahman turned and rode Al-Akhram's horse. Abu Quatada, a horseman of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", overtook Abd Ar-Rahman and struck him to death

By the One Who honoured the face of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I pursued them running on foot (so fast) that I couldn't see behind me the Companions of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor could I observe any dust raised by their horses. (I kept pursuing them) until before sunset they reached a valley, which had a spring of water, which was called Dhu-Qarad, so that they could drink, for they were thirsty. They saw me running towards them. I drove them away from the valley before they could get a single drop of its water. They left the valley and ran down a slope. I ran (behind them), overtook a man from them, shot him with an arrow through the shoulder blade and said: "Take this and I am the son of Al-Akwa'; and today is the day of the defeat for the wicked people." The man said: "May his mother be bereaved of him! Are you Al-Akwa who has been pursuing us since morning?" I said: "Yes, O enemy of yourself, (I'm) the same Akwa."

They left two horses dead tired on the hillock, which I came dragging to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I met Amir who had with him a container having milk and a container having water. I performed ablution with the water and drank the milk. Then I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at the (same spring of) water from which I had driven them away. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had captured those camels and everything else I had captured and all the lances and garments I had seized from the polytheists. At the same time, Bilal had slaughtered a she-camel from the camels I had seized from the people, and was roasting its liver and hump for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let me choose from our people one hundred men in order that I would follow those raiders and I would destroy all of them to the extent that nobody would be left to report the news (of their destruction to their people)." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed so much that his premolar teeth could be visible in the light of the fire. Then he said: "O Salama! Do you think you can do this?" I said: "Yes, by the One Who has dignified you." He said: "Now they have reached the land of Ghatafan." Meanwhile, a man from the (tribe of) Ghatafan came and said: "So and so slaughtered a camel for them. When they exposed its skin, they saw dust (being raised far off). They said: "They (Al-Akwa and his companions) are coming." So they fled away.

When it was morning, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our best horseman today is Abu Quatada, and our best footman today is Salama." Then he gave me two shares of the booty: the share of a horseman and the share of a footman. He combined both of them for me. When he intended to return to Medina, he made me ride behind him on his she-camel called Al-Atba. While we were proceeding, a man from the Ansar who could not be defeated in a race said: "Is there anyone who could compete (with me) in race to Medina? Is there any competitor?" He kept repeating it. When I heard his talk, I said: "Don't خُذْهَا وَأَنَا ابْنُ الأَكْوَعِ. وَالْيَوْمُ يَوْمُ الرُّضَعِ. قَالَ: يَا ثَكِلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ، أَكْوَعُهُ بُكْرَةَ. قَالَ: قَالَ: نَعَمْ. يَا عَدُوَّ نَفْسِهِ، أَكْوَعُكَ بُكْرَةَ.

قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، خَلِّنِي فَأَنْتَخِبُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِئَةَ رَجُلٍ. فَأَتَّبِعَ الْقَوْمَ فَلاَ يَبْقَىٰ مِنْهُمْ مُخْبِرٌ إِلاَّ قَتَلْتُهُ. قَالَ: فَضَحِكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْ حَتَّىٰ بَدَتْ نَوَاجِذُهُ فِي ضَوْءِ النَّارِ. فَقَالَ: «يَا سَلَمَةُ، أَتُرَاكَ كُنْتَ فَاعِلاً؟» قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ. وَالَّذِي أَكْرَمَكَ. فَقَالَ: «إِنَّهُمُ الآنَ لَيُقْرَوْنَ فِي أَرْضِ غَطَفَانَ». قَالَ: فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ غَطَفَانَ. فَقَالَ: نَحَرَ لَهُمْ فُلاَنٌ جَزُوراً. فَلَمَّا كَشَفُوا جِلْدَهَا رَأُوا غُبَاراً. فَقَالُوا: أَتَاكُمُ الْقَوْمُ. فَخَرَجُوا هَارِبِينَ. فَلَانٌ جَزُوراً. فَلَمَّا كَشُفُوا جِلْدَهَا رَأُوا غُبَاراً. فَقَالُوا: أَتَاكُمُ الْقَوْمُ. فَخَرَجُوا هَارِبِينَ. فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحْنَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «كَانَ خَيْرَ فُرْسَانِنَا الْيَوْمَ أَبُو قَتَادَةَ. وَخَيْرَ رَجَّالَتِنَا سَلَمَةً».

قَالَ: ثُمَّ أَعْطَانِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ سَهْمَيْنِ: سَهْمُ الْفَارِسِ وَسَهْمَ الرَّاجِلِ. فَجَمَعَهُمَا لِي جَمِيعاً. ثُمَّ أَرْدَفَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَرَاءَهُ عَلَى الْعَضْبَاءِ. رَاجِعِينَ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ. قَالَ: فَبَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ نَسِيرُ. قَالَ: وَكَانَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ لاَ يُسْبَقُ شَدًّا، قَالَ: فَكَانَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ لاَ يُسْبَقُ شَدًّا، قَالَ: فَكَانَ مَجُعَلَ يَقُولُ: أَلاَ مُسَابِقٌ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ؟ هَلْ مِنْ مُسَابِقٍ؟ فَجَعَلَ يُعِيدُ ذٰلِكَ. قَالَ: فَلَمَّا سَمِعْتُ كَلاَمَهُ قُلْتُ: أَمَا تُكْرِمُ كَرِيماً. وَلاَ تَهَابُ شَرِيفاً؟

you have any regard to a dignified person or respect for a noble man?" He said: "No, unless he is The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! May my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Let me get down so that I may defeat this man." He said: "If you wish (you can do)."

I said (to the man): "I am coming to you." I turned my feet, sprang up. I gasped (for a while) when one or two elevated places were left and then followed his heel and again gasped (for a while) when one or two elevated places were left and again rushed until I joined him and gave him a blow between his shoulders. I said: "You have been defeated, by Allah." He said: "I think so." In this way, I reached Medina before him. By Allah! we had stayed there no more than three nights when we set out (in an expedition) to Khaibar with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (On the way) my uncle Amir started reciting the following poetic verses for the people: "By Allah! Without Allah (Who has guided us aright) we would have got no guidance, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed. We could do nothing without Your favour. So please make firm our feet when we meet our enemies, and bless us with tranquility." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who is this?" Amir said: "it is Amir." He said: "May your Lord forgive you!" he (the narrator) said: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked forgiveness for a particular person, surely he would receive martyrdom. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab who was riding on his camel called out: "O Prophet of Allah! Would that you allowed us to enjoy of Amir."

He (the narrator) resumed: When we reached Khaibar, its king Marhab proceeded showing off with his sword and chanting: "Khaibar knows that I am Marhab, who is A fully armed well-tried warrior, when the war comes spreading its flames." My uncle Amir appeared to combat with him, saying: "Khaibar knows that I am Amir, a fully armed experienced person who plunges into wars." They exchanged two strikes. Marhab's sword struck the shield of Amir who bent to attack his opponent from below, but his sword returned against him and cut his medial arm vein, which caused him to die.

He added: I came out and heard some people among the Companions of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Amir's deeds have been lost since he killed himself." I came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" weeping and I said: "O

Messenger of Allah! Amir's deeds have been lost." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who said this?" I said: "Some of your Companions." He said: "He has told a lie who said so. No doubt, Amir would receive a double reward."

Then he sent me to Ali who was suffering from sore eyes, and said: "I will give the banner to a man who loves Allah and His Messenger or whom Allah and His Messenger love." I went to Ali, brought him, and I was leading him for he had sore eyes until I took him to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who applied his saliva to his eyes and he recovered. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him the banner (and Ali went to combat Marhab). Marhab proceeded chanting: "Khaibar knows that I am Marhab, who is a fully armed well-tried warrior, when war comes spreading its flames." Ali chanted in reply: "I am the one whose mother named him Haidar (one of the names given to the lion), (who is) like a lion of a forest with a terror-striking face. I give my opponents the measure of Sandara in exchange for Sa (i.e. return their attack with one that is much stronger)." He (the narrator) added: Ali struck the head of Marhab and killed him, and the victory (conquest of Khaibar) was at his hands.

This long Hadith was narrated Through a different chain of transmitters.

133-(1808) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that eighty Persons from the people of Mecca came down upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the mountain of Tan'im. They were armed and they wanted to attack the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions who were not ready. He (The Prophet) captured them but spared their lives. [47] The women's taking part with men in the holy battles of (the holy battle of) Hunain Umm Sulaim took out a dagger she had. Abu Talha saw her and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This is Umm Sulaim. She is holding a dagger." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked (her): "Why are you holding this dagger?" She said: "I took it so that I may split open the belly of any unbeliever who comes near me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Kill those people-other than uswhom you set free (on the day of the Conquest of Mecca). They were defeated from you (and left you alone in the battlefield, because their Islam has not been reliable)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Sulaim! Allah is sufficient (against the enemies) and He has done well to us."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ishaq Ibn Abdullah Ibn Abu Talha from Anas "Allah be pleased with him".

135-(1810) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to let Umm Sulaim and some other women of the Ansar accompany him when he went forth to Jihad. They would provide (the soldiers) with water and treat the wounded people.

136-(1811) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the Day of (the holy battle of) Uhud some people, being defeated, left the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but Abu Talha stood before him covering him with a shield. Abu Talha was a skillful archer. He broke two or three bows on that day. Whenever a man passed by carrying a quiver of arrows, he (The Messenger of Allah) would say: "Spare them for Abu Talha." Whenever the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his head to look at the people, Abu Talha would say: "O Prophet of Allah! may my father and my mother sacrifice their lives for you! Do not raise your head lest you would be struck with an arrow shot by the enemy. Let my neck be before your neck." He (the narrator) said: I saw A'isha Bint Abu Bakr and Umm Sulaim. Both of them had tucked up their garments, to the extent that the anklets on their feet were visible. They were carrying water-skins on their backs in order to pour water into the mouths of the people. They would return (to the well), fill them again and then come back to pour water into the mouths of the people. The sword of Abu Talha fell down from his hand twice or thrice because of drowsiness.

[48] Women participants in jihad might be given something (from the booty) but not a regular share, and prohibition of killing children of the enemy during the war

137-(1812) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas to tell him about five things. Ibn Abbas said: "Had it not been for (fear that it might be said that) I conceal knowledge, I would not have written anything to him." Najda wrote to him: "Now and then: tell me whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to accompany the women in his holy battles, and whether he would fix shares for them from the war booty. (Tell me also) whether he used to kill the children in the war, and when the (time of the) orphanhood should end up. (Inform me) of the one-fifth of the war spoils: for whom it should be given)."

Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" wrote (in reply) to him: "You wrote to me asking whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to accompany the women in his holy battles; and, no doubt, he allowed them to come with him in order that they should treat the wounded persons, and they would get something from the booty, but he (The Prophet) did not fix certain shares for them (as those of the fighters). Moreover, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill the children (in wars), so, do not kill them. You also wrote to me asking about the period at which the orphanhood should end up. By my life! if a man has become bearded but is still incapable of getting his rights from others as well as fulfilling his obligations towards them, (he would be treated as an orphan), but when he can look after his interests like grown-up people, he is no longer an orphan. You wrote to me asking about the one-fifth (of the booty) as to whom it should be given. We (the kinsmen of The Prophet) thought that it would be given to us, but those people (of Umayyads) denied it to us."

138-(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz reported that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas, asking him about many things...and the rest is the same, with the following addition: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill the children in the wars, so, do not kill them, unless you know about them what Al-Khadir knew about the child he had killed." It was also added: "Moreover, you should be able to distinguish the believer from the unbeliever, in order that you would kill the unbeliever and let the believer."

- (...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated that Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas, asking him about...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.
- 140-(...) Yazid Ibn Hurmuz narrated: Najda wrote to Ibn Abbas. I was sitting with Ibn Abbas when he read his letter and wrote its reply. Ibn Abbas said: "Had it not been for preventing him from falling into wickedness, I would not have replied to his letter, may he never be joyful." He wrote in reply to him referring to the share of the kith and kin (of the Prophet from the booty) whom Allah mentioned: "We thought we were the kith and kin of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but our people denied us such a position. You asked about the orphan as to when his orphanhood would end up. When he comes to the age of marriage, attains maturity of mind, and his property is given to him, then he is no longer an orphan. You also asked whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kill the children of the unbelievers in the war. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not kill any one of their children, and you should not kill

[49] The number of the holy battles of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"

143-(1254) Abu Ishaq narrated: Abdullah Ibn Yazid got out in order to lead the prayer of asking Allah for rain. He offered two Rak'as, and then invoked Allah to provide them with rain. He (the narrator) added: On that day, I met Zaid Ibn Arqam, between him and me there was none but a man, (or there was a man between me and him). I asked him: "How many holy battles did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lead?" he said: "Nineteen." I said: "How many ones in which did you take part with him?" he said: "Seventeen." I asked: "Which holy battle was the first?" he said: "Dhat Al-Usair (or Dhat Al-Ushair)."

144-(...) Abu Ishaq narrated that he heard Zaid Ibn Arqam saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led nineteen holy battles, and he performed Hajj only once after he had emigrated, i.e. the Farewell Hajj.

145-(1813) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: I took part with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in nineteen holy battles. Jabir said: I did neither attend the holy battle of Badr, nor did I take part in the holy battle of Uhud, from which my father prevented me (to take part in order to take care of my sisters). When Abdullah (my father) was martyred on the (holy battle of) Uhud, I never failed to take part in any holy battle with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[50] The holy battle of Dhat Ar-Riqa

149-(1816) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him": "We went out in the company of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for a holy battle. Every six persons of us had (to ride) one camel alternately. So, (in view of excessive walking) our feet became thin. My feet became thin and my nail dropped. We used to wrap our feet with the pieces of cloth. For this reason, the holy battle was named the holy battle of The Pieces of Cloth (Dhat Ar-Riqa) as we wrapped our feet with those pieces of cloth." Abu Burda told: It is true that Abu Musa narrated this tradition, but later on, he disliked (narrating) it, as if it seemed that he disliked to disclose a good deed he had done. Abu Usama said: Others than Buraid added: "And Allah would give reward for it."

[51] Undesirability to seek for the help of an unbeliever in war

150-(1817) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out for Badr. When he reached Harrat Al-Wabara (a place four miles from Medina) a man met him, and he was famous for his bravery and courage. The Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" were happy to see him. He said (to The Prophet): "I came in order to follow you and get a share from the booty." [2] Appointing anyone as one's successor or giving up the question of appointment

11-(1823) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I was present with my father when he was fatally wounded. People praised him and said: "May Allah greatly recompense you!" He said: "I am hopeful (of Allah's mercy) as well as afraid (of His wrath)." People said: "Appoint anyone as your successor." He said: "Should I carry the burden of conducting your affairs in my life as well as in my death? I wish I could acquit myself (before Allah) in a way that there is neither anything in my favour nor is there anything against me. If I would appoint my successor, then (I would do so because) one better than me did so. (He meant Abu Bakr.) If I would leave You alone, then (I would do so because) one better than me, i.e. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so." Abdullah said: When he mentioned The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" I learnt that he would appoint none as Caliph.

12-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I entered the dwelling place of (my sister) Hafsa who said: "Do you know that your father will not appoint his successor?" I said: "He is not to do that." She said: "He is going to do that." I took an oath that I will talk to him about the matter. I kept quiet until the next morning, but I still did not talk to him, and I felt as if I were carrying a mountain on my right hand. At last I came and entered upon him. He began to ask me about the state of the people, and I informed him (about them). Then I said to him: "I heard something from the people which I took an oath that I should tell to you. They pretend that you will not nominate a successor. If a shepherd of camels and sheep you appointed comes back to you leaving the cattle, you will think that the cattle are lost. To look after the people is more serious and grave." He was impressed by my words. He bent his head thoughtfully for some time after which he raised it to me and said: "Allah will surely protect His religion. [3] Forbiddance of demanding or being eager to become a ruler

13-(1652) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura! Do not seek to be a ruler, because if you are given authority for that (seeking), then you will be held responsible for it. But if you are given it without asking for it, then you will be helped in it (by Allah)."

(...)The same tradition was narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura, through another chain of transmitters.

14-(1824) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Two of my cousins and I entered upon the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". One of them said: "O Messenger of Allah! Appoint us as rulers of some territories which Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" has entrusted to you." The other said something similar. He said: "We do not appoint to this position one who asks for it nor anyone who is eager to it."

One of them was on my right hand and the other on my left. Both of them demanded a position (of authority) while the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was brushing his teeth with a tooth-stick. He said (to me): "O Abu Musa (or O Abdullah Ibn Qais)! What do you say (about their request)?" I said: "By Allah, Who sent you on your mission with the truth, they did not disclose to me what they had in their minds, and I did not know that they would ask for a position." Noticed as if I were looking at the tooth-stick of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" between his lips.

He (The Prophet) said: "We shall not (or shall never) appoint to the public offices those who have been eager to have them. But you may go, O Abu Musa (or Abdullah Ibn Qais) (to receive your appointment)."

Then Abu Musa ordered him (the apostate to be killed) and he was killed. Then the two talked of standing in prayer at night. One of them, i.e. Mu'adh, said: "I sleep (for a portion of the night) and stand in prayer (for a portion) expecting to get the same reward for sleeping as well as for standing (in prayer)."

[4] Undesirability of getting a position of authority without necessity

16-(1825) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I said to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Will you not appoint me to a public office?" He hit my shoulder with his hand and said: "O Abu Dharr! You are weak, and authority is a trust. and on the Day of judgment it is a cause of humiliation and repentance except for one who rightly fulfils its obligations and (properly) discharges whatever duties (it requires from him)."

17-(1826) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Dharr! I see you weak and I like for you what I like for myself. Do not be a ruler over (even) two persons and do not manage the property of an orphan."

[5] The merits of a just ruler and the demerits of a tyrant ruler

18-(1827) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! the Dispensers of justice will be seated on the pulpits of light beside Allah, on the right side of the Merciful "Exalted and Glorified be He"; and both His sides are right. (The Dispensers of justice are) those who do justice in their rules, in matters relating to their families and in all that put under their custody."

[7] The prohibition of (accepting) the gifts of the employees

26-(1832) Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed a man from the tribe of Asad, called Ibn Al-Lutbiyya for collecting the obligatory charity. When he returned he said: "This (the obligatory charity) is for you and this has been given to me as a present." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood on the pulpit, praised Allah, and extolled Him. Then, he said: "Why hadn't he stayed in his father's or mother's house to see whether he would be given presents or not? By Him, in Whose Hands my life is, whoever takes something from those (resources of the obligatory charity unlawfully) will carry it on his neck on the Day of Judgement; if it be a camel, it will be grunting; if a cow, it will be mooing; and if a sheep, it will be bleating." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then

The matter was mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said to those who decided to enter (the fire at the order of their leader): "If you had entered it, you would have remained there until the Day of Judgment." He lauded the act of the others and said: "There is no obedience in matters involving Allah's disobedience or displeasure. Obedience is obligatory only in what is good."

He said: "It was the duty of every Prophet before me to guide his followers to whatever good for them he knew and warn them against whatever bad for them he knew. But this nation of yours has its days of peace and (security) in the beginning of its life, and in the last phase of its existence it will be afflicted with trials and with things disagreeable to you, when there will be tremendous trials one after the other, each making the previous one dwindle into insignificance. When they would be afflicted with a trial, the believer would say: This is going to bring about my destruction. When it would be over, they would be afflicted with another trial, and the believer would say: This surely is going to be my end.

Whoever wishes to be moved from the fire and be admitted in Paradise should die with faith in Allah and the Last Day and should treat the people as he wishes to be treated by them. He who swears allegiance to a Caliph should give him the pledge of his hand and the sincerity of his heart. He should obey him to the best of his capacity. If another man comes forward (in order to claim to be Caliph), disputing his (the former's) authority, they (the Muslims) should behead the latter."

I came close to him (Abdullah Ibn Amr) and said to him: I beseech you by Allah, did you hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He pointed with his hands to his ears and his heart and said: My ears heard it and my mind kept it. I said to him: This cousin of yours, Mu'awiya, orders us to unjustly consume our wealth among ourselves and to kill one another, while Allah says: "O ye who believe, do not consume your wealth among yourselves unjustly, unless it be trade based on mutual agreement, and do not kill yourselves. [12] Obedience should be shown to the (rulers) even if they withhold the people's due rights

- 49-(1846) Alqama Ibn Wa'il Al-Hadrami narrated from his father: Salama Ibn Yazid Al-Ju'fi asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Tell us what you order us to do if we have rulers who rule over us and demand that we discharge our obligations towards them, but they (themselves) do not discharge their own responsibilities towards us." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" avoided giving any answer. Salama asked him again. He (again) avoided giving any answer. Then he asked him once again. It was the second or the third time when Al-Ash'ath Ibn Qais pulled him aside and said: "Listen to and obey them, for on them shall he their burden and on you shall be your burden."

- 51-(1847) Hudhaifa Ibn Al-Yaman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The people used to ask Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about good, but I used to ask him about evil for fear that it might overtake me. Once I said: "O Allah's Apostle! We were in ignorance and in evil and Allah has bestowed upon us the present good; will there be any evil after this good?" He said: "Yes." I asked: "Will there be good after that evil?" He said: "Yes, but it would be tainted with smoke (indicating metaphorically to some Little evil)." I asked: "What will its smoke be?" - 85-(1353) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said on the day of the Conquest of Mecca: "There is no Migration now, but there remain (only) Jihad (fighting in the cause of Allah) and (sincerity of) intention (which will have great reward). Moreover, when you are called upon to go forth (for Jihad) you should do so."
 - (...) The same was narrated through a different chain of transmitters.
- 86-(1864) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about Migration after the Conquest of Mecca, and he said: "There is no Migration now, but there remain (only) Jihad (fighting in the cause of Allah) and (sincerity of) intention (which will have great reward). Moreover, when you are called upon to go forth (for Jihad) you should do so."
- 87-(1865) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a Bedouin asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about Migration. He said: "Do you talk of Migration? No doubt, the affair of Migration is very difficult. But have you got camels?" The Bedouin said: "Yes." He asked: "Do you fulfill the obligatory charity due upon them?" He said: "Yes." He said: "Go on doing good deeds across the villages, for surely Allah will not leave any of your deeds without reward."
- (...) This tradition was narrated through a different chain of transmitters with the following addition at the end: "Do you milk them on the day they arrive at the water?" He replied in the affirmative.

[21] How the women swore fealty (to The Prophet)

88-(1866) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of the Prophet, narrated: Whenever the believing women migrated (to Medina) and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they would be tested in accordance with the following words of Allah, the Almighty and Exalted: "O Prophet, when believing women come to you to take the oath of fealty to you that they will not associate in worship anything with Allah, that they will not steal, that they will not commit adultery......) to the end of the verse (Al-Mumtahina 12).

A'isha said: Whoever from among the believing women accepted these conditions and agreed to abide by them were considered to have offered themselves for swearing fealty. When they had (formally) declared their resolution to do so, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would say to them: "You may go. I have accepted your fealty." By Allah, the hand of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never touched the hand of a woman. He would take the oath of fealty from them by oral declaration. A'isha further said: By Allah, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never took any vow from women except that which Allah had ordered him to take, and his palm never touched the palm of a woman. When he had taken their vow, he would tell them that he had taken the oath from them orally.

89-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told him how the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the oath of fealty from women. She said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never touched a woman with his hand. He would only take a vow from her and when he had taken the vow (from her orally), he would say: "You may go. I have accepted your fealty."

[28] The merit of jihad and campaigning in the way of Allah

- 103-(1876) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah has undertaken to look after the affairs of one who goes out to fight in His way believing in Him and affirming the truth of His Messengers. He is committed to His care that He will either admit him to Paradise or bring him back to his home from where he set out with a reward or (his share of) booty. By Him in Whose Hand is the life of Mohammad, if a person gets wounded in the way of Allah, he will come on the Day of Judgment with his wound in the same condition as it was when it was first inflicted: its color being the color of blood but its smell being the smell of musk. By Him in Whose Hand is the life of Muhammad, had it not been too hard upon the Muslims, I would not have lagged behind any expedition which is going to fight in the cause of Allah. But I do not have abundant means (of conveyance) to provide them (the fighters) with mounts, nor have they abundant means (to provide themselves with what they need for Jihad), and it is hard upon them to be left behind. By Him in Whose Hand is Mohammad's life, I love to fight in the cause of Allah and be killed, to fight and again be killed and to fight again and be killed."

110-(1878) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "What deed could be an equivalent to Jihad in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He"?" He answered: "You do not have the power to do that deed." They repeated the question twice or thrice. Every time he answered: "You do not have the power to do it." When the question was asked for the third time, he said: "The example of the one who goes out for Jihad is like a person who keeps Fast, stands in the Prayer (constantly), (obeying) Allah's (behest's contained in) the verses (of the Qur'an), and does not exhibit any lassitude in Fasting and the Prayer until the Mujahid returns from Jihad in the way of Allah, the Exalted."

111-(1879) An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While I was (sitting) near the pulpit of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man said: "I do not care if, after embracing Islam, I do not do any good deed except providing the pilgrims with water." Another said: "I do not care if, after embracing Islam, I do not do any good deed more than maintenance service to the Sacred Mosque." A third one said: "Jihad in the cause of Allah is better than what you said." Umar reproached them and said: "Don't raise your voices near the pulpit of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon

[31] The high position prepared by Allah for fighters in Allah's way in paradise

116-(1884) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "O Abu Sa'id! Whoever is pleased to accept Allah as his Lord, Islam as his religion and Muhammad as his Messenger is surely entitled to be admitted in Paradise." He (Abu Sa'id) wondered at it and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Repeat it for me." He (The Messenger of Allah) did that and added: "There is another act which elevates the position of a man in Paradise to a grade one hundred (higher), and the elevation between one grade and the other is equal to the height of the heaven from the earth." He (Abu Sa'id) asked: "What is that act?" He said: "It is Jihad in the cause of Allah. It is Jihad in the cause of Allah."

[32] The one who is killed in the way of Allah will have all his sins obliterated except debt

117-(1885) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up among them (his Companions) to deliver a sermon in which he told them that Jihad in the cause of Allah and belief in Allah are the best of acts (in reward). A man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Do you think that if I am killed in the way of Allah, my sins will be removed from me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, in case you are killed in the way of Allah while being steadfast, expecting the reward (from Allah), always facing the enemy in fight, never turning your back upon him." Then he asked: "What have you said? Do you think if I am killed in the way of Allah, all my sins will be obliterated from me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, in case you are steadfast, expecting the reward (from Allah), always facing the enemy in fight, and never turning your back upon him, (all your sins would be removed) except debt. Gabriel has told me this."

[33] The souls of the martyrs are in paradise; they are alive and find their sustenance from their lord

121-(1887) Masruq narrated: We asked Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) about Allah's saying: "Think not of those who are slain in Allah's way as dead. Nay, they live, finding their sustenance in the presence of their Lord." (Al Imran 169) He said: We asked (The Prophet) about that and he said: "The souls of the martyrs live in the bodies of green birds who have their nests in chandeliers hung from the throne of the Almighty. They eat the fruits of Paradise from wherever they like and then nestle in these chandeliers. Once their Lord cast a glance at them and said: Do you want anything? They said: What more shall we desire? We eat the fruit of Paradise from wherever we like. Their Lord asked them the same question thrice. When they saw that they will remain to be asked without being left (without answering His question), they said: O Lord, we wish that You might return our souls to our bodies so that we may be slain in Your cause once again. When He saw that they had no desire, they were left (to their pleasure in Paradise)."

[34] The merit of Jihad and keeping vigilance (over the enemy)

122-(1888) Abu Sa id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Who is the best of men?" He replied: "A man who fights in the way of Allah, striving with his wealth and life." The man then asked: "Who is next to him (in excellence)?" He said: "Next to him is a believer who lives in a mountain path worshipping his Lord and saving men from his mischief."

Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever equips a warrior (fighting) in the way of Allah (will have a reward similar to the one who) fights. And anybody who looks well after his family in his absence (will have a reward similar to the one who) fights."
- 137-(1896) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dispatched a detachment to Banu Lihyan who were from Banu Hudhail, and said: "Let one man from every two set out and the reward (will be divided) between the two."

Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dispatched a detachment to Banu Lihyan, (and said): "Let one man from every two set out." Then he said to those who stayed behind: "Those of you who will look well after the family and wealth of those who are going on the expedition will receive half the reward of the warriors."
- [39] The sacredness of the warriors' wives and the sin of him who betrays such a trust

139-(1897) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The sanctity of the wives of the warriors is like the sanctity of their mothers for those who sit at home (and do not set out for Jihad). Whoever stays behind,

[40] Jihad is not obligatory for those who have a genuine excuse

141-(1898) Abu Ishaq narrated that he heard Al-Bara talking about Allah's saying: "Not equal are Those who sit (at home) from among the believers and those who go out for Jihad in the way of Allah." (An-Nisa 95). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Zaid (to write the verse). He brought a shoulder-blade (of a slaughtered camel) on which he wrote it (the verse). The son of Umm Maktum complained of his blindness to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (It was on this occasion that) it was revealed: "Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) without any trouble (such as illness, incapacity, disability etc.)." (An-Nisa 95).

The tradition was narrated through two other chains of transmitters.

[41] The proof that the martyr would attain paradise

143-(1899) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man said: "O Messenger of Allah! Where shall I be if I am killed?" He said: "In Paradise." The man threw away the dates he had in his hand and fought until he was killed. According to the narration of Suwaid: A man said to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Uhud.

وَفِي حَدِيثِ سُوَيْدٍ: قَالَ رَجُلٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ عَلَيْقٍ، يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ. [البخاري: كتاب المغازي، باب غزوة أحد، رقم: ٤٠٤٦].

144-(1900) Al- Bara "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A man from Banu Nabit (one of the Ansar tribes) came to the Holy Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I testify that there is no god but Allah and that you are His Slave and Messenger." Then he went forward and fought until he was killed. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He has done a little but shall be given a great reward."

145-(1901) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Busaisa as a spy to see what the caravan of Abu Sufyan was doing. He returned (and met the Prophet in his house) where there was nobody except The Messenger of Allah and me. I do not remember whether he (Anas) made an exception of some wives of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or not. He (Busaisa) told him the news of the caravan, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (hurriedly), spoke to the people and said: "We are in need (of men), so, whoever has a mount to ride ready with him should ride with us." People began to ask him permission for bringing their mounts, which were grazing on the hillocks near Medina. He said: "No. (I want) only those who have their mounts ready."

So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his Companions proceeded towards Badr and preceded the infidels (of Mecca). When the infidels (also) reached there, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should step forward for (doing) anything unless I am ahead of him." The infidels advanced (towards us), and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Get up to enter Paradise which is equal in width to the heavens and the earth." Umair Ibn Al-Humam Al-Ansari said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is Paradise equal in width to the heavens and the earth?" He said: "Yes." Umair said: "Bravo!"

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "What led you to say bravo?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Nothing but the desire to be among its residents." He said: "You are one of its residents." He took out dates from his bag and began to eat them. Then he said: "If I were to live until I have eaten all these dates of mine, it would be a long life." He threw away all the dates he had with him. Then he fought the enemies until he was killed.

A man in a shabby condition got up and said: "O Abu Musa! Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying this? He said: Yes. He returned to his friends and said: I greet you (a farewell greeting). Then he broke the sheath of his sword, threw it away, advanced with his (naked) sword towards the enemy and fought (them) with it until he was killed.

147-(677) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that some people came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said to him: Send with us some men who may teach us the Our'an and the Sunna. Accordingly, he sent seventy men from the Ansar. They were called the Reciters and among them was my maternal uncle Haram. They used to recite the Qur'an, discuss and study its meaning at night. In the day they used to bring water and pour it (in pitchers) in the mosque, collect wood and sell it, and with the earnings they would buy food for the people of the Suffa and the needy. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent the Reciters with these people, who fell upon them and killed them before they reached their destination. (At their last breaths), they said: O Allah, convey from us the news to our Prophet that we met You and we are pleased with You as well as You are pleased with us. A man attacked Haram from behind and pierced him with a spear, which killed him. (At his last breaths), Haram said: By the Lord of the Ka'ba, I met with success. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to his Companions: Your brothers have been killed and they were saying: O Allah, convey from us the news to our Prophet that we met You and we are pleased with You as well as You are pleased with us.

148-(1903) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" related: My uncle, after whom I have been named, was not present with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the Day of Badr. He felt distressed about it. He would say: I have missed the first battle fought by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and if Allah now gives me an opportunity to see a battlefield with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Allah will see what I do

[42] One who fights that the word of Allah should be exalted fights in the cause of Allah

149-(1904) Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A desert Arab came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: Messenger of Allah, one man fights for the spoils of war; another fights that he may be remembered, and another fights that he may see his (high) position (achieved as a result of his valor in fighting). Which of these is fighting in the cause of Allah? The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: One who fights with the aim of exalting the word of Allah is a fighter in the way of Allah.

and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever seeks for martyrdom with sincerity will be elevated by Allah among the martyrs even if he died on his bed." Abu Tahir did not mention in his narration the words: "with sincerity".

[47] Condemnation of the one who died but never fought in the way of Allah nor did he ever hope or decide to set out for jihad

158-(1910) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever died but did not fight in the way of Allah nor did he hope (or decide to set out) for Jihad would be considered to have died the death of a hypocrite."

Abdullah Ibn Al-Mubarak said: We think the Hadith applied to the time of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[48] The reward of those who could not join a jihad expedition because of illness or some other excuse

159-(1911) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on an expedition, when he said: "There are some people in Medina. Never you cover a distance or cross a valley except that they are with you. They have been detained by illness."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the following change: "They will share with you the reward (of Jihad)."

[49] The merit of joining a naval expedition for jihad

160-(1912) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to visit Umm Haram Bint Milhan, who presented food to him. Umm Haram was the wife of Ubada Ibn As-Samit. Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited her and she presented food to him and started looking for lice in his head. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept, and afterwards woke up smiling. Umm Haram asked: "What makes you smile, O Allah's Apostle?" He said: "Some of my followers (in a dream) were presented before me as fighters in Allah's Cause (on board a ship) amidst this sea. They were as kings on the thrones (or like kings on the thrones)." (He is in doubt as to which expression was used). Umm Haram said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah to make me one of them." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked Allah for her. Then he slept again and woke up smiling. Once again Umm Haram asked: "What makes you smile, O

أَبِي أُمَامَةَ بْنِ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفِ حَدَّثَهُ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَدِّهِ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ سَأَلَ اللَّهَ الشَّهَادَةَ بِصِدْقٍ، بَلَّغَهُ اللَّهُ مَنَازِلَ الشُّهَدَاءِ، وَإِنْ مَاتَ عَلَىٰ فِرَاشِهِ».

وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ فِي حَدِيثِهِ «بِصِدْقٍ».

٤٧ ـ باب ذَمِّ مَنْ مَاتَ ولم يَغْزُ ولم يُحَدِّثْ نَفْسَهُ بالغَزْوِ

۱۹۸ ـ (۱۹۱۰) ـ حَدِّننا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَهْمِ الأَنْطَاكِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُنْكَدِر، عَنْ سُمَيِّ، عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِر، عَنْ سُمَيِّ، عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِر، عَنْ سُمَيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةً قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَغْزُ، وَلَمْ يُحَدِّثُ بِهِ نَفْسَهُ، مَاتَ عَلَىٰ شُعْبَةٍ مِنْ نِفَاقِ».

قَالَ ابْنُ سَهْمٍ: قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ: فَنُرَى أَنَّ ذَٰلِكَ كَانَ عَلَىٰ عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ عَلَىٰ عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ عَلَىٰ عَهْدِ

Allah's Apostle?" He replied: "Some of my followers were presented to me as fighters in Allah's Cause." He repeated the same dream. Umm Haram said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah for me to be one of them." He said: "You are amongst the first ones." It happened that she sailed on the sea in the time when Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan was the governor (of Sham during the caliphate of Uthman). After she had disembarked, she fell down from her riding animal and died.

- 161-(...) Umm Haram (who was the aunt of Anas) narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us one day and had a nap in our house. When he woke up, he was laughing. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! What makes you laugh?" He said: "I saw a people from my followers sailing on the surface of the sea (looking) like kings (sitting) on their thrones." I said: "Invoke Allah for me to be among them." He said: "You will be among them." He had another nap, after which he woke up and was laughing. I asked him about that, and he gave the same reply. I said: "Invoke Allah for me to be among them." He said: "You are among the first patch." Anas said: Ubada Ibn As-Samit married her. He joined a naval expedition and took her along with him. When she returned, a mule was brought for her. While she was mounting it she fell down, with her neck broken (and she died).
- 162-(...) Umm Haram Bint Milhan narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept (at a place) near me. He woke up smiling. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! What makes you laugh?" He said: "Some people from my followers were presented to me. They were sailing amidst this green sea...and the rest is the same.
- (...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: One day The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited the daughter of Milhan, the maternal aunt of Anas and placed his head near her...and the rest is the same.

[50] The merit of keeping vigilance in the way of Allah "exalted and Hallowed be He"

163-(1913) Salman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Keeping vigilance for a day and a night is better (in point of reward) than fasting for a whole month and standing in prayer every night. If a person dies (while keeping vigilance), this (good) act of his will continue and he will go on receiving his reward for it perpetually and will be saved from the torture of the grave."

[51] The martyrdoms

164-(1914) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "While a man walks along a path, finds a thorny twig lying on the way and puts it aside, Allah would appreciate it and forgive him." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The martyrs are of five kinds: one who dies of plague; one who dies of diarrhea (or cholera); one who is drowned; one who is buried under debris and one who dies fighting in the way of Allah, the Great and Almighty."

165-(1915) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whom do you consider to be a martyr among you?" They (the Companions) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Whoever is killed in the way of Allah is a martyr." He said: "Then (if this is only so) the martyrs of my nation will be small in number." They asked: "O Messenger of Allah! who are they?" He said: "One who is killed in the way of Allah is a martyr, one who dies in the way of Allah is a martyr, one who dies of plague is a martyr, and one who dies of the abdominal disease is a martyr." Ibn Miqsam said: I testify the truth of what your father narrated old that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One who is drowned is a martyr."

[52] The merit of archery and inducing others to learn it and condemnation of one who learnt it and then neglected it

167-(1917) Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying while delivering a sermon from the pulpit: "Prepare to meet them (the enemies) with as much power as you can afford. Beware, power consists in archery. Beware, power consists in archery."

168-(1918) Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The territories shall be opened to you and Allah will suffice you (against your enemies), but none of you should fail to play with his arrows."

(...)Uqba Ibn Amir narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying the same.

169-(1919) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Shumasa narrated that Fuqaim Al-Lakhmi said to Uqba Ibn Amir: You spend time at (throwing arrows) between these two targets and you are an old man, so it will be very hard upon you. Uqba said: Had it not been for what I heard from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would not have strained myself. Al-Harith (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Ibn Shumasa: What was that? He said that he (The Prophet) said: "Whoever learnt archery and then abandoned it is not from us, or he is guilty of disobedience."

[53] The prophet's saying: "A group of people from my nation will remain on the right path and continue to be triumphant; their opponents shall not be able to cause any harm to them"

170-(1920) Thawban narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A group of people from my nation will remain victorious on the right path and continue to be triumphant (against their enemies). He who opposes them shall not be able to cause any harm to them. They will remain in this state until Allah's Command is executed." In the narration of Qutaiba, the following is not mentioned: "They will remain in this state."

171-(1921) Al- Mughira narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to be triumphant over the people until the Command of Allah overtakes them while they are still victorious."

173-(1923) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to fight In defense of truth and remain victorious until the Day of judgment."

174-(1037) Umair Ibn Umm Hani narrated: I heard Mu'awiya saying while delivering a speech from the pulpit that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to obey Allah's Command, and those who disappoint or oppose them shall not be able to cause any harm to them. They will be dominating the people until Allah's Command is carried out, while they are victorious over the people."

175-(...) Yazid Ibn Al-Asamm narrated that he heard Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan relating a tradition from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" other than which he did not hear from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from the pulpit: "Whomever Allah wants to do a favour, He enables him to understand (the principles of) religion. A group of people from the Muslims will remain on the Right Path and continue until the Day of Judgment to be victorious over those who oppose them."

176-(1924) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Shumasa Al- Mahri narrated: I was in the company of Maslama Ibn Mukhallad, and Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As was with him. Abdullah said: "The Hour shall not be established but when the worst of people are left on the earth. They will be worse than the people of pre-Islamic period of ignorance. They will get whatever they ask of Allah." We were still sitting when Ugba Ibn Amir came, to whom Maslama said: O Ugba! Listen to what Abdullah says. Ugba said: He knows better. As for me, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "A group of people from my nation will continue to fight in obedience to the Command of Allah, remaining dominant over their enemies. Those who oppose them shall not cause any harm to them. They will remain in this state until the Hour overtakes them." Abdullah said: "Yes. Then Allah will raise a wind, which will be fragrant like musk, whose touch will be (as smooth) as the touch of silk. It will not leave a single person in whose heart there is faith (as little) as a grain but that it will cause him to die. Only the worst of men will remain whom the Hour shall overwhelm."

That Could Be Eaten

[1] Hunting with the help of the trained dogs

1-(1929) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I set off trained dogs and they catch for me (the game), on which I recite the name of Allah." He said: "When you set off your trained dogs and you recite the name of Allah (while setting them off), then eat (the game)." I said: "Even if these (trained dogs) kill that (the game)?" He (the Prophet) said: "Even if these kill, but (on the condition) that no other dog, which you did not set off (along with your dogs), participates, (in catching the game)." I said to him: "I throw a heavy featherless blunt arrow, for hunting and killing (the game)." He said: "When you throw such a featherless blunt arrow, and it pierces, then eat, but if it falls flatly (and beats the game to death), then do not eat that."

- 2-(...) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "We are people who hunt with these (trained) dogs, then (what should we do)?" He (The Prophet) said: "When you set off your trained dogs having recited the name of Allah, then eat what they catch for you, even if it (the game) is killed, on the condition that (the hunting dog) has not eaten (any portion of the game). If it has eaten (the game), then don't eat it since I fear that it might have caught it for its own self; and do not eat if other dogs take part with your trained dogs."
- 3-(...) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (hunting with the help of) the heavy featherless blunt arrow. He said: "If it strikes (the game) with its sharp end, then eat, but if it strikes flatly and it dies, that is an animal which is beaten to death, which you should not eat." I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (hunting with the help of) dogs, and he said: "When you set off your dog (for hunting) reciting the name of Allah, then eat (the game), but if a portion of it is eaten (by the dog), then do not eat that, for it (your dog) has caught such (a game) for itself." I said: "If I find along with my dog another dog, and do not know which (of the dogs) has caught (the game, then what should I do)?" He (The Prophet) said: "Don't eat that, for you recited the name of Allah only on your dog and not on the other one."

- 7-(...) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about hunting. He said: "When you shoot your arrow, recite the name of Allah, and if you find that it (the arrow) killed (the game), then eat, except when you find it fallen into water, for you do not know whether the water caused it to die or your arrow."
- 8-(1930) Abu Tha'laba Al-Khushani "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I said: "O Allah's Apostle! We are living in a land ruled by the people of the Scripture; can we take our meals in their utensils? In that land there is plenty of game and I hunt the game with my bow and with my untamed and tamed hound. Then what is lawful for me to eat?" He said: "As for what you have mentioned about the people of the Scripture, if you can get utensils other than theirs, do not eat in theirs, but if you cannot get other than theirs, wash their utensils and eat in them. As for what you've mentioned that you live In land where there is plenty of game, if you hunt an animal with your bow after mentioning Allah's Name, eat of it. And if you hunt something with your trained hound after mentioning Allah's Name, eat of it, and if you hunt something with your untrained hound (and get it before it dies) and slaughter it, eat of it."

that? He said: We sucked it just as a baby sucks and then drank water over it, and it sufficed us for the day until night. We beat off leaves with the help of our staffs, then drenched them with water and ate them. We then went to the coast of the sea, and there rose before us on the coast of the sea something like a big mound. We came near that and we found that it was a beast, called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale).

Abu Ubaida said: It is dead. He then said: No (but it does not matter), we have been sent by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the way of Allah and you are hard pressed (on account of the scarcity of food), so you might eat that. We three hundred in number stayed there for a month, until we grew bulky. He (Jabir) said: I saw how we extracted pitcher after pitcher full of fat from the cavity of its eye, and sliced from it compact piece of meat equal to a bull or like a bull.

Abu Ubaida called forth thirteen men from us and he made them sit in the cavity of its eye, and he took hold of one of the ribs of its chest and made it stand and then saddled the biggest of the camels we had with us and it passed under it (the arched rib). Moreover, we provided ourselves with pieces of boiled meat (especially for use in our journey). When we came back to Medina, we went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned that to him, whereupon he said: "That was a provision which Allah had brought forth for you. Is there any piece of meat (left) with you, so that you would give it to us?" He (Jabir) said: We sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" some of it, which he ate.

18-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (on an expedition). We were three hundred riders and our chief (leader) was Abu Ubaida Ibn Al-Jarrah. We were to watch a caravan belonging to Quraish. So we stayed on the coast for half a month, and were so much afflicted by extreme hunger that we (were forced) to eat leaves. That is why it (such an expedition) was called the Detachment of Leaves. The sea cast out for us an animal, which was called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). We ate of that for half of the month and rubbed its fat on our (bodies) until our bodies became stout. Abu Ubaida caught hold of one of its ribs and fixed that up. He then cast a glance at the tallest man of the army and the highest of the camels. Then he made him ride over it, and that man passed beneath it (the rib), and many men could sit in its eye cavity, and we extracted many

- 32-(1939) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I do not know whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prohibited (eating the meat of donkeys) because they were the beasts of burden for the people, so he (The Prophet) did not like their beasts of burden to be used up (in view of convenience), or he prohibited (eating) the meat of domestic asses (as something essential in Islamic law) on the Day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar.
- 33-(1802) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We went to Khaibar with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then Allah granted (us) victory over them. On that very evening of the day of their (Muslims') victory, they lit many fires. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What are those fires and for what they have been lit?" They said: "For (cooking) the meat ." He said: "What kind of meat is it?" They said: "It is the meat of the donkeys." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Throw it away and break those (cooking earthen pots)." A man said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we throw it away and wash those (earthen pots)?" He said: "You may do so."

He found with her a roasted mastigure brought from Naid by her sister Hufaida Bint Al-Harith. Maimuna presented the mastigure before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who hardly started eating any (unknown) food before it was described and named for him. But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stretched his hand towards the mastigure whereupon a lady from among those who were present, said: "Tell The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of what you have presented to him." They (the women) said: "O Allah's Apostle! It is the meat of a mastigure." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lifted his hand from the meat of the mastigure. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid said: "O Allah's Apostle! Is it unlawful to eat?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, but it does not exist in the land of my people, so I hate it." Khalid added: "Then I pulled the mastigure towards me which I ate while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was looking at me, and he did not forbid me (to eat it)."

45-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that Khalid Ibn Al-Walid told him that he went with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to the house of Maimuna, his maternal aunt, whereupon there was presented to him (some cooked) meat of a mastigure brought from Najd by her sister Umm Hufaid Bint Al-Harith, who had been married to a person belonging to Banu Ja'far. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" hardly started eating any (unknown) food before knowing what it was...and the rest is the same but with this (addition): Ibn Al-Asamm narrated it from Maimuna and he was under her care.

(1945) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While we were in the house of Maimuna, two roasted mastigures were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ... and the rest is the same, without mentioning Al- Asamm narrating from Maimuna.

(...)Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that the meat of a mastigure had been brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was in the house of Maimuna, and Khalid Ibn Al-Walid was present there...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

46-(1947) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Umm Hufaid Bint Al-Harith, Ibn Abbess's aunt sent some dried yogurt, ghee (a clarified semi-fluid butter) and a mastigure to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as a gift. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate the dried yogurt and butter but left the mastigure because he disliked it. Ibn Abbas said: "The mastigure was eaten at the table of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and if it had been illegal to eat, it could not have been eaten at the table of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

47-(1948) Yazid Ibn Al-Asamm reported: A newly married man of Medina invited us to a wedding feast, and he presented to us thirteen (cooked) mastigures. There were those who ate (from their meat) and those who abandoned that. On the next day, I met Ibn Abbas, and told him (about that) in the presence of many people. Some of them said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said: "I neither eat it nor do I forbid (anyone) to eat it, nor do I make it unlawful." Ibn Abbas said: What a bad it is that you say! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has not been sent, but (to declare clearly) the lawful and the unlawful (things). Once, we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the house of Maimuna, and there were with him Al-Fadl Ibn Abbas, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid and a woman. Then a tray of food containing meat was presented to him. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was about to eat it, Maimuna said: "It is the meat of mastigure." He withdrew his hand saying: "That is the meat which I never eat." But he said to those (who were present with him): "You may eat." Al-Fadl and Khalid Ibn Al-Walid ate of it, and so did the woman. Maimuna said: "I never eat anything but that which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" eats."

48-(1949) Abu Az-Zubair reported that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying that a (cooked) mastigure was presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but he refused to eat it, and said: "I do not know. Perhaps it (the mastigure) might be one of (the natives of) the ancient past whose (forms) had been distorted."

49-(1950) Abu Az-Zubair reported: I asked Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" about (eating) the mastigure, and he said: "Don't eat it because he (The Prophet) detested it." He (the narrator) said that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not make it unlawful. Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" has made it (a source) of benefit for more than one (person). It is a common diet of the shepherds. Had it been with me, I would have eaten it."

50-(1951) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man said: "O Messenger of Allah! We live in a land which is abundant of mastigures, so what do you order or what verdict do you give (about eating it)?" He said: "It was mentioned to me that some people from among the children of Isra'il were distorted (so probably they might have been distorted in the shape of mastigures)." So he (The Prophet) neither ordered (us to eat it) nor did he forbid (us to eat it). Abu Sa'id said: Some time later, Umar said: "Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" has made it (a source of) benefit for more than one (person), for it is the common diet of shepherds. Had it been with me, I would have eaten it. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (did not eat it only because he) detested it."

Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a Bedouin came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I live in a low land which is abundant of mastigures, and these are the common diet of my family (tell me what is your verdict?)" He (The Prophet) did make no reply. We said to him: "Repeat it (your problem)", and he repeated it, but he did make no reply. (It was repeated thrice.) Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called him at the third time saying: "O man of the desert, verily Allah cursed or showed wrath to a district of the children of Isra'il and distorted them to beasts moving on the earth. I do not know, probably this (mastigure) may be one of them. So I do not eat it, nor do I prohibit its eating."

- 53-(1953) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: We chased a hare at Marr Az-Zahran (a valley near Mecca). They (my companions) ran, but felt exhausted; I also tried until I caught hold of it. I brought it to Abu Talha who slaughtered it and sent its haunch and two hind legs to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and it was I who brought them to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he accepted them.
- (...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, and in the narration of Yahya he said: "With its hind leg or two haunches."

[10] Permissibility of using what enables one to hunt a game, and disapproval of flinging of small pebbles

- 54-(1954) Ibn Buraida reported: Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal "Allah be pleased with him" saw a person from among his companions throwing small pebbles, whereupon he said: Do not throw pebbles, for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not like it, or he forbade flinging of pebbles since neither the game is taken thereby, nor an enemy defeated, but it may break a tooth or put out an eye. He, afterwards, again saw him flinging pebbles, and said to him: I inform you that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not approve or he forbade flinging of pebbles, and then I see you again flinging pebbles, I will not speak with you for so and so (time).

[4] Permissibility of slaughtering the animal with whatever causes the blood to flow, except tooth, nail and bone

20-(1968) Abaya Ibn Rifa'a Ibn Rafi narrated from his grandfather Rafi Ibn Khadij: I said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "We may meet the enemies in the future and have no knives (can we slaughter the animals with reeds?)" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make haste or be careful (in using whatever) causes blood to flow, and eat the animals if the name of Allah has been mentioned (on slaughtering them). Do not slaughter with teeth or fingernails and I will tell you why: It is because teeth are bones (which Cannot cut properly) and fingernails are the tools used by the Ethiopians (whom we should not imitate for they are infidels)." We had gained many sheep and camels as booty. One of those camels fled. A man threw an arrow at the camel, with which (Allah) stopped it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Some of these animals are like wild animals, so if you lose control over one of these animals, treat it as such."

Abu At-Tufail reported: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" was asked whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had distinguished them by (disclosing) a thing (which he did not mention to others). He (Ali) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not distinguish us by (disclosing secretly) anything which he did not make public, except those (few things) which lie in the sheath of my sword. He drew out a document in which it was written: "Allah cursed him who slaughtered (a sacrificial animal by the name of) anyone other than Allah, Allah cursed him who stole the signposts (in order to change the boundary lines) of the land, Allah cursed him who cursed his father, and Allah cursed him who sheltered an innovator (of heresy in religion)."

(36) The Book Of Drinks

[1] The prohibition of the wine and all intoxicants

1-(1979) Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I got a she-camel as my share of the war booty on the day of Badr, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me another she-camel. I let both of them kneel at the door of one of the Ansar, intending to carry The Idhkhir on them to sell it and use its price for my wedding banquet on marrying Fatima. A goldsmith from Banu Qainuqa was with me. Hamza Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib was in that house drinking wine and a lady singer was reciting: "O Hamza! (Kill) the fat old she camels (and serve them to your guests)."

So Hamza took his sword, went towards the two she-camels, cut off their humps, opened their flanks, and took a part of their livers. (I (a subnarrator) said to Ibn Shihab (another sub-narrator): Did he take anything out of the hump? He said: He cut off the humps and took them altogether.) When I saw that dreadful sight, I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in whose company Zaid Ibn Haritha was. I told him the news. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out in the company of Zaid Ibn Haritha, and I too went with them. He went to Hamza and spoke angrily to him. Hamza looked up and said: "Aren't you only the slaves of my forefathers?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" retreated and went out. (This incident happened before the prohibition of drinking Wine).

- 2-(...) Ali "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I got a she-camel as my share of the war booty on the day (of the battle) of Badr, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given me a she-camel from the one-fifth of the booty. When I intended to marry Fatima, the daughter of Allah's Apostle, I had an appointment with a goldsmith from the tribe of Banu Qainuqa to go with me to bring Idhkhir (grass of pleasant smell) so that I might sell it to the goldsmiths and spend its price on my wedding party. I was collecting for my she-camels equipment of saddles, sacks and ropes while my two she-camels were kneeling down beside the room of an Ansari man. I returned after collecting whatever I collected, to see the humps of my two she-camels cut off, their flanks cut open and a portion of their livers was taken out.

When I saw that state of my two she-camels, I could not help weeping. I asked: "Who did so?" The people replied: "Hamza Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib who is staying with some Ansari drunks in this house, having a lady singer singing to him and his companions. She recited the following in her song: "O Hamza! (Kill) the fat old she camels (and serve them to your guests)." So Hamza took his sword, went towards the two she-camels, cut off their humps with his sword, opened their flanks, and took a part of their livers."

I went away till I reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Zaid Ibn Haritha was with him. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed on my face the effect of what I had suffered, he asked: "What is wrong with you." I replied: "O Allah's Apostle! I have never seen such a (dreadful) sight as I saw today. Hamza attacked my two she-camels, cut off their humps, and ripped open their flanks. He is sitting there in a house in the company of some drunks." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked for his covering sheet, put it on, and set out walking followed by me and Zaid Ibn Haritha till he came to the house where Hamza was. He asked permission to enter, and he was allowed, and they were drunk. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started blaming Hamza for what he had done, but Hamza was drunk and his eyes were red. Hamza looked at The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then he raised his eyes. Then he looked at his knees, and raised up his eyes looking at his umbilicus. Then he raised up his eyes looking at his face. Hamza then said: "Aren't you but the slaves of my father?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" realized that he was drunk. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" retreated, and we went out with him.

The (verses pertaining the) prohibition of liquor have been revealed." So we spilt it on that day. It was a mixture of dry dates and fresh dates. Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" said: The wine was made unlawful. The common wine of theirs was then a mixture of dry dates and fresh dates.

(...)Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was serving wine to Abu Talha, Abu Dujana, and Suhail Ibn Baida' from a water skin containing the mixture of fresh dates and dry dates...and the rest of the Hadith is the same.

8-(1981) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (people) to mix fresh dates with dry dates and then drink (their resultant wine); and that was their common licker when the wine was prohibited.

9-(1880) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I was serving drink to Abu Ubaida Ibn Al-Jarrah, Abu Talha and Ubai Ibn Ka'b prepared from fresh dates and dry dates when a visitor came and said: "Verily the wine has been made unlawful." Abu Talha said: "O Anas! Get up and break this pitcher." I got up to a pointed stone with whose lower part I struck the pitcher until it broke into pieces.

10-(1982) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When Allah revealed the verse in which He prohibited the wine, there was no wine drunk but that prepared from dates.

[2] It is forbidden to prepare vinegar from wine

11-(1983) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about using wine for preparing vinegar. He answered in the negative.

Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that raisins would be soaked in water for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which he would drink on that day and on the next day and on the following day until the evening of the third day. He would then order it to be drunk by (other people) or to be spilt.
- 82-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Nabidh used to be prepared from raisins for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the water skin which he would drink on that day, on the next day and the day following; and when It was the evening of the third day, he would also drink it and give it to (his Companions). But if something was left over, he would spill it.
- 83-(...) Yahya Abu Umar An-Nakh'i reported that some people asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about transaction and trade of wine. He asked (them): Are you Muslims? They said, Yes. He said: Its transaction and trade are unlawful. They asked him about Nabidh and he said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out on a journey and then came back and (found that) some of his Companions prepared Nabidh for him in green pitcher, hollow stump and dry gourd. He ordered it to be spilt, and it was done accordingly. He then ordered them (to prepare Nabidh) in a water skin and it was prepared in it by soaking raisins in water. It was prepared in the night. In the morning he drank of it (and kept drinking) on that day, then the next night, and then on the next day until the evening. He drank and gave others to drink. When it was (the following) morning he ordered that what was left over be spilt.
- 84-(2005) Thumama (i.e. Ibn Hazm Al-Qushairi) reported: I met A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" whom I asked about Nabidh (which used to be served to the Prophet). A'isha called an Abyssinian slave-girl and said: Ask her (about that) for it was she, who used to prepare Nabidh for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Abyssinian (slave-girl) said: I used to prepare Nabidh for him in a water skin in the night whose mouth I would tie and then hang it. When it was morning he (The Prophet) would drink from it.

94-(2011) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he asked for water. A person said: "O Messenger of Allah! May we not give you Nabidh to drink?" He (the Prophet) replied in the affirmative. The man went out speedily and brought a cup containing Nabidh, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Why did not you cover it, even with a stick across it?" He said that and then he drank.

95-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man known as Abu Humaid brought (for The Prophet) a cup of milk from An-Naqi. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Why did you not cover it even with a stick across it?"

[12] the command to cover the vessels, tie the mouths of water skins, close the doors and recite the name of Allah over them, etc.

96-(2012) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Cover vessels, tie the mouths of water skins, close the doors and extinguish the lamps, for the Satan does not loosen the water skin, does not open the door and does not uncover the vessels. If one among you fails to find (something) to cover it (the vessel) well, he should cover it by placing a stick across it, reciting the name of Allah; for the mouse may set fire to the house over its residents." Qutaiba did not mention closing the doors in his narration.

102-(2017) Hudhaifa "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Whenever we attended a meal along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we would not lay our hands on the food until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had laid his hand and started eating. Once we attended with him a meal when a girl rushed as if she had been prompted (by somebody). She was about to lay her hand on the food when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught hold of her hand. Then a Bedouin rushed as if he had been prompted (by somebody). (When he intended to lay his hand on the food) he (The Prophet) caught hold of his hand. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan regards lawful that food on which Allah's name is not mentioned. He had brought this girl so that the food might be made lawful for him, and I caught hold of her hand. And he had brought a Bedouin so that (the food) might be made lawful for him, and I caught hold of his hand. By Him, in Whose hand is my life, it was his (Satan's) hand which was in my hand along with her hand."

- 106-(...) Salim narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should eat with his left hand, nor should he drink with it (i.e. his left hand), for the Satan eats with his left hand and drinks with that (hand)." Nafi added to that: "He also should not take anything with that (left hand) nor should he give anything with it." In the narration transmitted on the authority of Abu Tahir there is a slight variation of wording.
- 107-(2021) Iyas narrated from his father Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" that somebody ate in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with his left hand. He (The Prophet) said: "Eat with your right hand." He said: "I cannot do so." He (The Prophet) said: "Might you not be able to do so! It was vanity which prevented him from doing so." However, he could not raise it (his right hand) up to his mouth.

My mother encouraged me to serve him. Once, he (The Prophet) came to our house, and we milked a goat for him and mixed it (the milk) with water from the well of the house. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drank that. Abu Bakr was on his left side when Umar said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Give it to Abu Bakr!" He (The Prophet) gave it to the desert Arab who was on his right. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(You should begin with) the one who is on the right, then he who is on the right (and so on)."

126-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to our house and he asked for a drink. We milked a goat for him and then mixed it (the milk) with the water of this well of mine. I gave it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who drank it, while Abu Bakr was on his left, Umar was in front of him, and a Bedouin was on his right. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had finished drinking, Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! Here is Abu Bakr! Give it to him to drink!" (It seemed as if he was showing him to The Prophet). But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave it to the desert Arab and left Abu Bakr and Umar. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(You should start with) those on the right, those on the right, those on the right (and so on)." Anas said: This is the Sunna. This is the Sunna. This is the Sunna.

127-(2030) Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was given a drink, from which he drank. There was a boy on his right

139-(2037) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a Persian neighbour, who had a good experience in preparing soup. He prepared (soup) for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then came to invite him (to a meal). He (The Messenger of Allah) said: "Here is this (pointing to A'isha, whom you should invite)." He said: "No." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No (I cannot accept the invitation alone)." He invited him once again, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Here is this (pointing to A'isha, whom you should invite)." He said: "No." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No (I cannot accept the invitation alone)." He invited him (for the third time) and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Here is this (A'isha whom you should invite)." He (the man) said in the third time: "Yes." Then he accepted his invitation, and both of them set out until they came to his house.

[20] It is permissible for the guest to accompany with him anyone when he is confident that the host shall be pleased

140-(2038) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that one day or one night, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out (of his house), where he found Abu Bakr and Umar. He said: "What has brought you out of your houses at this hour?" They said: "O Messenger of Allah! It is hunger." He said: "By Him in Whose Hand is my life! It is what has brought you out which has brought me out. Get up." They got up along with him, and came to the house of an Ansari man, who was not at home. When his wife saw him she said: "Welcome!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Where is so and so?" She said: "He went out to bring some fresh water for us." When the Ansari man came and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his two Companions, he said: "Praise be to Allah! No one has more honourable guests today than me."

He went out and brought them a bunch of ripe dates, dry dates and fresh dates, and said: "Eat of that." He took hold of a knife (in order to slaughter a goat). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Beware of (slaughtering) a milch animal." He slaughtered a goat for them. Then, they ate of it and of the bunch and then drank. When they had taken their fill and had been fully satisfied with the drink, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abu Bakr and Umar: "By Him in Whose Hand is my life! You will certainly be asked about this blessing on the Day of judgment. Hunger brought you out of your houses, but you did not return until this blessing came to you."

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: One day while Abu Bakr was sitting accompanied by Umar, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined them and said: "What causes you to stay here?" They said: "It is hunger which has brought us out from our houses, by Him Who has sent you with the Truth." The rest is the same.

141-(2039) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While we were digging the Trench, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" feeling very hungry. I came to my wife and said to her: "Is there anything with you? I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" feeling so much hungry." She brought out a leather container having a Sa of barley. We had also a lamb, which I slaughtered. She ground the flour. She finished (this work) along with me. I cut it into pieces and put it in the earthen pot and then returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for inviting him). She said: "Do not humiliate me in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and those who are with him."

When I came to him I whispered to him saying: "O Messenger of Allah! We have slaughtered a lamb for you and she (my wife) has ground a Sa of barley, which we had. So you might come along with some people with you." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said loudly: "O people of the Trench! Jabir has prepared a meal for you, so come along!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not remove your earthen pot from the hearth and do not bake the bread from the kneaded flour until I come." I came (back to my house) and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came (following me) and he was ahead of the people. I came to my wife who said (to me): "You will be humiliated." I said: "I did what you had asked me to do." She (my wife) said: I brought out the kneaded flour and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put some saliva of his in that and blessed it. He then put saliva in the earthen pot and blessed it and then said: "Call another baker who can bake with you, and bring out the soup from it (the earthen pot), but do not remove it from the hearth." However, the guests were one thousand. By Allah, all of them ate (the food to their fill) until they left it and went away and our earthen pot was brimming over as it was before, and so was our flour, (or as Ad-Dahhak (another narrator)said: It (the flour) was in the same state at the time the loaves had been prepared from it).

142-(2040) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Talha said to Umm Sulaim: "I have noticed that the voice of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was feeble because of hunger, as I think. Have you got any food?" She said: "Yes." She brought out some loaves of barley and took out a veil belonging to her, in part of which she wrapped the bread. She put it under my arm, wrapped part of the veil round me and sent me to Allah's Apostle. I went carrying it and found The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the Mosque sitting with some people. When I stood there, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Has Abu Talha sent you?" I said: "Yes." He asked: "for food?" I said: "Yes." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said to the men around him: "Get up!"

He set out (accompanied by them); and I went ahead of them till I reached Abu Talha and informed him (of The Prophet's visit). Abu Talha said: "O Umm Sulaim! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is coming with the people and we have nothing to feed them." She said: "Allah and His Apostle know better." So Abu Talha went out to receive Allah's Apostle. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came along with Abu Talha. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Sulaim! Bring whatever you have." She brought the bread, which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered to be broken into pieces. Umm Sulaim poured on them some butter from an oilskin. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited what Allah wished him to recite, and said: "Let ten persons come (to share the meal)." Ten persons were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said: "Let another ten do the same." They were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said: "Let ten persons (come in)." (They were admitted, ate their fill and went out). Indeed, all of them ate their fill; and they were seventy or eighty men.

Talha sent me to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to invite him (to a meal), for he had prepared food. I came and found The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sitting with some people. He looked at me, and I felt shy and said: "Accept the invitation of Abu Talha." He (The Prophet) ordered the people to get up. Abu Talha said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have prepared something for you." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" touched (the food) upon which he invoked blessings, and then said: "Let ten persons from among my Companions enter (the house)." He said (to them): "Eat." He brought out something from between his fingers for them. They then ate their fill and then went out. He then said: "Let ten more enter (the house)." They ate their fill, (and went out). Then he went on having ten by ten enter (the house and eat from the food) and then go out until none was left amongst them but that he got in and ate his 169-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I was sitting in my house when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed by me. He pointed to me and I stood up for him. He took hold of my hand and we proceeded until we came to one of the dwelling places of his wives. He entered and invited me to come in. I entered and there was a hanging curtain beside her. He said: "Is there (any food for) lunch?" she said: "Yes." Then, three loaves of bread were brought for him (The Prophet) and put in a basket of palm leaves. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a loaf which he put in front of him, and took another one which he put in front of me. He took the third one which he divided into two: the one half in front of him and the other half in front of me. One night, Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari got up and said (to himself): "(How do) we walk above the head of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" They went aside and spent the night in a nook and (in the morning) they told The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The lower floor is more comfortable (for me)." but he (Abu Aiyyub) said: "We are not to live over a roof beneath which you live." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" moved to the upper floor, and Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari moved to the lower one.

He (Abu Aiyyub) used to prepare food for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Whenever it was brought to him (Abu Aiyyub after The Prophet had finished his meal), he would ask (about the location) where his (The Prophet's) fingers had touched (the food), in order that he would follow his fingers on that location where those (of the Prophet) had touched. Once, he prepared food which contained garlic, and when it was brought back to him he asked about the location where the fingers of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had touched. It was said to him that he (The Prophet) had not eaten. He (Abu Aiyyub) was overtaken and went up to him (The Prophet) and said: "Is it (garlic) unlawful (to eat)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, but I hate it." He (Abu Aiyyub) said: "I then hate what you hate or what you disliked." He (Abu Aiyyub) said: (The Prophet did not eat garlic) because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was visited (by angels who) brought him the message of Allah.

[32] Showing hospitality to one's guest and the excellence of giving preference to him

172-(2054) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A person came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I am hard pressed by hunger." He sent (a message) to one of his wives (to get food for him), but she said: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I have nothing (to serve him) but water." He (the Prophet) then sent the (same) message to another, and she gave the same reply, until all of them gave the same reply: "By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I have nothing (to serve him) but water." Then, he (the Prophet) said: "Allah would bestow mercy upon him who will entertain this guest tonight." An Ansari stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I (would entertain him)."

He took him to his house and said to his wife: "Is there anything with you (to serve the guest)?" She said: "No, except for a subsistence for our children." He said: "Distract their attention with something, and when the guest enters extinguish the lamp and give him the impression that we are eating." So they sat down, and the guest had his meal. When it was morning he went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Allah was well pleased with what you both did for your guest this night."

173-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a guest spent the night in the house of a man from the Ansar who had nothing except for the food of his own self and his children. He said to his wife: "Let the children go to bed, extinguish the lamp, and serve the guest with what you have. It was on this occasion that this verse was revealed: "But give them preference over themselves, even though poverty was their (own lot)." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 59)

(...)Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so that he might entertain him as a guest. But he had nothing with which he could entertain him. He asked: "Is there any person who would entertain him so that Allah would bestow mercy upon him?" A person from the Ansar who was called Abu Talha stood up and took him to his house... and the rest of the Hadith is the same, including mentioning of the revelation of the verse as narrated by Waki.

174-(2055) Al-Miqdad "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I and two of my companions were hard pressed of hunger to the extent that we had lost our faculties of seeing and hearing. We offered ourselves (as guests) to the Companions of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but none amongst them agreed to entertain us (because they had nothing to serve us). We came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who (agreed to entertain us and he) took us to his house where there were three goats. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Milk those (goats) for us." We milked them and every one from amongst us drank his share and we set aside that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". However, he used to come during the night and greet (the people present there) in a manner that would not awaken the sleepy but make one who was awake hear it. He would go to the mosque and perform prayer, then go to the milk and drink it.

Al-Miqdad further said: One night the Satan came to me when I had taken my share, and said: "Muhammad has gone to the Ansar, who would entertain him and he would get what is with them, and he has no need for this small quantity (of milk)." Consequently, I took (that milk) and drank it, and when it had entered into my stomach and I was certain that there was no way (to get it out), the Satan blamed me and said: "Woe to you! what have you done? You have taken the drink kept for Muhammad! When he would come and not find it, he would invoke evil upon you, with the result that you would be destroyed, and in this way, both this world and the Hereafter would go (in vain with no share of good deeds) for you."

There was a sheet over me. Whenever I put it upon my feet, my head would be uncovered and whenever I put it upon my head, my feet would be uncovered. I could not sleep, but my two companions had gone asleep for they had not done what I had done. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came. He greeted as he used to do. He then came to the mosque and observed prayer and then came to his drink (of milk) which he uncovered, but he did not find anything in it. He raised his head towards the sky. I said (to myself) that he (The Prophet) was going to invoke evil upon me and in this way, I would be destroyed. But he (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Feed him who fed me and provide with drink him who provided me with drink."

I tightened the sheet upon myself and caught hold of the knife and went to the goats (of the Prophet) with the intention to slaughter the fattest for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But behold! (the udders of) all of them were full of milk. I took hold of a bowl belonging to the family of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in which they had not expected to milk (in view of the fact that it was too big to be fitting for the quantity of the milk they used to have). Then, I milked in it until it swelled up with foam. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Have you all drunk your share of the milk during the night?" I said: "Drink it." He drank it. he then gave it (the bowl) to me and I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Drink it." he drank it and gave it (the bowl) to me. Then, I knew that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been satisfied and that I had got his invocation (of blessings).

I burst into laughter (so much) that I fell upon the ground, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Miqdad! It must be one of your misbehaviors." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! This affair of mine is so-and-so, and I have done so." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: This (milk which was found in the udders unexpectedly) is but a mercy from Allah. Why did 175-(2056) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: We were one hundred and thirty (persons) in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Does anyone of you have food?" There was a person with (us) who had a Sa of flour or something like that, which was kneaded. Then a tall infidel with disheveled hair came driving his flock of sheep. Thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you like to sell it (one of those goats), or offer it as a gift or a present?" He said: "No, (I would not give anyone as a gift), but I would sell it." He (the Prophet) bought a sheep from him, which was slaughtered and its meat was prepared. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that its liver should be roasted. By Allah, there was none among those one hundred and thirty persons but that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him a portion of its liver. If anyone was present he gave it to him, but if he was absent it was reserved for him. He (the Prophet) filled two bowls (one with soup and the other with mutton) from which we all ate our fill. But some was left over in (those) two bowls, which I put on the camel (or said similar to that).

176-(2057) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The people of Suffa were very poor. Once The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to his Companions): "He who among you has food for two persons should take three (guests with him), and he who has food for four persons should take five or six (guests with him)." Accordingly, Abu Bakr took three (guests), and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took ten (guests). Abu Bakr took three persons (in addition to) my father and my mother. (I (a sub-narrator) do not know whether he said: My wife and one servant who was common between our house and that of Abu Bakr).

Abu Bakr had had his evening meal with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He stayed here until the Night

Prayer had been offered. He then came back (to the house of The Messenger of Allah) and stayed there until The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt drowsy and (Abu Bakr) then came (back to his own house) after a portion of the night had been over, as Allah willed. His wife said to him: "What did detain you from your guests?" He said: "Oh! have you not served them the supper?" She said: "It was served to them, but they refused to eat until you came." I slunk away and hid myself. He (Abu Bakr) said: "O you ignorant foolish one!" He reproached me and said to his guests: "Eat, though it may not be pleasant now." He further said: "By Allah! I will never eat it."

By Allah, we did not take a morsel from beneath it (the food but that there appeared) more until they had eaten their fill, and lo! it was more than what it had been before. Abu Bakr saw that and found that it was so or more than that. He said to his wife: "O Sister of Banu Firas! What is this?" She said: "By the coolness of my eyes! It increased three times it had been." Then Abu Bakr ate saying: "That (oath not to eat from the food)was from the Satan." He took another morsel out of it and then took (the remaining portion of) it to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", where it was kept until morning. During (those days) there was a covenant between us and some other people, and the period of covenant was over, and we had appointed twelve officials with every person among them. It is Allah only Who knows as to how many people were there with each of them. He sent (this food) from which all of them ate.

177-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Some guests came to our house. My father used to (go and) talk to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during the night. While he was going he said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman! Entertain the guests." When it was evening we served the food to them, but they refused and said: "We would not eat unless the owner of the house comes and join us." I said to them: "He (my father) is an uncompromising man, and if you did not do, I fear, I would be harmed by him." But they refused.

When he (my father) came, the first thing he asked was: "Have you served the guests?" They (the members of the household) said: "We have not served them yet." He said: "Did I not order Abd Ar-Rahman (to serve them)?" He (the narrator) said: I slunk away and hid myself at this time. He said once again: "O ignorant foolish fellow! I ask you by Allah, that if you hear my voice you should come to me." I came and said: "By Allah! There

Woe to you! that you do not accept our food which was prepared for you." He further said: "What I did first (when I swore not to eat the food) was from the Satan. Bring the food." The food was brought, and he ate by mentioning the name of Allah and so did they. When it was morning he came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! They (the guests) fulfilled their oath, but I broke mine." He related to him the whole story, whereupon he said: "You have been the most true to your oath and you are the best of them." saying: "You should neither wear silk or brocade nor should you drink in utensils of gold and silver, nor should you eat in the dishes made of those (gold and silver), for they are for them (the unbelievers) in this world." 6-(2068) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab saw a garment of silk (being sold) at the door of the mosque, whereupon he said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would that you buy it and wear it for the people on Friday and for (receiving) the delegations when they come to you! "Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who wears it has no share (of reward) in the Hereafter." Then (some of) those silk garments were sent to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who sent one of them to Umar. Thereupon Omar said: You make me wear (this silk garment) though you said about the silk garment of Utarid (the person who had been selling this garment) what you had said. (What is the matter?)" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I did not send to you this to wear, (but in order that you might utilize its price)." Umar gave it as a gift to a brother of his who was an infidel in Mecca.

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar through another chain of transmitters.

7-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that Umar saw Utarid At-Tamimi standing in the market (and selling) silk garments. However, he used to go to (courts of) kings and get (high prices) from them for those garments. Umar said: "O Messenger of Allah! I saw Utarid standing in the market with a silk garment. Would that you buy and wear it for (receiving) the delegations of Arabs when they visit you?" I (the narrator) think that he (Umar) also said: "You also may wear it on Friday." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who wears silk in this world has no share (of reward) in the Hereafter."

Later on when these silk garments were presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he presented one of them to Umar, one to Usama Ibn Zaid, and one to Ali Ibn Abu Talib, saying: "Tear it, and make from (the pieces of) it head coverings for your wives." Umar came carrying his garment and said: "O Messenger of Allah! You sent it to me, though you had said yesterday about the (silk) garment of Utarid what you had said." He (The Prophet) said: "I did not send it to you in order to wear, but I sent It to you so that you might utilize it."

As for Usama, he was hasty (when he wore) his garment. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at him in such a way that he knew that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked what he had done. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you look at me like this, though it was you who presented it to me?" He said: "I did not send it to you to wear, but I sent It to you so that you might tear it and make (from the pieces of) it head covering for your wives."

- (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Ja'far but with a slight variation of wording.
- 18-(...) Ali "Allah be pleased with him" reported that Ukaidir of Duma presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a silk garment, which he gave to Ali as a gift, and said: "Tear it (into pieces from which you might) make head covering for Fitimas." (or among the women, according to Abu Bakr and Abu Kuraib).
- 19-(...) Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me a silk cloak. When I went out wearing it, I noticed (the signs of) anger on his face. Consequently, I tore it (into pieces) which I distributed among my women.
- 20-(2072) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a silk cloak to Umar, whereupon Umar said: "You sent it to me though you said (about the prohibition of it) what you had said." He (the Prophet) said: "I did not send it to you to wear, but I sent it to you to might utilize its price."
- 21-(2073) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever wears silk in this world would not wear it in the Hereafter."
- 22-(2074) Abu Umama "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever wears silk in this world would not wear it in the Hereafter."
- 23-(2075) Uqba Ibn Amir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A silk gown was presented to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which he wore and offered the Prayer while wearing it. Then he returned and put it off so violently as if he disliked it. He then said: "It is not to befit the Allah-fearing men."

their rings. (The word "silver" here is not correct, and it seems that Ibn Shihab, the sub-narrator was mistaken by bringing it instead of "gold", because the well-known fact is that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once had a gold ring which he wore in his hand, and which he discarded later when the people did the same, as understood from the narrations of this Hadith on the authority of Anas, through people other than Ibn Shihab. But as for the silver ring, there is a unanimous consensus among the religious scholars that it is not forbidden).

74-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should lie on his back and put one of his legs over the other."

[22] Permissibility of putting one's leg over the other while lying

75-(2100) Abbad Ibn Tamim reported from his uncle that he saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lying down in the mosque, putting one of his legs over the other.

76-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters.

[23] It is forbidden for men to apply saffron (to their clothes)

77-(2101) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade applying saffron (to one's clothes). Hammad said that it is concerned only with men.

(...)Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade man to apply saffron (to his clothes).

[24] It is desirable to dye one's white hair with yellow or red and black is prohibited

78-(2102) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Abu Quhafa (the father of Abu Bakr) came (or was brought) on the Day of Victory (or in the year of Conquest to the Prophet to announce his embracing Islam), with his head and beard white like hyssop. He (The Prophet) ordered or the women were ordered by him to change this (whiteness) with something.

79-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Abu Quhafa was brought (to the Prophet) on the day of the Conquest of Mecca, with his head and beard white like hyssop. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Change this (whiteness of his head and beard) with something but avoid black."

٢٤ ـ بابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ خِضَابِ الشَّعر بصُفْرَةٍ أو حُمْرَةٍ وتحريمه بالسَّوادِ

٧٨ ـ (٢١٠٢) ـ حدَّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو خَيْثَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ. قَالَ: أَتِيَ بِأَبِي قُحَافَةَ، أَوْ جَاءَ، عَامَ الْفَتْحِ أَوْ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ، وَرَأْسُهُ وَلِحْيَتُهُ مِثْلُ الثَّغَامِ أَوِ الثَّغَامَةِ. فَأَمَرَ، أَوْ فَأُمِرَ بِهِ إِلَىٰ نِسَائِهِ، قَالَ: «غَيِّرُوا لهٰذَا بِشَيْءٍ».

٧٩ ـ (...) ـ وحَدَّثْنِي أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبِ عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْج، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْر، عَنْ جَابِر بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ. قَالَ: أُتِيَ بِأَبِي قُحَافَةَ يَوْم فَتْح مَكَّةً، وَرَأْسُهُ وَلِحْيَتُهُ كَالثَّغَامَةِ بَيَاضاً. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «غَيِّرُوا هٰذَا بِشَيْءٍ، وَاجْتَنِبُوا السَّوَادَ».

[25] Opposing the Jews by dying (the hair)

80-(2103) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Jews and the Christians do not dye (their hair), so oppose them (by dying yours)."

[26] Forbiddance of making a picture of an animated thing, and the angels never enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture

81-(2104) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Gabriel "Peace be upon him" had an appointment with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to visit him) at a certain hour. But, when it was the definite time, he did not come to him. There was in his (The Prophet's) hand a staff, which he threw and said: "Neither Allah nor His messengers (angels) have broken their promise." Then he cast a glance and found a dog under his bedding, whereupon he said: "O A'isha! When did this dog enter here?" She said: "BY Allah, I do not know." He then ordered it be taken out. Then Gabriel came to whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You promised me (to visit me) and I expected you, but you did not come." He said: "It was the dog in your house which prevented me (from coming), for we (angels) never enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture."

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Hazim with the same chain of transmitters that Gabriel had promised The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he would come... and the rest of the Hadith is the same, but it is not so much long as the other one.

82-(2105) Abdullah Ibn Abbas narrated that Maimuna told him that one morning The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept silent and he was sad. Maimuna said: "O Messenger of Allah! I notice a change in your mood today (What is wrong with you?)" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Gabriel promised me to meet me tonight, but he did not come. By Allah, he never broke his promises." However, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained sad for the day. Then it occurred to his mind that there had been a dog under our cot. He ordered it be turned out. He then took some water in his hand which he sprinkled at that place. When it was evening Gabriel visited him to whom he said: "you promised me to meet me last night (Why did you not come?)" He said: "Yes, but we never enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture." in the morning (following that

Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having mentioned that?" She replied in the negative and added: "But I am going to narrate to you what I saw him doing. I witnessed that he set out for a certain holy battle. I took a carpet with which I screened the door. When he (The Prophet) returned, he saw that carpet, and I noticed (the signs of) disapproval on his face. He pulled it until he tore or cut it (into pieces). Then, he said: "Allah has not ordered us to clothe stones and clay." We cut this (curtain) from which we prepared two cushions stuffed with date-palm fiber, which he (The Prophet) did not criticize.

of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, the people who would receive the most grievous punishment on the Day of Judgement are the makers of pictures.""

- 99-(2110) I (Muslim) read this before Nasr Ibn Ali al-Jahdami who read it before other narrators, the last of whom was Ibn Sa'id Ibn Abu al-Hasan who narrated that a man came to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and said: "I am one whose profession is to make pictures. What is your religious verdict about them?" He (Ibn Abbas) said to him: "Come closer to me." He came closer to him so much that he (Ibn Abbas) put his hand on his head and said: "I am going to narrate to you what I heard from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I heard him saying: "All the makers of pictures would be in the fire (of Hell). Every picture he made would have the soul breathed into it (by Allah), by which he would be punished in the Hell."" Then, he (Ibn Abbas) further said: "If you have to do it anyway, then make the pictures of trees and lifeless things." However, Nasr Ibn Ali confirmed that.
- 100-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was sitting with Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" who was giving religious verdicts, without saying that it was The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who had said that, until a man asked him: "I am a maker of those pictures (what is the religious verdict pertaining to them?)" Ibn Abbas said: "Come closer to me." The man came closer to him. Then, Ibn Abbas said: "I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He who made pictures in the world would be asked to breathe soul into them on the Day of Judgement, and (of course) he would not (be able to) breathe soul (into them).""

[31] Disapproval of leaving a tuft of hair here and a tuft of hair there (after getting one's head shaved)

113-(2120) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade Qaza (i.e. to leave a tuft of hair here and a tuft of hair there after getting one's head shaved). I asked Nafi about Qaza and he said: It means that when the boy gets his head shaved, he leaves a tuft of hair here and a tuft of hair there unshaved.

[32] It is forbidden to sit at the roadsides, and (it is obligatory) to respect the rights of the road

114-(2121) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware! Avoid sitting on the roads." The people said: "There is no way out of it since these are our sitting places where we have talks." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you sit there, then you must observe the rights of the road." They asked: "What are the rights of the road?" He said: "They are to lower your gazes (on seeing what is unlawful to look at), refrain from harming people, return back greetings, advocate good and forbid evil."

She came and said (to Abdullah): "I have come to know that you have cursed those ladies who practice tattooing as well as those who get themselves tattooed, those ladies who get the hair of their faces removed, and those who make artificial spaces between their teeth in order to be more beautiful whereby they change Allah's creation." He replied: "Why should I not curse those whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had cursed and who are cursed in Allah's Book!"

Umm Ya'qub said: "I read the Qur'an (in full) from the binder to the binder, but I did find in it nothing of what you say." He said: "No doubt, had you read it (The Holy Qur'an), you would have found it. Didn't you read: "Take what the Messenger assigns to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds from you. And fear Allah; for Allah is strict in Punishment." (The Mustering "Al-Hashr" 7) She said: "But I see your wife doing these things now." He said: "Go and watch her." (...) ـ حدَّثنا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ. (ح) وَحَدَّثَنِي حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ:

- (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri but with a slight variation of wording.
- 123-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab reported: Mu'awiya came to Medina and addressed us after he had taken out a bunch of hair saying: "I saw none doing this (using of false hair) except for the Jews. (No doubt, I remember that) when (the news of) this act reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he called it cheating."
- 124-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab reported that Mu'awiya said one day: "No doubt, you have innovated an evil make-up. Verily, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade cheating." Meanwhile, a man came with a staff on whose head there was a rag. On that Mu'awiya said: "Behold, that is also cheating." Quatada said: That's, women increase their hair falsely with (the help of) rags.

[34] The women who are naked even though they are dressed, who are inclined (towards the mischief) and prompt others to be inclined as such

125-(2128) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are two types of the dwellers of the fire (of Hell) whom I did not see: people having lashes like the tails of the cows, with which they beat the people, and the women who are naked even though they are dressed, who are inclined (towards mischief) and prompt others to be inclined as such, whose heads are like the humps of the inclined camels. They will not enter Paradise and they would not even smell its odor though its odor would be smelt from such and such a distance."

[35] It is forbidden to wear the garment of falsehood, and to falsely tell of a thing which one has not been given

126-(2129) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported that a woman said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is it permissible to say to my (fellow-wife) that my husband has given me (such and such) a thing which, really, he has not given me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The one who falsely tells of what he has not been given is like one who wears two garments of falsehood."

- 127-(2130) Asma "Allah be pleased with her" reported that a woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I have a fellow-wife. Is there any harm for me if I tell her falsely of getting something from the wealth of my husband which he has not really given me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The one who falsely tells of getting what he has not been given is like one who wears two garments of falsehood."
- (...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Hisham with the same chain of transmitters.
